2B Offences under this Act deemed to be indictable offences

Offences under this Act are, unless the contrary intention appears, deemed to be indictable offences.

Part I—Offences

Division 1—Offences against the person

(1) Homicide

3 Punishment for murder

(1) Notwithstanding any rule of law to the contrary, a person convicted of murder is liable to—

(a) level 1 imprisonment (life); or

(b) imprisonment for such other term as is fixed by the court—as the court determines.

new s. 3(2)
inserted by
No. 34/2017
s. 25(2).

- (2) The standard sentence for murder is—
- (a) 30 years if the court, in determining sentence, is satisfied that the prosecution has proved beyond reasonable doubt that—
    - (i) the person murdered was a custodial officer on duty or an emergency worker on duty; and
    - (ii) at the time of carrying out the conduct the accused knew or was reckless as to whether that person was a custodial officer or an emergency worker; and
  - (b) in any other case, 25 years.

Notes

- 1 See sections 5A and 5B of the Sentencing Act 1991 as to standard sentences.
- 2 Murder is a category 1 offence under the Sentencing Act 1991. See section 5(2G) of that Act for the requirement to impose a custodial order for this offence.

3A Unintentional killing in the course or furtherance of a crime of violence

S. 3A
inserted by
s. 3(1).

- (1) A person who unintentionally causes the death of another person by an act of violence done in the course or furtherance of a crime the necessary elements of which include violence for which a person upon first conviction may, under or by virtue of any enactment, be sentenced to level 1 imprisonment (life) or to imprisonment for a term of 10 years or more shall be liable to be convicted of murder as though he had killed that person intentionally.

S. 3A(1)
amended by Nos 49/1991
s. 119(1)
(Sch. 2
item 2), 48/1997
s. 60(1)(Sch. 1
item 2(a)(b)).

- (2) The rule of law known as the felony-murder rule (whereby a person who unintentionally causes the death of another by an act of violence done in the course or furtherance of a felony of violence is liable to be convicted of murder as though he had killed that person intentionally) is hereby abrogated.

3B Provocation no longer a partial defence to murder

4A Manslaughter—single punch or strike taken to be dangerous act

- (1) This section applies to a single punch or strike that—
  - (a) is delivered to any part of a person's head or neck; and
  - (b) by itself causes an injury to the head or neck.
- (2) A single punch or strike is to be taken to be a dangerous act for the purposes of the law relating to manslaughter by an unlawful and dangerous act.
- (3) For the purposes of subsection (2), it is irrelevant that the single punch or strike is one of a series of punches or strikes.
- (4) A single punch or strike may be the cause of a person's death even if the injury from which the person dies is not the injury that the punch or strike itself caused to the person's head or neck but another injury resulting from an impact to the person's head or neck, or to another part of the person's body, caused by the punch or strike.

Example

If a person punches another person to the head, and that other person falls, hits their head on the road, and dies from the injury resulting from their head hitting the road, the punch may be the cause of their death.

- (5) Nothing in this section limits the circumstances in which a punch or strike may be an unlawful and dangerous act for the purposes of the law relating to manslaughter by an unlawful and dangerous act.

(6) In this section—

injury has the same meaning as in Subdivision (4);

strike means a strike delivered with any part of the body.

Notes

- 1 Under section 11 of the Jury Directions Act 2015, after the close of all evidence and before the closing address of the prosecution, defence counsel must inform the trial judge whether each element of the offence is or is not in issue, including—
  - whether the punch or strike was a dangerous act; and
  - whether the punch or strike caused the person's death.
- 2 Under section 12 of the Jury Directions Act 2015, the prosecution and defence counsel must each request that the trial judge give, or not give, to the jury particular directions in respect of the matters in issue, which may include—
  - whether the punch or strike was a dangerous act; and
  - whether the punch or strike caused the person's death.

5B Homicide by firearm

- (1) A person who, by discharging a firearm, causes the death of another person in circumstances that constitute manslaughter is guilty of homicide by firearm and liable to level 2 imprisonment (25 years maximum).
- (2) The standard sentence for homicide by firearm is 13 years.
- (3) In this section—

discharge has the same meaning as in section 31C(4);

firearm has the same meaning as in the Firearms Act 1996.

Notes

- 1 See sections 5A and 5B of the Sentencing Act 1991 as to standard sentences.
- 2 Homicide by firearm is a category 2 offence under the Sentencing Act 1991. See section 5(2H) of that Act for the requirement to impose a custodial order unless the circumstances set out in paragraphs (a) to (e) of that section exist.

Nothing in section 5A or 5B is to be taken to provide that conduct that constitutes any one of the following offences is, because it constitutes that offence, incapable of constituting another of those offences—

- (a) manslaughter;
- (b) child homicide;
- (c) homicide by firearm.

6 Infanticide

- (1) If a woman carries out conduct that causes the death of her child in circumstances that would constitute murder and, at the time of carrying out the conduct, the balance of her mind was disturbed because of—
  - (a) her not having fully recovered from the effect of giving birth to that child within the preceding 2 years; or

(a) incites any other person to commit suicide and that other person commits or attempts to commit suicide in consequence thereof; or

S. 6B(2)(a)
amended by
No. 10079
s. 8(c).

(b) aids or abets any other person in the commission of suicide or in an attempt to commit suicide—

shall be guilty of an indictable offence and liable to level 6 imprisonment (5 years maximum); but if the jury are satisfied on the balance of probabilities that the acts constituting the offence were done pursuant to a suicide pact the jury shall return a verdict of guilty of the indictable offence of being a party to a suicide pact and the convicted person shall be liable to level 6 imprisonment (5 years maximum).

(3) The fact that by virtue of this section any person who in pursuance of a suicide pact has killed another person has not been or is not liable to be convicted of murder shall not affect the question of whether the homicide amounted to murder in the case of a third person who is a party to the homicide and is not a party to the suicide pact.

- (4) For the purposes of this section suicide pact means an agreement between two or more persons having for its object the death of all of them whether or not each is to take his own life; but nothing done by a person who enters into a suicide pact shall be treated as done by him in pursuance of the pact unless it is done while he has the settled intention of dying in pursuance of the pact.

  - (b) the victim is a police officer on duty or a protective services officer on duty; and
  - (c) the person knows or is reckless as to whether the victim is a police officer or a protective services officer.
- (2) A person who commits an offence against subsection (1) is liable to level 4 imprisonment (15 years maximum).
- (3) Subsection (1) does not apply to conduct engaged in by a person who is—
- (a) a police officer or a protective services officer acting in the course of the police officer's or the protective services officer's official duties when authorised to discharge a firearm by the Chief Commissioner of Police; or

- (b) a senior IBAC Officer carrying out the purposes for which firearms may be used under Part 5 of the Independent Broad-based Anti-corruption Commission Act 2011 and as authorised under that Part; or
- (c) a member of a police force or police service of the Commonwealth or of another State or a Territory discharging a firearm issued to the member for the performance of a detailed duty; or
- (d) a prison guard who holds a licence under the Firearms Act 1996 issued for the requirement of the occupation of prison guard discharging a firearm as authorised under that licence while acting in the course of the prison guard's duties in the immediate pursuit of another person who is under the prison guard's custody; or
- (e) a person who holds a licence under the Firearms Act 1996, discharging a firearm the person is authorised to use under the licence in the course of the person's duties under—
  - (i) the Conservation, Forests and Lands Act 1987; or
  - (ii) the Livestock Disease Control Act 1994; or
  - (iii) the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals Act 1986.

Notes

- 1 An offence against this section if committed in certain circumstances is a category 2 offence under the Sentencing Act 1991. See section 5(2H) of that Act for the requirement to impose a custodial order for this offence unless the circumstances set out in paragraphs (a) to (e) of that section exist.

- 2 Section 16(3E) of the Sentencing Act 1991 requires that every term of imprisonment imposed on a person for an offence against this section if committed in certain circumstances must, unless otherwise directed by the court, be served cumulatively on any uncompleted sentence or sentences of imprisonment imposed on that offender, whether before or at the same time as that term.

(4) In this section—

discharge means the discharge of shot or a bullet or other missile from a firearm;

firearm has the same meaning as in the Firearms Act 1996;

police officer on duty means a police officer who is performing any duty or exercising any power as such an officer;

protective services officer on duty means a protective services officer who is performing any duty or exercising any power as such an officer;

31D Intimidation of a law enforcement officer or a family member of a law enforcement officer

- (1) A person commits an offence if—
- (a) the person uses or procures the use of intimidation towards another person (the victim); and
  - (b) the victim is a law enforcement officer or a family member of a law enforcement officer; and
  - (c) the use or procuring of intimidation is for reasons related to the victim being a law enforcement officer or a family member of a law enforcement officer.

- (2) A person who commits an offence against subsection (1) is liable to level 5 imprisonment (10 years maximum).
- (3) For the purposes of subsection (1)(a), a person uses intimidation towards a victim if—
  - (a) the person engages in conduct that could reasonably be expected to arouse apprehension or fear in the victim for the safety of the victim; and
  - (b) either—
    - (i) the person knows that engaging in that conduct would be likely to arouse that apprehension or fear; or
    - (ii) in all the particular circumstances, the person ought to have known that engaging in that conduct would be likely to arouse that apprehension or fear.
- (4) Subsection (3) applies whether or not the conduct arouses apprehension or fear in the victim.
- (5) In a proceeding for an offence against subsection (1) it is a defence to the charge for the accused to prove that conduct in respect of a victim referred to in paragraph (d), (e), (f) or (g) of the definition of law enforcement officer in subsection (8) was engaged in without malice—
  - (a) in the normal course of a lawful business, trade, profession or enterprise (including that of any body or person whose business, or whose principal business, is the publication, or arranging the publication, of news or current affairs material); or
  - (b) for the purposes of an industrial dispute; or

- (c) for the purpose of engaging in political activities or discussion or communicating with respect to public affairs.
- (6) For the purposes of this section a single act may amount to intimidation.
- (7) For the purposes of this section, it is immaterial—
  - (a) that some or all of the conduct constituting an offence against subsection (1) occurred outside Victoria, so long as the victim was in Victoria at the time at which that conduct occurred; or
  - (b) that the victim was outside Victoria at the time at which some or all of the conduct constituting an offence against subsection (1) occurred, so long as that conduct occurred in Victoria; or
  - (c) some or all of the conduct constituting an offence against subsection (1) occurred outside Victoria and the victim was outside Victoria at the relevant time or times, so long as the conduct is for reasons related to the victim being a law enforcement officer in Victoria, or a family member of a law enforcement officer in Victoria.
- (8) In this section—
  - family member* has the meaning given in section 8 of the Family Violence Protection Act 2008;
  - law enforcement officer* means a person who is—
    - (a) a police officer; or
    - (b) a protective services officer; or
    - (c) a police custody officer within the meaning of the Victoria Police Act 2013; or

- (d) a Governor, prison officer or escort officer within the meaning of the Corrections Act 1986; or
- (e) authorised under section 9A(1) of the Corrections Act 1986 to exercise a function or power of a Governor, a prison officer or an escort officer under that Act; or
- (f) authorised under section 9A(1A) or (1B) of the Corrections Act 1986 to exercise a function or power referred to in that subsection; or
- (g) a youth justice custodial worker within the meaning of the Children, Youth and Families Act 2005.

34 Consent not a defence to a charge under sections 32 or 33

It is not a defence to a charge brought under section 32 or 33 to prove that the person on whom the act which is the subject of the charge was performed, or the parents or guardian of that person, consented to the performance of that act.

34A Exceptions to offences under section 32

S. 34A
inserted by
No. 46/1996
s. 4.

- (1) It is not an offence against section 32 if the performance of the female genital mutilation is by a surgical operation which is—
  - (a) necessary for the health of the person on whom it is performed and which is performed by a medical practitioner; or
  - (b) is performed on a person in labour or who has just given birth, and for medical purposes or the relief of physical symptoms connected with that labour or birth, and which is performed by a medical practitioner or a midwife; or
  - (c) is a sexual reassignment procedure which is performed by a medical practitioner.
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1)(a), in determining whether an operation is necessary for the health of a person, the only matters to be taken into account are those relevant to the medical welfare or the relief of physical symptoms of the person.
- (3) The burden of proving that the performance of the female genital mutilation did not occur in any of the circumstances set out in subsection (1) lies with the prosecution.

(4A) Non-fatal strangulation

S. 34AB
inserted by
No. 37/2023
s. 3.

34AB Definitions

(1) In this Subdivision—

chokes, strangles or suffocates includes doing any of the following things—

- (a) applying pressure to the front or sides of a person's neck;
- (b) obstructing any part of, or interfering with the operation of, a person's respiratory system or accessory systems of respiration;
- (c) impeding a person's respiration;

family member has the meaning given by section 8 of the Family Violence Protection Act 2008;

injury has the same meaning as in section 15;

sexual activity has the meaning given by section 35D and subsection (2).

(2) If conduct constituting an offence against section 34AE(1) occurs during sexual activity (within the meaning of section 35D) that conduct is itself sexual activity for the purposes of this Subdivision.

34AC Guiding principles

It is the intention of Parliament that in interpreting and applying this Subdivision, courts are to have regard to the fact that—

- (a) non-fatal strangulation of a person by a current or former intimate partner indicates that the person is, statistically, significantly more likely to be killed by the current or former intimate partner; and
- (b) in circumstances of family violence, non-fatal strangulation can indicate an ongoing and escalating pattern of coercive and controlling behaviour by the perpetrator; and
- (c) even very short or individual instances of non-fatal strangulation can demonstrate the perpetrator's physical dominance and control over the victim and create an atmosphere of fear and compliance; and
- (d) non-fatal strangulation will not always leave physical signs or injuries, and it can result in physical signs or injuries that only appear after weeks or months have passed.

34AD Non-fatal strangulation intentionally causing injury

- (1) A person (A) commits an offence if—
  - (a) A intentionally and without lawful excuse chokes, strangles or suffocates another person (B); and
  - (b) A intends the choking, strangling or suffocation to cause an injury to B; and
  - (c) the choking, strangling or suffocation causes an injury to B; and

S. 34AD
inserted by
No. 37/2023

(d) A is a family member of B.

Penalty: Level 5 imprisonment (10 years maximum).

Note

A mistaken but honest and reasonable belief that A was not a family member of B is not a defence to this offence—see section 34AK.

- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1), it is not a lawful excuse that B consented to the conduct constituting the offence.
- (3) A does not commit an offence against subsection (1) if the conduct constituting the offence occurs in the course of a procedure carried out in good faith for medical or body modification purposes.

Examples

- 1 A tattoos B's neck at the request of B.
- 2 A gives B a neck piercing at the request of B.

S. 34AE
inserted by
No. 37/2023

34AE Non-fatal strangulation

- (1) A person (A) commits an offence if—
  - (a) A intentionally and without lawful excuse chokes, strangles or suffocates another person (B); and
  - (b) A is a family member of B.

Penalty: Level 6 imprisonment (5 years maximum).

Note

A mistaken but honest and reasonable belief that A was not a family member of B is not a defence to this offence—see section 34AK.

- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1), if the conduct constituting the offence is a sexual activity, that B consented to that conduct is not a lawful excuse except to the extent provided for by section 34AF.

- (3) Nothing in subsection (2) or section 34AF prevents B's consent to the conduct constituting the offence from being a lawful excuse for the purposes of subsection (1) if that conduct is not a sexual activity.
- (4) Nothing in sections 34AG to 34AJ applies in relation to consent being a lawful excuse where the conduct constituting the offence is not a sexual activity.

S. 34AF
inserted by
No. 37/2023
s. 3.

- (1) It is a defence to a charge for an offence against section 34AE(1) if—
  - (a) the conduct constituting the offence was a sexual activity; and
  - (b) either—
    - (i) B consented to the conduct; or
    - (ii) A reasonably believed that B consented to the conduct.
- (2) In this section—

consent has the meaning given by sections 34AG and 34AH.

34AG Sexual activity and consent defence—meaning of consent

S. 34AG
inserted by
No. 37/2023
s. 3.

For the purposes of section 34AF(1)(b)—

- (a) consent means free and voluntary agreement; and
- (b) a person does not consent to the conduct constituting the offence just because they do not resist the conduct verbally or physically; and

- (c) a person does not consent to the conduct constituting the offence just because they consented to—
  - (i) a different sexual activity with the same person; or
  - (ii) the same sexual activity with the same person at a different time or place; or
  - (iii) the same sexual activity with a different person; or
  - (iv) a different sexual activity with a different person.

S. 34AH
inserted by
No. 37/2023
s. 3.

34AH Sexual activity and consent defence—circumstances in which a person does not consent

For the purposes of section 34AF(1)(b), circumstances in which a person does not consent to the conduct constituting the offence include, but are not limited to, the following—

- (a) the person does not say or do anything to indicate consent to the conduct;
- (b) the person submits to the conduct because of force, a fear of force, harm of any type or a fear of harm of any type, whether to that person or someone else, regardless of—
  - (i) when the force, harm or conduct giving rise to the fear occurs; and
  - (ii) whether it is, or is a result of, a single incident or is part of an ongoing pattern;

Examples

Each of the following is a type of harm that can be done to a person as described in this paragraph—

- (a) economic or financial harm;
- (b) reputational harm;

- (c) harm to the person's family, cultural or community relationships;
  - (d) harm to the person's employment;
  - (e) family violence involving psychological abuse or harm to mental health;
  - (f) sexual harassment.
- (c) the person submits to the conduct because of coercion or intimidation—
- (i) regardless of when the coercion or intimidation occurs; and
  - (ii) whether it is, or is a result of, a single incident or is part of an ongoing pattern;
- (d) the person submits to the conduct because the person is unlawfully detained;
- (e) the person submits to the conduct because the person is overborne by the abuse of a relationship of authority or trust;
- (f) the person is asleep or unconscious;
- (g) the person is so affected by alcohol or another drug as to be incapable of consenting to the conduct;
- (h) the person is so affected by alcohol or another drug as to be incapable of withdrawing consent to the conduct;

Note

This circumstance may apply where a person gave consent when not so affected by alcohol or another drug as to be incapable of consenting.

- (i) having given consent to the conduct, the person later withdraws consent to the conduct taking place or continuing.

inserted by
No. 37/2023

34AI Sexual activity and consent defence—reasonable belief in consent

- (1) For the purposes of section 34AF(1)(b)(ii), whether or not A reasonably believes that B is consenting to the conduct constituting the offence depends on the circumstances.

Note

See section 34AJ for the effect of intoxication on the standard to be applied in determining whether A had a reasonable belief.

- (2) A's belief that B consents to the conduct constituting the offence is not reasonable if, within a reasonable time before or at the time the conduct takes place, A does not say or do anything to find out whether B consents to the conduct.
- (3) Subsection (2) does not apply if—
- (a) A has a cognitive impairment or mental illness (other than the effects of intoxication that is self-induced within the meaning of section 34AJ); and
  - (b) that cognitive impairment or mental illness is a substantial cause of A not saying or doing anything to find out whether B consents to the conduct constituting the offence.
- (4) A bears the burden of proving on the balance of probabilities the matters referred to in subsection (3).

Note

References to A and B in this section are references to the same A and B referred to in section 34AE.

34AJ Sexual activity and consent defence—effect of intoxication on standard to be applied in determining reasonable belief

inserted by
No. 37/2023
s. 3.

- (1) In determining whether a person who is intoxicated has a reasonable belief at any time—
  - (a) if the intoxication is self-induced, regard must be had to the standard of a reasonable person who is not intoxicated and who is otherwise in the same circumstances as that person at the relevant time; and
  - (b) if the intoxication is not self-induced, regard must be had to the standard of a reasonable person who is intoxicated to the same extent as the person and who is in the same circumstances as that person at the relevant time.
- (2) For the purposes of this section, intoxication is self-induced unless it came about—
  - (a) involuntarily; or
  - (b) because of fraud, sudden or extraordinary emergency, accident, reasonable mistake, duress or force; or
  - (c) from the use of a drug for which a prescription is required and that was used in accordance with the directions of the person who prescribed it; or
  - (d) from the use of a drug for which a prescription is not required and that was used for a purpose, and in accordance with the dosage level, recommended by the manufacturer.

- (3) However, intoxication that comes about in the circumstances referred to in subsection (2)(c) or (d) is self-induced if the person using the drug knew, or had reason to believe, when taking the drug that it would significantly impair the person's judgement or control.

34BE No defence of mistaken but honest and reasonable belief that activity was not sexual or conduct was not offensive

It is not a defence to a charge that, at the time of the conduct constituting the offence, A was under a mistaken but honest and reasonable belief that—

- (a) for an offence against section 34B(1)— the activity was not sexual; or
- (b) for an offence against section 34BB(1)—
the conduct was not offensive.

Note

The reference to A in this section is a reference to the same A referred to in the offence provisions in this Subdivision.

35A Sexual penetration

- (1) A person (A) sexually penetrates another person (B) if—
- (a) A introduces (to any extent) a part of A's body or an object into B's vagina; or

- (b) A introduces (to any extent) a part of A's body or an object into B's anus; or
  - (c) A introduces (to any extent) their penis into B's mouth; or
  - (d) A, having introduced a part of A's body or an object into B's vagina, continues to keep it there; or
  - (e) A, having introduced a part of A's body or an object into B's anus, continues to keep it there; or
  - (f) A, having introduced their penis into B's mouth, continues to keep it there.
- (2) A person sexually penetrates themselves if—
- (a) the person introduces (to any extent) a part of their body or an object into their own vagina; or
  - (b) the person introduces (to any extent) a part of their body or an object into their own anus; or
  - (c) having introduced a part of their body or an object into their own vagina, they continue to keep it there; or
  - (d) having introduced a part of their body or an object into their own anus, they continue to keep it there.
- (3) A person (A) sexually penetrates an animal if A engages in conduct with the animal that would involve sexual penetration as defined by subsection (1) were the animal another person (B).

- (4) A person (B) is sexually penetrated by an animal if B engages in conduct with the animal that would involve sexual penetration as defined by subsection (1) were the animal another person (A).
- (5) In relation to sexual penetration of an animal, a reference to the vagina or anus includes a reference to any similar part.

Note

References to A and B are included to help readers understand the definition of sexual penetration. The same technique is used in the offence provisions involving sexual penetration. There is no connection between the A and B referred to in one section and the A and B referred to in another section.

35B Touching

- (1) Touching may be done—
  - (a) with any part of the body; or
  - (b) with anything else; or
  - (c) through anything, including anything worn by the person doing the touching or by the person touched.
- (2) Touching may be sexual due to—
  - (a) the area of the body that is touched or used in the touching, including (but not limited to) the genital or anal region, the buttocks or, in the case of a female or a person who identifies as a female, the breasts; or
  - (b) the fact that the person doing the touching seeks or gets sexual arousal or sexual gratification from the touching; or
  - (c) any other aspect of the touching, including the circumstances in which it is done.

35C Taking part in a sexual act

A person takes part in a sexual act if—

- (a) the person is sexually penetrated or sexually touched—
  - (i) by another person; or
  - (ii) by an animal; or
- (b) the person sexually penetrates or sexually touches—
  - (i) another person; or
  - (ii) themselves; or
  - (iii) an animal.

36 Consent

- (1) Consent means free and voluntary agreement.

Note

See also sections 37A and 37B which set out the objectives of Subdivisions (8A) to (8G) and the guiding principles that the courts are to have regard to in interpreting and applying those Subdivisions, including this section and section 36AA.

- (2) A person does not consent to an act just because they do not resist the act verbally or physically.
- (3) A person does not consent to an act just because they consented to—
- (a) a different act with the same person; or
  - (b) the same act with the same person at a different time or place; or
  - (c) the same act with a different person; or
  - (d) a different act with a different person.

S. 36AA
inserted by
No. 38/2022

36AA Circumstances in which a person does not consent

- (1) Circumstances in which a person does not consent to an act include, but are not limited to, the following—
- (a) the person does not say or do anything to indicate consent to the act;
  - (b) the person submits to the act because of force, a fear of force, harm of any type or a fear of harm of any type, whether to that person or someone else or to an animal, regardless of—
    - (i) when the force, harm or conduct giving rise to the fear occurs; and
    - (ii) whether it is, or is a result of, a single incident or is part of an ongoing pattern;

Examples

Each of the following is a type of harm that can be done to a person as described in this paragraph—

- (a) economic or financial harm;
  - (b) reputational harm;
  - (c) harm to the person's family, cultural or community relationships;
  - (d) harm to the person's employment;
  - (e) family violence involving psychological abuse or harm to mental health;
  - (f) sexual harassment.
- (c) the person submits to the act because of coercion or intimidation—
- (i) regardless of when the coercion or intimidation occurs; and
  - (ii) whether it is, or is a result of, a single incident or is part of an ongoing pattern;
- (d) the person submits to the act because the person is unlawfully detained;
- (e) the person submits to the act because the person is overborne by the abuse of a relationship of authority or trust;
- (f) the person is asleep or unconscious;
- (g) the person is so affected by alcohol or another drug as to be incapable of consenting to the act;
- (h) the person is so affected by alcohol or another drug as to be incapable of withdrawing consent to the act;

Note

This circumstance may apply where a person gave consent when not so affected by alcohol or another drug as to be incapable of consenting.

- (i) the person is incapable of understanding the sexual nature of the act;
  - (j) the person is mistaken about the sexual nature of the act;
  - (k) the person is mistaken about the identity of any other person involved in the act;
  - (l) the person mistakenly believes that the act is for medical or hygienic purposes;
  - (m) the act occurs in the provision of commercial sexual services and the person engages in the act because of a false or misleading representation that the person will be paid;
  - (n) if the act involves an animal, the person mistakenly believes that the act is for veterinary or agricultural purposes or scientific research purposes;
  - (o) the person engages in the act on the basis that a condom is used and either—
    - (i) before or during the act, any other person involved in the act intentionally removes the condom or tampers with the condom; or
    - (ii) the person who was to use the condom intentionally does not use it;
  - (p) having given consent to the act, the person later withdraws consent to the act taking place or continuing.
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1)(m), a false or misleading representation may be made by words or conduct (including by omission) and may be explicit or implicit.

- (1) Whether or not a person (A) reasonably believes that another person (B) is consenting to an act depends on the circumstances.

Note

See section 36B for the effect of intoxication on the standard to be applied in determining whether a person has a reasonable belief.

- (2) A's belief that B consents to an act is not reasonable if, within a reasonable time before or at the time the act takes place, A does not say or do anything to find out whether B consents to the act.
- (3) Subsection (2) does not apply if—
- (a) A has a cognitive impairment or mental illness (other than the effects of intoxication that is self-induced within the meaning of section 36B); and
  - (b) that cognitive impairment or mental illness is a substantial cause of A not saying or doing anything to find out whether B consents to the act.
- (4) A bears the burden of proving on the balance of probabilities the matters referred to in subsection (3).

36B Effect of intoxication on standard to be applied in determining reasonable belief

- (1) In determining whether a person who is intoxicated has a reasonable belief at any time—
  - (a) if the intoxication is self-induced, regard must be had to the standard of a reasonable person who is not intoxicated and who is otherwise in the same circumstances as that person at the relevant time; and
  - (b) if the intoxication is not self-induced, regard must be had to the standard of a reasonable person who is intoxicated to the same extent as that person and who is in the same circumstances as that person at the relevant time.
- (2) For the purposes of this section, intoxication is self-induced unless it came about—
  - (a) involuntarily; or
  - (c) from the use of a drug for which a prescription is required and that was used in accordance with the directions of the person who prescribed it; or

- (d) from the use of a drug for which a prescription is not required and that was used for a purpose, and in accordance with the dosage level, recommended by the manufacturer.

- (3) However, intoxication that comes about in the circumstances referred to in subsection (2)(c) or (d) is self-induced if the person using the drug knew, or had reason to believe, when taking the drug that it would significantly impair the person's judgement or control.

37 Care, supervision or authority

- (1) Without limiting the circumstances in which a child is under the care, supervision or authority of a person, a person (A) has a child (B) under their care, supervision or authority if A is—
- (a) B's parent or step-parent; or
  - (b) B's teacher; or
  - (c) B's employer; or
  - (d) B's youth worker; or
  - (e) B's sports coach; or
  - (f) B's counsellor; or
  - (g) B's health professional; or
  - (h) a person who has parental responsibility (within the meaning of the Children, Youth and Families Act 2005) for B; or
  - (i) a religious or spiritual guide, or a leader or official (including a lay member) of a church or religious body, however any such guide, leader, official, church or body is described, who provides care, advice or instruction to B or has authority over B; or
  - (j) an out of home carer (within the meaning given by section 161A of the Children, Youth and Families Act 2005) of B; or
  - (k) a police officer acting in the course of their duty in respect of B; or

No. 2/2006
s. 5.

S. 37A(a)
amended by
No. 38/2022
s. 6(2).

- (a) to uphold the fundamental right of every person to make decisions about their sexual behaviour and to choose whether or not to engage in sexual activity;

- (ab) to promote the principle that consent to an act is not to be assumed—that consent involves ongoing and mutual communication and decision-making between each person involved (that is, each person should seek the consent of each other person in a way and at a time that makes it clear whether they consent);
- (b) to protect children and persons with a cognitive impairment or mental illness from sexual exploitation.

37B Guiding principles

S. 37B
inserted by
No. 2/2006
s. 5.

It is the intention of Parliament that in interpreting and applying Subdivisions (8A) to (8G), courts are to have regard to the fact that—

- (a) there is a high incidence of sexual violence within society; and
- (b) sexual offences are significantly under-reported; and
- (c) a significant number of sexual offences are committed against women, children and other vulnerable persons including persons with a cognitive impairment or mental illness; and
- (d) sexual offenders are commonly known to their victims; and
- (e) sexual offences often occur in circumstances where there is unlikely to be any physical signs of an offence having occurred.

42 Assault with intent to commit a sexual offence

S. 42
inserted by
No. 74/2014
s. 4.

- (1) A person (A) commits an offence if—
  - (a) A intentionally applies force to another person (B); and
  - (b) B does not consent to the application of that force; and
  - (c) at the time of applying that force A intends that B take part in a sexual act; and
  - (d) A does not reasonably believe that B would consent to taking part in that sexual act.
- (2) A person who commits an offence against subsection (1) is liable to level 4 imprisonment (15 years maximum).
- (3) A may commit an offence against subsection (1) even if B is not aware of the application of force by A.
- (3A) Whether or not A reasonably believes that B would consent to taking part in a sexual act depends on the circumstances.

S. 42(3A)
inserted by
No. 38/2022
s. 10.

Note

See section 36B for the effect of intoxication on the standard to be applied in determining whether a person has a reasonable belief.

- (3B) A's belief that B would consent to a sexual act is not reasonable if A does not say or do anything to find out whether B would consent to the sexual act.
- (3C) Subsection (3B) does not apply if—
  - (a) A has a cognitive impairment or mental illness (other than the effects of intoxication that is self-induced within the meaning of section 36B); and

S. 42(3B)
inserted by
No. 38/2022
s. 10.

(b) that cognitive impairment or mental illness is a substantial cause of A not saying or doing anything to find out whether B would consent to the sexual act.

(3D) A bears the burden of proving on the balance of probabilities the matters referred to in subsection (3C).

(4) Force for the purposes of subsection (1) may be applied—

(a) directly or indirectly; or

(b) to the body of, or to clothing or equipment worn by, B.

(5) In subsection (1)—

application of force includes—

(a) application of heat, light, electric current or any other form of energy; and

(b) application of matter in solid, liquid or gaseous form.

S. 43
inserted by
No. 74/2014

43 Threat to commit a sexual offence

(1) A person (A) commits an offence if—

(a) A makes to another person (B) a threat to rape or sexually assault B or a third person (C); and

(b) A intends that B will believe, or believes that B will probably believe, that A will carry out the threat.

(2) Words or conduct may constitute a threat for the purposes of subsection (1) if by those words or that conduct an intention to do any of the following is conveyed—

(a) to sexually penetrate or sexually touch B or C without B or C's consent;

(b) to cause B or C, without B or C's consent, to sexually penetrate or sexually touch—

- (i) A; or
- (ii) C or B (as the case requires); or
- (iii) themselves; or
- (iv) another person; or
- (v) an animal;

S. 43(2)(b)(v)
amended by
No. 47/2016
s. 14(1)(a).

(c) to cause B or C, without B or C's consent, to be sexually penetrated or sexually touched by another person or by an animal.

S. 43(2)(c)
inserted by
No. 47/2016
s. 14(1)(b).

(3) A person who commits an offence against subsection (1) is liable to level 6 imprisonment (5 years maximum).

(4) For the purposes of this section, a threat may be made by words or conduct and may be explicit or implicit.

S. 43(4)
substituted by
No. 47/2016
s. 14(2).

44 Procuring sexual act by threat

New s. 44
inserted by
No. 47/2016
s. 15.

(1) A person (A) commits an offence if—

- (a) A makes a threat to another person (B) that A will cause harm of any kind to B, another person or an animal; and
- (b) A intends that B will believe, or believes that B will probably believe, that A will cause that harm; and

- (c) as a result of A's threat, B or another person takes part (whether at the time the threat is made or at a later time) in a sexual act with A or another person; and
  - (d) A intends that, as a result of A's threat, an outcome mentioned in paragraph (c) will occur.
- (2) A person who commits an offence against subsection (1) is liable to level 5 imprisonment (10 years maximum).
  - (3) For the purposes of subsection (1), a threat may be made by words or conduct and may be explicit or implicit.
  - (4) For the purposes of subsection (1)(c), a person who takes part in a sexual act with A or another person may or may not be the person to whom A has threatened to cause harm.

Note

See section 35C for the meaning of taking part in a sexual act.

New s. 45
inserted by
No. 47/2016
s. 15.

45 Procuring sexual act by fraud

- (1) A person (A) commits an offence if—
  - (a) A makes a false or misleading representation; and
  - (b) A knows that—
    - (i) the representation is false or misleading; or
    - (ii) the representation is probably false or misleading; and
  - (c) as a result of A's representation, another person (B) takes part (whether at the time the representation is made or at a later time) in a sexual act with A or another person; and

- (d) A intends that, as a result of A's representation, an outcome mentioned in paragraph (c) will occur.
- (2) A person who commits an offence against subsection (1) is liable to level 6 imprisonment (5 years maximum).
- (3) For the purposes of subsection (1), a false or misleading representation may be made by words or conduct (including by omission) and may be explicit or implicit.

Note

See section 35C for the meaning of taking part in a sexual act.

46 Administration of an intoxicating substance for a sexual purpose

New s. 46
inserted by
No. 47/2016
s. 15.

- (1) A person (A) commits an offence if—
  - (a) A—
    - (i) administers an intoxicating substance to another person (B); or
    - (ii) causes B to take an intoxicating substance; or
    - (iii) causes another person (C) to administer an intoxicating substance to B; and
  - (b) A intends that the intoxicating substance—
    - (i) will impair B's capacity to give, withhold or withdraw consent to taking part in a sexual act; and
    - (ii) will facilitate B taking part in a sexual act with A or another person.
- (2) A person who commits an offence against subsection (1) is liable to level 5 imprisonment (10 years maximum).

(3) In this section—

intoxicating substance includes any substance that affects a person's senses or understanding.

Note

See section 35C for the meaning of taking part in a sexual act.

New s. 47
inserted by
No. 47/2016
s. 15.

47 Abduction or detention for a sexual purpose

(1) A person (A) commits an offence if—

(a) A—

(i) takes away or detains another person (B); or

(ii) causes B to be taken away or detained by another person; and

(b) B does not consent to being taken away or detained; and

(c) A knows that—

(i) B does not consent to being taken away or detained; or

(ii) B probably does not consent to being taken away or detained; and

(d) A intends that—

(i) B will take part in a sexual act with A or another person (C) or both; or

(ii) A or C will marry B (whether or not B consents to being married).

(2) A person who commits an offence against subsection (1) is liable to level 5 imprisonment (10 years maximum).

- (3) It is immaterial that the law prohibits or would not recognise (for whatever reason) a marriage between A and B or between C and B.

Note

See section 35C for the meaning of taking part in a sexual act.

48 Sexual activity directed at another person

New s. 48
inserted by
No. 47/2016
s. 15.

- (1) A person (A) commits an offence if—
- (a) A engages in an activity; and
  - (b) the activity is sexual; and
  - (c) another person (B) sees the activity or a part of the activity; and
  - (d) A knows that B will see, or will probably see, the activity or a part of the activity; and
  - (e) A—
    - (i) intends that B will experience fear or distress from seeing the activity or a part of the activity; or
    - (ii) knows that B will experience, or will probably experience, fear or distress from seeing the activity or a part of the activity.
- (2) A person who commits an offence against subsection (1) is liable to level 6 imprisonment (5 years maximum).

Note

A mistaken but honest and reasonable belief that the activity was not sexual is not a defence to this offence—see section 48B.

S. 48A
inserted by
No. 47/2016
s. 15.

48A Exceptions—medical, hygienic, veterinary, agricultural or scientific purposes

- (1) A does not commit an offence against—
- (a) section 38(1) or 40(1)—if the sexual penetration or touching (as the case requires) is of a person and is done in the course of a procedure carried out in good faith for medical or hygienic purposes; or
  - (b) section 39(1) or 41(1)—if the sexual penetration or touching (as the case requires) is of a person and is caused by A to be done in the course of a procedure carried out in good faith for medical or hygienic purposes.
- (2) A does not commit an offence against section 39(1) or 41(1)—if the sexual penetration or touching (as the case requires) is of an animal and is caused by A to be done in the course of a procedure being carried out in good faith for veterinary or agricultural purposes or scientific research purposes.

Note

The reference to A in this section is a reference to the same A referred to in sections 38, 39, 40 and 41.

S. 48B
inserted by
No. 47/2016
s. 15.

48B No defence of mistaken but honest and reasonable belief that touching or activity was not sexual

It is not a defence to a charge that, at the time of the conduct constituting the offence, A was under a mistaken but honest and reasonable belief that—

- (a) for an offence against section 40(1) or 41(1)—the touching was not sexual; or

- (b) for an offence against section 48(1)—
the activity was not sexual.

Note

The reference to A in this section is a reference to the same
A referred to in sections 40, 41 and 48.

49J Persistent sexual abuse of a child under the age of 16

- (1) A person (A) commits an offence if—
  - (a) A sexually abuses another person (B) on at least 3 occasions during a particular period; and
  - (b) B is a child under the age of 16 years during the whole of that period.

- (2) A person who commits an offence against subsection (1) is liable to level 2 imprisonment (25 years maximum).
- (2A) The standard sentence for an offence against subsection (1) is 10 years.
- (3) It is not necessary that the alleged acts be of a similar nature or constitute an offence under the same provision.
- (4) It is not necessary to prove conduct constituting sexual abuse with the same degree of specificity as to date, time, place, circumstances or occasion as would be required if the accused were charged with an offence constituted by that conduct instead of an offence against subsection (1).
- (5) For the purposes of subsection (1), A sexually abuses B if A engages in conduct that would involve the commission by A of any of the following—
  - (a) an offence against a provision of Subdivision (8A) (rape, sexual assault and associated sexual offences);
  - (b) an offence against section 49A(1) (sexual penetration of a child under the age of 12);
  - (c) an offence against section 49B(1) (sexual penetration of a child under the age of 16);
  - (d) an offence against section 49D(1) (sexual assault of a child under the age of 16);

- (f) an offence against section 49H(1) (causing a child under the age of 16 to be present during sexual activity);
  - (g) an offence against a provision of Subdivision (8C) (incest).
- (6) Nothing in this section affects the operation of any exception or defence applicable or available to A in respect of the offence constituting the sexual abuse.
- (7) If, on the trial of A for an offence against subsection (1), the jury is not satisfied that A is guilty of that offence but is satisfied that A engaged in conduct during the particular period that constitutes one or more instances of an offence against a provision referred to in subsection (5)—
- (a) the jury—
    - (i) must find A not guilty of the offence against subsection (1); and
    - (ii) may find A guilty of the one or more instances of an offence against a provision referred to in subsection (5); and
  - (b) A is liable to the penalty for any offence of which, in accordance with this subsection, A is found guilty.
- (8) Subsection (7) does not restrict the operation of section 239 of the Criminal Procedure Act 2009.

- (9) A prosecution for an offence under subsection (1) must not be commenced without the consent of the Director of Public Prosecutions.

Notes

- 1 See sections 5A and 5B of the Sentencing Act 1991 as to standard sentences.

An exception applies to this offence—see section 49ZB.

S. 49O
inserted by
No. 47/2016
s. 16.

49O Failure by a person in authority to protect a child from a sexual offence

- (1) A person (A) commits an offence if—
  - (a) A occupies a position within, or in relation to, a relevant organisation; and
  - (b) there is a substantial risk that a relevant child will become the victim of a sexual offence committed by another person who is—
    - (i) 18 years of age or more; and
    - (ii) a person associated with the relevant organisation; and
  - (c) A knows that the risk exists; and
  - (d) A, by reason of A's position, has the power or responsibility to reduce or remove that risk; and
  - (e) A negligently fails to reduce or remove that risk.
- (2) A person who commits an offence against subsection (1) is liable to level 6 imprisonment (5 years maximum).

- (3) For the purposes of subsection (1), a person negligently fails to reduce or remove a risk if that failure involves a great falling short of the standard of care that a reasonable person would exercise in the circumstances.
- (4) For the avoidance of doubt, in a prosecution for an offence against subsection (1), it is not necessary to prove that a sexual offence has been committed.
- (5) It is immaterial that some or all of the circumstances constituting an offence against subsection (1) occurred outside Victoria, so long as the relevant child was in Victoria at any time while the substantial risk referred to in subsection (1)(b) existed.
- (6) It is immaterial that both A and the relevant child were outside Victoria at the time at which some or all of the circumstances constituting an offence against subsection (1) occurred, so long as the sexual offence was at risk of occurring in Victoria.
- (7) In this section—

person associated, in relation to a relevant organisation, includes but is not limited to a person who is an officer, employee, manager, owner, volunteer, contractor or agent of the organisation but does not include a person only because the person receives services from the organisation;

relevant child means a child (whether identifiable or not) under the age of 16 years who is, or may come, under the care, supervision or authority of a relevant organisation;

relevant organisation means—

- (a) an organisation that exercises care, supervision or authority over children, whether as its primary function or otherwise, and includes but is not limited to—

- (i) a church; and
  - (ii) a religious body; and
  - (iii) a school; and
  - (iv) an education and care service within the meaning of the Education and Care Services National Law (Victoria); and
  - (v) a children's service within the meaning of the Children's Services Act 1996; and
  - (vi) an out of home care service within the meaning of the Children, Youth and Families Act 2005; and
  - (vii) a hospital; and
  - (viii) a government department; and
  - (ix) a government agency; and
  - (x) a municipal council; and
  - (xi) a public sector body; and
  - (xii) a sporting group; and
  - (xiii) a youth organisation; and
  - (xiv) a charity or benevolent organisation; or
- (b) an organisation that, in accordance with an agreement or arrangement with an organisation referred to in paragraph (a), is required or permitted to engage in activities associated with the care, supervision or authority over children exercised by the organisation referred to in paragraph (a);

sexual offence means—

- (a) an offence against a provision of Subdivision (8A), this Subdivision (other than this section), (8C), (8D), (8E), (8F) or (8FA); or
- (b) an attempt to commit an offence covered by paragraph (a) (other than section 49K); or
- (c) an assault with intent to commit an offence covered by paragraph (a).

S. 49P
inserted by
No. 47/2016
s. 16.

(1) A person (A) commits an offence if—

- (a) A—
  - (i) takes away or detains another person (B); or
  - (ii) causes B to be taken away or detained by another person; and
- (b) B is a child under the age of 16 years; and
- (c) the person who has lawful charge of B (C) does not consent to B being taken away or detained; and
- (d) A knows that—
  - (i) B is a child under the age of 16 years; or
  - (ii) B is probably a child under the age of 16 years; and
- (e) A knows that—
  - (i) C does not consent to B being taken away or detained; or

- (ii) C probably does not consent to B being taken away or detained; and
  - (f) A intends B will take part in a sexual act with A or another person or both; and
  - (g) B taking part in the sexual act would involve the commission by A, or the other person, or both, of an offence against section 38(1), 39(1), 40(1), 41(1) or a provision of this Subdivision (other than this section).
- (2) A person who commits an offence against subsection (1) is liable to level 5 imprisonment (10 years maximum).

Note

See section 35C for the meaning of taking part in a sexual act.

49Q Causing or allowing a sexual performance involving a child

- (1) A person (A) commits an offence if—
- (a) A intentionally causes or allows another person (B) to take part in a sexual performance; and
  - (b) the sexual performance occurs in circumstances that involve any person receiving payment, reward or other benefit (whether before or after the performance) in respect of the performance; and
  - (c) B is a child under the age of 18 years.
- (2) A person who commits an offence against subsection (1) is liable to level 5 imprisonment (10 years maximum).

(3) In this section—

sexual performance means a live performance (whether in person or by an electronic communication within the meaning of the Electronic Transactions (Victoria) Act 2000) that is, or could reasonably be considered to be, for the sexual arousal or sexual gratification of any person.

Notes

- 1 A defence applies to this offence—see section 49X.
- 2 A mistaken but honest and reasonable belief that the sexual performance did not occur in circumstances that involved payment, reward or other benefit to any person is not a defence to this offence—see section 49ZC.

49R Inviting or offering a sexual performance involving a child

S. 49R
inserted by
No. 47/2016
s. 16.

- (1) A person (A) commits an offence if—
  - (a) A intentionally—
    - (i) invites another person (B) to take part in a sexual performance; or
    - (ii) offers to a third person that B will take part in a sexual performance; and
  - (b) the invitation or offer involves any person receiving payment, reward or other benefit (whether before or after the performance) in respect of the performance; and
  - (c) B is a child under the age of 18 years.
- (2) A person who commits an offence against subsection (1) is liable to level 5 imprisonment (10 years maximum).

(3) In this section—

sexual performance means a live performance (whether in person or by an electronic communication within the meaning of the Electronic Transactions (Victoria) Act 2000) that is, or could reasonably be considered to be, for the sexual arousal or sexual gratification of any person.

Notes

- 1 A defence applies to this offence—see section 49X.
- 2 A mistaken but honest and reasonable belief that the invitation or offer did not involve payment, reward or other benefit to any person is not a defence to this offence—see section 49ZC.

49S Facilitating a sexual offence against a child

- (1) A person (A) commits an offence if—
- (a) A engages in conduct that aids, facilitates or contributes in any way to another person (B) engaging in sexual conduct (whether or not in Victoria) in relation to a child; and
  - (b) A engages in the conduct with the intention of obtaining a benefit for A or another person (C); and
  - (c) A—
    - (i) intends that the conduct will aid, facilitate or contribute in any way to B engaging in sexual conduct in relation to a child; or
    - (ii) knows that the conduct will, or probably will, aid, facilitate or contribute in any way to B engaging in sexual conduct in relation to a child; and

- (d) B's engaging in sexual conduct in relation to a child—
  - (i) constitutes an offence against section 38(1), 39(1), 40(1), 41(1) or a provision of this Subdivision (other than this section); or
  - (ii) constitutes an offence against a provision of Division 272 of Chapter 8 of the Criminal Code of the Commonwealth; or
  - (iii) takes place outside Victoria but would, if the conduct occurred in Victoria, constitute an offence against a provision covered by subparagraph (i) whether or not it constitutes an offence in the place in which it takes place.
- (2) A person who commits an offence against subsection (1) is liable to level 3 imprisonment (20 years maximum).
- (3) For the purposes of subsection (1), conduct that aids, facilitates or contributes in any way to another person engaging in sexual conduct in relation to a child includes—
  - (a) making travel arrangements; and
  - (b) causing or allowing a child to enter or remain on premises which A owns, occupies, manages or assists in managing.

Note

A mistaken but honest and reasonable belief that B's engaging in sexual conduct in relation to a child did not constitute an offence or, if the conduct takes place outside Victoria, would not constitute an offence, is not a defence to this offence—see section 49ZC.

51B Involving a child in the production of child abuse material

- (1) A person (A) commits an offence if—
- (a) A intentionally involves another person (B) in the production of material; and
  - (b) B is a child; and
  - (c) A knows that B is, or probably is, a child; and
  - (d) the material is child abuse material; and
  - (e) A knows that the material is, or probably is, child abuse material.
- (2) A person who commits an offence against subsection (1) is liable to level 5 imprisonment (10 years maximum).
- (3) For the purposes of subsection (1), the ways in which A involves B in the production of material may include—
- (a) inviting or encouraging B to be involved, or offering B to be involved, in the production of the material; or
  - (b) causing or allowing B to be involved in the production of the material; or
  - (c) using B in the production of the material.

Notes

- 1 B need not be described or depicted in the material.
- 2 Exceptions apply to this offence—see sections 51J, 51K and 51M.
- 3 Defences apply to this offence—see sections 51L, 51N, 51O, 51P, 51Q and 51R.

- 4 A mistaken but honest and reasonable belief that reasonable persons would not regard the child abuse material as offensive is not a defence to this offence—see section 51U.

  - (c) A knows that the material is, or probably is, child abuse material.
- (2) A person who commits an offence against subsection (1) is liable to level 5 imprisonment (10 years maximum).
- (3) For the purposes of subsection (1), the ways in which material is produced may include—
- (a) filming, printing, photographing, recording, writing, drawing or otherwise generating material; or
  - (b) altering or manipulating material; or
  - (c) reproducing or copying material.

Notes

- 1 Exceptions apply to this offence—see sections 51J, 51K and 51M.
- 2 Defences apply to this offence—see sections 51L, 51N, 51O, 51P, 51Q and 51R.
- 3 A mistaken but honest and reasonable belief that reasonable persons would not regard the child abuse material as offensive is not a defence to this offence—see section 51U.

51D Distributing child abuse material

S. 51D
inserted by
No. 47/2016
s. 16.

- (1) A person (A) commits an offence if—
- (a) A intentionally distributes material; and
  - (b) the material is child abuse material; and
  - (c) A knows that the material is, or probably is, child abuse material.

- (2) A person who commits an offence against subsection (1) is liable to level 5 imprisonment (10 years maximum).
- (3) It is not necessary to prove—
  - (a) the identity of any person to whom the material was distributed; or
  - (b) that another person in fact accessed the material.
- (4) It is immaterial that some or all of the child abuse material was distributed outside Victoria, so long as A was in Victoria at some or all of the time at which the material was distributed.
- (5) It is immaterial that A was outside Victoria at some or all of time at which the material was distributed, so long as some or all of the material was distributed in Victoria.

inserted by
No. 47/2016
s. 16.

51E Administering a website used to deal with child abuse material

- (1) A person (A) commits an offence if—
  - (a) A administers, or assists in the administration of, a website; and
  - (b) the website is used by another person to deal with child abuse material; and

(c) A—

- (i) intends that the website be used by another person to deal with child abuse material; or
- (ii) is aware that the website is being used by another person to deal with child abuse material.

Examples

- 1 A manages membership of a website. A intends that the website be used by other persons to view child abuse material.
  - 2 A monitors traffic through a website and ensures that the web server hardware and software are running correctly. A is aware that the website is being used by other persons to download child abuse material.
- (2) A person who commits an offence against subsection (1) is liable to level 5 imprisonment (10 years maximum).
- (3) It is not necessary to prove the identity of the person using the website to deal with child abuse material.
- (4) It is immaterial that some or all of the conduct constituting an offence against subsection (1) occurred outside Victoria or that a computer or device used in connection with administering the website was outside Victoria, so long as—
- (a) the person using the website to deal with child abuse material was in Victoria; or
  - (b) the computer or device used to deal with child abuse material was in Victoria.
- (5) It is immaterial that the person using the website to deal with child abuse material was outside Victoria or that the computer or device used to deal with child abuse material was outside Victoria, so long as—

- (a) some or all of the conduct constituting an offence against subsection (1) occurred in Victoria; or
- (b) a computer or device used in connection with administering the website was in Victoria.

Notes

- 1 Exceptions apply to this offence—see sections 51J, 51K and 51S.
- 2 Defences apply to this offence—see section 51L.
- 3 A mistaken but honest and reasonable belief that reasonable persons would not regard the child abuse material as offensive is not a defence to this offence—see section 51U.

S. 51F
inserted by
No. 47/2016
s. 16.

51F Encouraging use of a website to deal with child abuse material

- (1) A person (A) commits an offence if—
  - (a) A is 18 years of age or more; and
  - (b) A encourages another person to use a website; and
  - (c) A intends that the other person use the website to deal with child abuse material.
- (2) A person who commits an offence against subsection (1) is liable to level 5 imprisonment (10 years maximum).
- (3) In determining whether A has encouraged another person to use a website to deal with child abuse material, it is not necessary to prove—
  - (a) the identity of the person encouraged to use the website to deal with child abuse material; or
  - (b) that another person in fact used the website to deal with child abuse material; or

- (c) if another person did in fact use the website to deal with child abuse material, that it was A's encouragement that caused the person to do so.
- (4) Despite anything to the contrary in Division 12, it is not an offence for a person to attempt to commit an offence against subsection (1).
- (5) It is immaterial that some or all of the conduct constituting an offence against subsection (1) occurred outside Victoria, so long as the person being encouraged was in Victoria at the time at which that conduct occurred.
- (6) It is immaterial that the person being encouraged was outside Victoria at the time the conduct constituting an offence against subsection (1) occurred, so long as some or all of that conduct occurred in Victoria.

Notes

- 1 If an adult uses a child as an innocent agent to encourage another person to use a website, intending that the other person use the website to deal with child abuse material, the adult commits an offence against subsection (1).
- 2 Exceptions apply to this offence—see sections 51J and 51K.
- 3 A defence applies to this offence—see section 51L.
- 4 A mistaken but honest and reasonable belief that reasonable persons would not regard the child abuse material as offensive is not a defence to this offence—see section 51U.

51G Possession of child abuse material

- (1) A person (A) commits an offence if A knowingly possesses child abuse material.
- (2) A person who commits an offence against subsection (1) is liable to level 5 imprisonment (10 years maximum).

S. 51G
inserted by
No. 47/2016
s. 16.

- (3) For the purposes of subsection (1), A possesses child abuse material that is electronic material if A controls access to the material whether or not A has physical possession of the electronic material.
- (4) It is immaterial that the electronic material was outside Victoria, so long as A was in Victoria at the time at which some or all of the conduct constituting an offence against subsection (1) occurred.
- (5) It is immaterial that A was outside Victoria at the time at which some or all of the conduct constituting an offence against subsection (1) occurred, so long as the electronic material was in Victoria.

Examples

- 1 A has an online storage account for electronic material accessible with a username and password. A has control of what is stored in the account and can move material around within the account or delete material from the account. A has an electronic folder in the account that A has titled 'personal' in which A puts some electronic child abuse material. A knowingly has possession of child abuse material.
- 2 In an online chat A is given a password for a joint email account that is shared with multiple users that A doesn't know. A logs into the email account and views emails that contain child abuse material images. While logged in A has the ability to view, move or delete emails that contain child abuse material. A continues to access the email account to view images. A knowingly has possession of child abuse material.

Notes

- 1 Exceptions apply to this offence—see sections 51J, 51K and 51M.
- 2 Defences apply to this offence—see sections 51L, 51N, 51O, 51P, 51Q, 51R and 51T.
- 3 A mistaken but honest and reasonable belief that reasonable persons would not regard the child abuse material as offensive is not a defence to this offence—see section 51U.

51H Accessing child abuse material

S. 51H
inserted by
No. 47/2016
s. 16.

- (1) A person (A) commits an offence if—
  - (a) A intentionally accesses material; and
  - (b) the material is child abuse material; and
  - (c) A knows that the material is, or probably is, child abuse material.
- (2) A person who commits an offence against subsection (1) is liable to level 5 imprisonment (10 years maximum).
- (3) For the purposes of subsection (1), the ways in which A accesses material may include—
  - (a) viewing material; or
  - (b) displaying material by an electronic medium or any other output of the material by an electronic medium.

Notes

- 1 Exceptions apply to this offence—see sections 51J, 51K and 51M.
- 2 Defences apply to this offence—see sections 51L, 51N, 51O, 51P, 51Q and 51R.
- 3 A mistaken but honest and reasonable belief that reasonable persons would not regard the child abuse material as offensive is not a defence to this offence—see section 51U.

51I Assisting a person to avoid apprehension

S. 51I
inserted by
No. 47/2016
s. 16.

- (1) A person (A) commits an offence if—
  - (a) A intentionally provides information to another person (B); and
  - (b) A intends that B use the information for the purpose of avoiding or reducing the likelihood of apprehension for an offence committed by B against section 51B(1), 51C(1), 51D(1), 51E(1), 51F(1), 51G(1) or 51H(1).

Examples

- 1 A provides information to B about how to use a website to deal with child abuse material anonymously or how to encrypt electronic material containing child abuse material.
  - 2 A provides information to B about how to delete electronic material that records information about B's identity.
- (2) A person who commits an offence against subsection (1) is liable to level 5 imprisonment (10 years maximum).
- (3) It is not necessary to prove—
- (a) the identity of the person to whom the information was provided; or
  - (b) that the information was actually used by the other person.
- (4) It is immaterial that some or all of the conduct constituting an offence against subsection (1) occurred outside Victoria, so long as the other person was in Victoria at the time at which that conduct occurred.
- (5) It is immaterial that the other person was outside Victoria at the time at which some or all of the conduct constituting an offence against subsection (1) occurred, so long as that conduct occurred in Victoria.
- (6) For the purposes of subsections (4) and (5), information is provided by A to B at the place where A is at the time of giving that information irrespective of where B is at the time of receiving that information.

Note

A mistaken but honest and reasonable belief that reasonable persons would not regard the child abuse material as offensive is not a defence to this offence—see section 51U.

51J Exception—administration of the law

S. 51J
inserted by
No. 47/2016
s. 16.

A does not commit a child abuse material offence (other than an offence against section 51I(1)) if the conduct is engaged in by A in good faith in the course of official duties of A—

- (a) connected with the administration of the criminal justice system, including the investigation or prosecution of offences; or
- (b) as an employee of the Department of Justice and Regulation who is authorised to engage in that conduct by the Secretary to that Department.

Note

The reference to A in this section is a reference to the same A referred to in the child abuse material offence provisions.

No. 47/2016
s. 16.

A does not commit a child abuse material offence (other than an offence against section 51I(1)) in respect of material that, at the time at which the offence is alleged to have been committed, was classified other than RC or would, if classified, have been classified other than RC.

Notes

- 1 The reference to A in this section is a reference to the same A referred to in the child abuse material offence provisions.
- 2 Under the Classification (Publications, Films and Computer Games) Act 1995 of the Commonwealth, a classification of RC means Refused Classification.

51L Defence of artistic merit or public benefit

- (1) It is a defence to a charge for a child abuse material offence (other than an offence against section 51I(1)) if—
  - (a) the material—
    - (i) was not produced with the involvement of a person who was, at the time it was produced, under the age of 18 years; and
    - (ii) possesses artistic merit; or
  - (b) the material is of public benefit.
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1)(b), material that is of public benefit includes material that is for a genuine medical, legal, scientific or educational purpose.

Examples

- 1 A is a university lecturer in psychology. During a lecture on abnormal psychology, A shows a lecture slide with examples of textual child abuse material to illustrate the type of material associated with an abnormal psychological profile. The lecture slide is of public benefit.
- 2 A is a photojournalist in a war zone. A takes a photo of a child victim of torture and submits it to a news organisation for publication. The photo is of public benefit.
- (3) A bears the burden of proving (on the balance of probabilities) the matter referred to in subsection (1)(a)(ii) or (b).

Notes

- 1 The reference to A in this section is a reference to the same A referred to in the child abuse material offence provisions.
- 2 An evidential burden applies to the matter referred to in subsection (1)(a)(i).

51M Exceptions applying to children

S. 51M
inserted by
No. 47/2016
s. 16.

- (1) A does not commit an offence against section 51B(1), 51C(1), 51D(1), 51G(1) or 51H(1) if—
- (a) A is a child; and
  - (b) the child abuse material is an image; and
  - (c) the image depicts A alone.

Example

A is 15 years old and takes a photograph of themselves. A stores the photograph on their mobile phone. The offences in 51B(1), 51C(1), 51D(1), 51G(1) or 51H(1) do not apply to A in respect of the image.

Note

Section 51O may apply if A is an adult.

- (2) A does not commit an offence against section 51B(1), 51C(1), 51D(1), 51G(1) or 51H(1) if—
- (a) A is a child; and
  - (b) the child abuse material is an image; and
  - (c) A is the victim of a criminal offence punishable by imprisonment and the image depicts that offence.

Example

The image depicts the child (A) being raped by another person. The offences in sections 51B(1), 51C(1), 51D(1), 51G(1) and 51H(1) do not apply to A in respect of the image.

- (3) In subsections (1) and (2), a reference to an image, in relation to an offence against section 51B(1), is a reference to the image that A involves the child in producing.

Note

References to A in this section are references to the same A referred to in sections 51B, 51C, 51D, 51G and 51H.

51N Defence applying to children

- (1) It is a defence to a charge for an offence against section 51B(1), 51C(1), 51D(1), 51G(1) or 51H(1) if—
- (a) A is a child; and
  - (b) the child abuse material is an image; and
  - (c) the image depicts one or more persons (whether or not it depicts A); and
  - (d) the image—
    - (i) does not depict an act that is a criminal offence punishable by imprisonment; or
    - (ii) depicts an act that is a criminal offence punishable by imprisonment but A reasonably believes that it does not; and
  - (e) at the time of the conduct constituting the offence—
    - (i) A was not more than 2 years older than the youngest child depicted in the image; or
    - (ii) A reasonably believed that they were not more than 2 years older than the youngest child depicted in the image.

Examples

- 1 The image depicts A taking part in an act of sexual penetration with another child who is not more than 2 years younger. Both are consenting to the act. A is not guilty of an offence against section 51B(1), 51C(1), 51D(1), 51G(1) or 51H(1) in respect of the image.
- 2 The image depicts a child being sexually penetrated. A is a child and A reasonably believes that the image depicts a consensual sexual relationship between two 16 year olds and is therefore not a criminal offence. A also reasonably believes that A is not more than 2 years older than the youngest child depicted in the image. A is not guilty of an offence against section 51B(1), 51C(1), 51D(1), 51G(1) or 51H(1) in respect of the image.

- (2) In subsection (1), a reference to an image, in relation to an offence against section 51B(1), is a reference to the image that A involves the child in producing.
- (3) A bears the burden of proving (on the balance of probabilities) the matters referred to in subsection (1)(d)(ii) and (e)(ii).

Notes

- 1 References to A in this section are references to the same A referred to in sections 51B, 51C, 51D, 51G and 51H.
- 2 An evidential burden applies to the matters referred to in subsection (1)(a), (b), (c), (d)(i) and (e)(i).

- (1) It is a defence to a charge for an offence against section 51B(1), 51C(1), 51G(1) or 51H(1) if—
  - (a) the child abuse material is an image; and
  - (b) the image depicts A as a child; and
  - (c) the image does not depict A committing a criminal offence punishable by imprisonment; and
  - (d) A does not distribute the image to any other person.
- (2) In subsection (1) a reference to an image, in relation to an offence against section 51B(1), is a reference to the image that A involves the child in producing.

- (3) A bears the burden of proving (on the balance of probabilities) the matter referred to in subsection (1)(b).

Notes

- 1 References to A in this section are references to the same A referred to in sections 51B, 51C, 51G and 51H.
- 2 An evidential burden applies to the matters referred to in subsection (1)(a), (c) and (d).
- 3 Sections 51M(1) or (2) or 51N may apply if A is a child.

51P Defence—accused not more than 2 years older than 16 or 17 year old child and acts with child's consent

- (1) It is a defence to a charge for an offence against section 51B(1), 51C(1), 51D(1), 51G(1) or 51H(1) if—
- (a) the child abuse material is an image; and
  - (b) at the time at which the image was first made, the child (B) whose depiction in the image makes it child abuse material—
    - (i) was aged 16 or 17 years; and
    - (ii) was not, or had not been, under A's care, supervision or authority; and
  - (c) the image does not depict an act that is a criminal offence punishable by imprisonment; and
  - (d) A does not distribute the image to any person other than B; and
  - (e) A is not more than 2 years older than B; and
  - (f) at the time of the conduct constituting the offence, A reasonably believed that B consented to that conduct.

amended by
No. 5/2018
s. 5.

- (2) In subsection (1) a reference to an image, in relation to an offence against section 51B(1), is a reference to the image that A involves B in producing.
- (3) For the purposes of subsection (1)(b), the reference to the time at which the image was first made does not include a reference to any later time at which a copy, reproduction or alteration of the image is made.
- (4) A bears the burden of proving (on the balance of probabilities) the matters referred to in subsection (1)(e) and (f).

Notes

- 1 References to A and B in this section are references to the same A and B referred to in sections 51B, 51C, 51D, 51G and 51H.
- 2 An evidential burden applies to the matters referred to in subsection (1)(a), (b), (c) and (d).

- (1) It is a defence to a charge for an offence against section 51B(1), 51C(1), 51D(1), 51G(1) or 51H(1) if—
  - (a) the child abuse material is an image; and
  - (b) the image is child abuse material because of its depiction of another person (B); and
  - (c) the image does not depict a criminal offence punishable by imprisonment; and
  - (d) A does not distribute the image to any person other than B; and
  - (e) at the time at which the image was first made—
    - (i) B was 16 or 17 years of age; and

- (ii) either A and B were married to each other and the marriage was recognised as valid under the Marriage Act 1961 of the Commonwealth or A was B's domestic partner and was no more than 2 years older than B; and
  - (iii) where A was B's domestic partner, if B was under A's care, supervision or authority, the domestic partnership commenced before B came under A's care, supervision or authority; and
- (f) at the time of the conduct constituting the offence—
  - (i) either A and B were married to each other and the marriage was recognised as valid under the Marriage Act 1961 of the Commonwealth or A was B's domestic partner and was no more than 2 years older than B; and
  - (ii) A reasonably believed that B consented to the conduct constituting the offence.
- (2) In subsection (1) a reference to an image, in relation to an offence against section 51B(1), is a reference to the image that A involves the child in producing.

- (1) It is a defence to a charge for an offence against section 51E(1) if A, on becoming aware that the website is being used, or has been used, by another person to deal with child abuse material, takes all reasonable steps in the circumstances to prevent any person from being able to use the website to deal with child abuse material.
- (2) In determining whether A has taken all reasonable steps in the circumstances for the purposes of subsection (1), regard must be had to whether A did any of the following as soon as it was practicable to do so—
  - (a) shut the website down;
  - (b) modified the operation of the website so that it could not be used to deal with child abuse material;
  - (c) notified a police officer that the website is being, or has been, used to deal with child abuse material and complied with any reasonable directions given to A by a police officer as to what to do in relation to that use of the website;
  - (d) notified a relevant industry regulatory authority that the website is being, or has been, used to deal with child abuse material and complied with any reasonable directions given to A by that authority as to what to do in relation to that use of the website.

51T Defence—unsolicited possession

It is a defence to a charge for an offence against section 51G(1) for A to prove on the balance of probabilities that—

- (a) A did not intentionally come into possession of child abuse material; and
- (b) on becoming aware of having come into possession of child abuse material, A, as soon as it was practicable to do so, took all reasonable steps in the circumstances to cease possessing the material.

51U No defence of mistaken but honest and reasonable belief that child abuse material not offensive

It is not a defence to a charge for a child abuse material offence that, at the time of the conduct constituting the offence, A was under a mistaken but honest and reasonable belief that reasonable persons would not regard the child abuse material as being, in the circumstances, offensive.

Note

The reference to A in this section is a reference to the same A referred to in the child abuse material offence provisions.

S. 51V

51V Use of random sample evidence in child abuse material cases

- (1) An authorised classifier, in connection with any proceeding for a child abuse material offence, may conduct an examination of a random sample of seized material.
- (2) In the proceeding for the child abuse material offence concerned, evidence adduced by the prosecution of any of the authorised classifier's findings as to the nature and content of the random sample is admissible as evidence of the nature and content of the whole of the material from which the random sample was taken.

- (3) Accordingly, it is open to a court to find that any type of child abuse material found by an authorised classifier to be present in a particular proportion in the random sample is present in the same proportion in the material from which the random sample was taken.
- (4) A certificate of an authorised classifier that certifies the following is admissible in proceedings for a child abuse material offence as evidence of the matters certified—
  - (a) that the authorised classifier conducted an examination of a random sample of seized material;
  - (b) the findings of the authorised classifier as to the nature and content of the random sample.
- (5) A certificate signed by a person purporting to be an authorised classifier is, in the absence of evidence to the contrary, taken to be a certificate of an authorised classifier.
- (6) Evidence is admissible under this section only if the court is satisfied that an Australian legal practitioner representing the accused, or the accused, has been given a reasonable opportunity to inspect the seized material.
- (7) This section does not affect the operation of any provision of the Criminal Procedure Act 2009 that restricts inspection by an accused of evidence that is child abuse material.

Note

See sections 46(3), 125(3) and 185A of the Criminal Procedure Act 2009.

- (8) The regulations may make further provision for or with respect to the taking and admissibility of random sample evidence under this section, including by providing for—
- (a) the circumstances or classes of case in which the prosecutor may adduce evidence of the findings of an authorised classifier under this section; and
  - (b) the procedure for taking and examining random samples of material; and
  - (c) any further requirements as to the content of a certificate of an authorised classifier.
- (9) In this section—
- seized material, in relation to a proceeding for a child abuse material offence, means material—
- (a) that came into the possession of a police officer in the course of the exercise of functions as a police officer; and
  - (b) some of which is alleged to be child abuse material that is the subject of the proceeding.

Note

Section 177 of the Evidence Act 2008 provides for the adducing of expert evidence by the tendering of a certificate.

51W Application for child abuse material disposal order

S. 51W
inserted by
No. 47/2016
s. 16.

- (1) The Director of Public Prosecutions or a police officer may apply to a court for a child abuse material disposal order in respect of a seized thing, or of electronic material contained in a seized thing, that—
- (a) was the subject of a criminal proceeding for a child abuse material offence in relation to which—
- (i) the charge was discontinued, withdrawn or permanently stayed; or
  - (ii) the person charged was acquitted or found not guilty (including because of mental impairment) of the charge; or
  - (iii) the charge was dismissed; or
  - (iv) the person charged was released on an undertaking under section 75 of the Sentencing Act 1991; or
- (b) was not the subject of a criminal proceeding.

Note

Sections 77 and 78 of the Confiscation Act 1997 apply to the disposal of child abuse material where a person is convicted of an offence set out in Schedule 1 to that Act.

- (2) The court to which an application under subsection (1) is to be made is—
- (a) the court in which the proceeding was at the time at which the event mentioned in subsection (1)(a)(i) to (iv) occurred; or
  - (b) the Magistrates' Court.
- (3) The applicant must give written notice of an application under subsection (1) to every person whom the applicant has reason to believe has an interest in the seized thing or in the electronic material contained in the seized thing.

- (4) A notice under subsection (3) must be given by ordinary service at least 14 days before the return date.
- (5) The court may waive the requirement under subsection (3) to give notice if satisfied either—
  - (a) that all persons who have an interest mentioned in that subsection have appeared before the court; or
  - (b) that it is fair to waive the requirement despite a person who has such an interest not having appeared before the court.
- (6) At any time before the final determination of the application, the court may require the applicant to give notice of the application to any person, in any manner and within any period that the court thinks fit.
- (7) The following persons are entitled to appear and give evidence at the hearing of the application—
  - (a) any person notified under subsection (3) or (6);
  - (b) any other person who claims an interest in the seized thing or in electronic material contained in the seized thing.
- (8) However, the fact that a person mentioned in subsection (7) has not appeared before the court does not prevent the court from making a child abuse material disposal order.
- (9) In this section, ordinary service and return date have the same meanings as in the Criminal Procedure Act 2009.

51X Child abuse material disposal order

S. 51X
inserted by
No. 47/2016
s. 16.

- (1) On an application under section 51W, the court may order that the seized thing, or the electronic material contained in the seized thing, to which the application relates be—
  - (a) forfeited to the State; and
  - (b) destroyed or disposed of in a manner determined by the court and specified in the order.

Note

A child abuse material disposal order that relates to a seized thing that is child abuse material results in forfeiture of the seized thing. A child abuse material disposal order that relates to electronic material that is contained in a seized thing results in forfeiture of the electronic material only.

- (2) The court may only make a child abuse material disposal order—
  - (a) if satisfied, on the balance of probabilities, that—
    - (i) the seized thing is, or the electronic material contained in the seized thing includes, child abuse material; and
    - (ii) the return to a person of the seized thing, or of the electronic material contained in the seized thing, may result in the commission of a child abuse material offence; or
  - (b) if satisfied, on the balance of probabilities, that—
    - (i) the seized thing contains encrypted or password protected electronic material; and
    - (ii) there are reasonable grounds to believe that the electronic material includes child abuse material.

- (3) The court has power to give any direction necessary to give effect to a child abuse material disposal order made by it.
- (4) Without affecting any other right of appeal, a person who has an interest in a seized thing, or in electronic material contained in a seized thing, may appeal against a child abuse material disposal order made in respect of it.
- (5) An appeal is to be made by a person in the same manner as if the person had been convicted, by the court that made the order, of a child abuse material offence and the order were, or were part of, the sentence imposed in respect of that offence.
- (6) On appeal—
  - (a) the child abuse material disposal order may be confirmed, discharged or varied; or
  - (b) the matter may be remitted for re-hearing to the court that made the order with or without any direction in law.
- (7) A child abuse material disposal order is stayed during the appeal period.
- (8) In this section—

appeal period means the period permitted under the Criminal Procedure Act 2009 for commencing an appeal of a kind mentioned in subsection (5) or, if such an appeal is commenced within that period, the determination of the appeal.

51Y Disposal of thing or material by consent

Nothing in section 51W or 51X prevents the destruction or disposal of a seized thing that is, or of electronic material contained in a seized thing that includes, child abuse material with the consent of all persons who have an interest in the thing or material.

A worker supporting a person with a cognitive impairment to undertake tasks such as bathing and dressing.

worker means a person—

- (a) who delivers, assists in delivering, or who manages the delivery of, services to persons with a cognitive impairment or mental illness; and

Example

A cook at a supported residential service.

- (b) who does so for or on behalf of a service provider (whether paid or unpaid); and

Example

A volunteer bus driver for a mental health service.

- (c) who is not a person with a cognitive impairment or mental illness who receives treatment or support services from that service provider.

52B Sexual penetration of a person with a cognitive impairment or mental illness

- (1) A person (A) commits an offence if—
  - (a) A intentionally—
    - (i) sexually penetrates another person (B); or
    - (ii) causes or allows B to sexually penetrate A; or
    - (iii) causes B—
      - (A) to sexually penetrate themselves; or
      - (B) to sexually penetrate another person (C) or an animal; or
      - (C) to be sexually penetrated by C or by an animal; and
  - (b) B has a cognitive impairment or mental illness; and
  - (c) A—
    - (i) provides treatment or support services to B; or

(ii) is a worker for a service provider that provides treatment or support services to B.

(2) A person who commits an offence against subsection (1) is liable to level 5 imprisonment (10 years maximum).

Notes

- 1 Exceptions apply to this offence—see sections 52F and 52G.
- 2 Defences apply to this offence—see sections 52H, 52I and 52J.
- 3 A mistaken but honest and reasonable belief of certain matters is not a defence against this offence—see section 52K.

No. 47/2016
s. 16.

(1) A person (A) commits an offence if—

(a) A intentionally—

- (i) touches another person (B); or
- (ii) causes or allows B to touch A; or
- (iii) causes B—
  - (A) to touch, or to continue to touch, themselves; or
  - (B) to touch, or to continue to touch, another person (C) or an animal; or
  - (C) to be touched, or to continue to be touched, by C or by an animal; and

(b) B has a cognitive impairment or mental illness; and

(c) A—

- (i) provides treatment or support services to B; or

- (ii) is a worker for a service provider that provides treatment or support services to B; and
- (d) the touching is—
  - (i) sexual; and
  - (ii) contrary to community standards of acceptable conduct.
- (2) A person who commits an offence against subsection (1) is liable to level 6 imprisonment (5 years maximum).
- (3) Whether or not the touching is contrary to community standards of acceptable conduct depends on the circumstances.
- (4) For the purposes of subsection (3)—
  - (a) the circumstances include—
    - (i) the purpose of the touching; and
    - (ii) whether A seeks or gets sexual arousal or sexual gratification from the touching;
  - (b) the circumstances do not include—
    - (i) whether B consents to the touching; or
    - (ii) whether A believes that B consents to the touching.

Notes

- 1 An exception applies to this offence—see section 52G.
- 2 Defences apply to this offence—see sections 52H, 52I and 52J.

- (1) A person (A) commits an offence if—
- (a) A intentionally engages in an activity; and
  - (b) the activity is sexual; and
  - (c) another person (B) is present when A engages in the activity; and
  - (d) A knows that B is, or probably is, present when A engages in the activity; and
  - (e) B has a cognitive impairment or mental illness; and
  - (f) A—
    - (i) provides treatment or support services to B; or
    - (ii) is a worker for a service provider that provides treatment or support services to B; and
  - (g) engaging in the activity in the presence of B is contrary to community standards of acceptable conduct.
- (2) A person who commits an offence against subsection (1) is liable to level 6 imprisonment (5 years maximum).
- (3) Whether or not engaging in the activity in the presence of B is contrary to community standards of acceptable conduct depends on the circumstances.
- (4) For the purposes of subsection (3)—
- (a) the circumstances include—
    - (i) the purpose of the activity; and

- (ii) whether A seeks or gets sexual arousal or sexual gratification from engaging in the activity or from the presence of B;
- (b) the circumstances do not include—
  - (i) whether B consents—
    - (A) to being present when A engages in the activity; or
    - (B) to A engaging in the activity; or
  - (ii) whether A believes that B consents—
    - (A) to being present when A engages in the activity; or

52E Causing a person with a cognitive impairment or mental illness to be present during sexual activity

- (1) A person (A) commits an offence if—
  - (a) another person (B) engages in an activity; and
  - (b) the activity is sexual; and
  - (c) another person (C) is present when B engages in the activity; and
  - (d) A intentionally causes or allows C to be present when B engages in the activity; and
  - (e) C has a cognitive impairment or mental illness; and

- (f) A—
    - (i) provides treatment or support services to C; or
    - (ii) is a worker for a service provider that provides treatment or support services to C; and
  - (g) A's causing or allowing C to be present when B engages in the activity is contrary to community standards of acceptable conduct.
- (2) A person who commits an offence against subsection (1) is liable to level 6 imprisonment (5 years maximum).
- (3) Whether or not causing or allowing C to be present when B engages in the activity is contrary to community standards of acceptable conduct depends on the circumstances.
- (4) For the purposes of subsection (3)—
- (a) the circumstances include—
    - (i) the purpose of the activity; and

52F Exceptions to sexual penetration offence—medical, hygienic, veterinary, agricultural or scientific purposes

A does not commit an offence against section 52B(1) if—

- (a) the sexual penetration is of a person and is done in the course of a procedure carried out in good faith for medical or hygienic purposes; or
- (b) the sexual penetration is of an animal and is caused by A to be done in the course of a procedure being carried out in good faith for veterinary or agricultural purposes or scientific research purposes.

Example

A is a support worker assisting B on a farm. B assists in birthing a calf. During this process, A causes B to insert B's hand into the cow's vagina. A has not committed an offence against section 52B(1).

Note

The reference to A in this section is a reference to the same A referred to in section 52B.

52G Exception—marriage or domestic partnership

S. 52G
inserted by
No. 47/2016
s. 16.

A does not commit an offence against a provision of this Subdivision if, at the time at which the offence is alleged to have been committed—

- (a) A and the person who has a cognitive impairment or mental illness are married to each other and the marriage is recognised as valid under the Marriage Act 1961 of the Commonwealth; or
- (b) A is the domestic partner of the person who has a cognitive impairment or mental illness.

Note

The reference to A in this section is a reference to the same A referred to in the offence provisions in this Subdivision.

52H Defence—reasonable belief in marriage or domestic partnership

S. 52H
inserted by
No. 47/2016
s. 16.

It is a defence to a charge for an offence against a provision of this Subdivision for A to prove on the balance of probabilities that, at the time of the conduct constituting the offence, A reasonably believed that—

- (a) A and the person who has a cognitive impairment or mental illness were married to each other and that the marriage was recognised as valid under the Marriage Act 1961 of the Commonwealth; or
- (b) A was the domestic partner of the person who has a cognitive impairment or mental illness.

52I Defence—reasonable belief a person does not have a cognitive impairment or mental illness

It is a defence to a charge for an offence against a provision of this Subdivision for A to prove on the balance of probabilities that, at the time of the conduct constituting the offence, A reasonably believed that the person who has a cognitive impairment or mental illness did not have a cognitive impairment or mental illness.

Note

The reference to A in this section is a reference to the same A referred to in the offence provisions in this Subdivision.

52J Defence—reasonable belief the service provider does not provide treatment or support services to the person with a cognitive impairment or mental illness

If A is a worker for a service provider, it is a defence to a charge for an offence against a provision of this Subdivision for A to prove on the balance of probabilities that, at the time of the conduct constituting the offence, A reasonably believed that the service provider was not providing treatment or support services to the person who has a cognitive impairment or mental illness.

Notes

- 1 The reference to A in this section is a reference to the same A referred to in the offence provisions in this Subdivision.
- 2 The prosecution is required to prove that A is a worker for a service provider—see sections 52B, 52C, 52D and 52E.

52K No defence of mistaken but honest and reasonable belief of certain matters

S. 52K
inserted by
No. 47/2016
s. 16.

- (1) It is not a defence to a charge that, at the time of the conduct constituting the offence, A was under a mistaken but honest and reasonable belief that—
  - (a) for an offence against section 52B(1), 52C(1) or 52D(1)—A did not provide treatment or support services to B or was not a worker for a service provider; or
  - (b) for an offence against section 52E(1)—A did not provide treatment or support services to C or was not a worker for a service provider.
- (2) It is not a defence to a charge that, at the time of the conduct constituting the offence, A was under a mistaken but honest and reasonable belief that—
  - (a) for an offence against section 52C(1)—the touching was not—
    - (i) sexual; or
    - (ii) contrary to community standards of acceptable conduct; or
  - (b) for an offence against section 52D(1)—
    - (i) the activity was not sexual; or
    - (ii) engaging in the activity in the presence of B was not contrary to community standards of acceptable conduct; or
  - (c) for an offence against section 52E(1)—
    - (i) the activity was not sexual; or

- (ii) A's causing or allowing C to be present when B engages in the activity was not contrary to community standards of acceptable conduct.

(8FAAB) *Producing, distributing or threatening to distribute intimate images

S. 53O
inserted by
No. 38/2022
s. 22.

53O Definitions

(1) In this Subdivision—

child means a person under the age of 18 years;

consent—see sections 53P and 53Q;

distribute, in relation to an image, includes—

- (a) publishing the image; and
- (b) exhibiting, communicating, sending, supplying or transmitting the image to any other person; and
- (c) making the image available for access by any other person;

electronic material includes data from which images may be generated;

intimate image means an image depicting—

- (a) a person engaged in a sexual activity; or
- (b) a person in a manner or context that is sexual; or
- (c) the genital or anal region of a person (whether bare or covered by underwear); or
- (d) if a person is female, or a transgender or intersex person identifying as female, the breasts of the person;

intimate image disposal order means an order made under section 53Z;

intimate image offence means an offence against section 53R(1), 53S(1) or 53T(1);

place includes land, premises and a vehicle;

police officer includes a member of the Australian Federal Police;

produce, in relation to an image, means—

- (a) filming, recording, taking or otherwise capturing the image; or
- (b) digitally creating the image;

seized thing means a thing that came into the possession of a police officer in the course of the exercise of functions as a police officer.

- (2) For the purposes of this Subdivision, an image may be—
  - (a) still, moving, recorded or unrecorded; and
  - (b) digitally created by—
    - (i) generating the image; or
    - (ii) altering or manipulating another image.

53P Meaning of consent

- (1) Consent, in relation to the production or distribution of an intimate image, means free and voluntary agreement.
- (2) A person does not consent to the production of an intimate image just because they consented to the production of a different intimate image (including an intimate image produced on a different occasion or in a different way).

Example

Consenting to a photograph being taken but not a video being recorded.

S. 53P
inserted by
No. 38/2022
s. 22.

(3) A person does not consent to the distribution of an intimate image just because they—

(a) consented to the distribution of that intimate image—

(i) on a different occasion; or

(ii) in a different way; or

Example

Consenting to a photograph being emailed to another person but not uploaded to a social media website.

(b) consented to the distribution of a different intimate image; or

(c) consented to the production of that intimate image or a different intimate image; or

(d) distributed that intimate image or a different intimate image; or

(e) in the case of distribution of an intimate image to a particular person, consented to the distribution of that intimate image to a different person.

S. 53Q
inserted by
No. 38/2022
s. 22.

53Q Circumstances in which a person does not consent

Circumstances in which a person does not consent to the production or distribution of an intimate image include, but are not limited to, the following—

(a) the person does not say or do anything to indicate consent to the production or distribution of the intimate image;

- (b) the person agrees to the production or distribution of the intimate image because of force, a fear of force, harm of any type or a fear of harm of any type, whether to that person or someone else, regardless of—
  - (i) when the force, harm or conduct giving rise to the fear occurs; and
  - (ii) whether it is, or is a result of, a single incident or part of an ongoing pattern;

Examples

Each of the following is an example of a type of harm referred to in this paragraph—

- (a) economic or financial harm;
  - (b) reputational harm;
  - (c) harm to the person's family, cultural or community relationships;
  - (d) harm to the person's employment;
  - (e) family violence involving psychological abuse or harm to mental health;
  - (f) sexual harassment.
- (c) the person agrees to the production or distribution of the intimate image because of coercion or intimidation—
    - (i) regardless of when the coercion or intimidation occurs; and
    - (ii) whether it is, or is a result of, a single incident or is part of an ongoing pattern;
  - (d) the person agrees to the production or distribution of the intimate image because the person is overborne by the abuse of a relationship of authority or trust;
  - (e) the person is asleep or unconscious;

- (f) the person is so affected by alcohol or another drug as to be incapable of consenting to the production or distribution of the intimate image;
- (g) the person is so affected by alcohol or another drug as to be incapable of withdrawing consent to the production or distribution of the intimate image.

Note

This circumstance may apply where a person gave consent when not so affected by alcohol or another drug as to be incapable of consenting.

S. 53R
inserted by
No. 38/2022

53R Producing intimate image

- (1) A person (A) commits an offence if—
  - (a) A intentionally produces an image depicting another person (B); and
  - (b) the image is an intimate image; and
  - (c) A knows that the image is, or probably is, an intimate image; and
  - (d) the production of the intimate image is contrary to community standards of acceptable conduct.

Examples

- 1 A person (A) live streams footage from a hidden camera placed in the bedroom of another person (B) to A's laptop and that footage depicts B engaging in sexual activity with another person.
- 2 A person (A) digitally superimposes another person's face (B) onto a photograph of a naked person taken from an online magazine.
- 3 A doctor taking a photo of an unconscious patient, which depicts the patient's genital region, during an operation to assist the doctor to perform a medical procedure may not be an offence against this section because of subsection (1)(d).

- (2) A person who commits an offence against subsection (1) is liable to 3 years imprisonment.
- (3) A does not commit an offence against subsection (1) if—
  - (a) B is not a child; and
  - (b) at the time of the production of the intimate image, B consented to—
    - (i) A producing the intimate image; and
    - (ii) how the intimate image was produced.

Note

A mistaken but honest belief that the production of the intimate image is not contrary to community standards of acceptable conduct is not a defence to this offence—see section 53V.

53S Distributing intimate image

S. 53S
inserted by
No. 38/2022
s. 22.

- (1) A person (A) commits an offence if—
  - (a) A intentionally distributes an image depicting another person (B); and
  - (b) the image is an intimate image; and
  - (c) A knows that the image is, or probably is, an intimate image; and
  - (d) the distribution of the intimate image is contrary to community standards of acceptable conduct.

Examples

- 1 A person (A) intentionally posts a photograph of another person (B) on a social media website without B's consent and the photograph depicts B engaged in a sexual activity.
- 2 A person (A) sends a photograph of a person (B) to another person (C) using an instant messaging service without B's consent and the photograph depicts B's genital or anal region.

- 3 A parent emailing a photo of their naked newborn child to a family member or a friend may not be an offence against this section because of subsection (1)(d).
- (2) A person who commits an offence against subsection (1) is liable to 3 years imprisonment.
- (3) A does not commit an offence against subsection (1) if—
- (a) B is not a child; and
  - (b) at the time of the distribution of the intimate image, B consented to—
    - (i) A distributing the intimate image; and
    - (ii) how the intimate image was distributed.
- (4) A does not commit an offence against subsection (1) if—
- (a) B is not a child; and
  - (b) the intimate image had been distributed previously in a place to which members of the public had access, irrespective of whether—
    - (i) that place was accessible on the Internet or not; and
    - (ii) access was free or for a payment of a fee; and
  - (c) B consented, or a reasonable person would believe that B consented, to that previous distribution; and
  - (d) in all the circumstances, a reasonable person would believe that B consented to the distribution of the intimate image to which the charge relates.

Note

A mistaken but honest belief that the distribution of the intimate image is not contrary to community standards of acceptable conduct is not a defence to this offence—see section 53V.

53T Threat to distribute intimate image

S. 53T
inserted by
No. 38/2022
s. 22.

- (1) A person (A) commits an offence if—
  - (a) A makes to another person (B) a threat to distribute an intimate image depicting B or another person; and
  - (b) the distribution of the image would be contrary to community standards of acceptable conduct; and
  - (c) A intends that B will believe, or believes that B will probably believe, that A will carry out the threat.
- (2) A person who commits an offence against subsection (1) is liable to 3 years imprisonment.
- (3) For the purposes of subsection (1), a threat may be—
  - (a) made by words or conduct; and
  - (b) explicit or implicit.

Note

A mistaken but honest belief that the distribution of the intimate image would not be contrary to community standards of acceptable conduct is not a defence to this offence—see section 53V.

53U Community standards of acceptable conduct

S. 53U
inserted by
No. 38/2022
s. 22.

- (1) Whether the production or distribution of an intimate image is contrary to community standards of acceptable conduct depends on the circumstances.
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1), the circumstances include—
  - (a) the nature and content of the intimate image;
  - (b) the circumstances in which the intimate image is produced or distributed;

- (c) the age, intellectual capacity, vulnerability or other relevant circumstances of a person depicted in the intimate image;
- (d) the degree to which the production or distribution of the intimate image affects the privacy of a person depicted in the intimate image.

S. 53V
inserted by
No. 38/2022

53V No defence of honest and reasonable mistake

It is not a defence to a charge that, at the time of the conduct constituting the offence, A was under a mistaken but honest and reasonable belief that—

- (a) for an offence against section 53R(1)—production of the intimate image was not contrary to community standards of acceptable conduct; or
- (b) for an offence against section 53S(1)—distribution of the intimate image was not contrary to community standards of acceptable conduct; or
- (c) for an offence against section 53T(1)—distribution of the intimate image would not be contrary to community standards of acceptable conduct.

The reference to A in this section is a reference to the same A referred to in sections 53R, 53S and 53T.

53X Application for intimate image disposal order

S. 53X
inserted by
No. 38/2022
s. 22.

- (1) The Director of Public Prosecutions or a police officer may apply to a court for an intimate image disposal order in respect of a seized thing, or of electronic material contained in a seized thing, that—
  - (a) was the subject of a criminal proceeding for an intimate image offence in which—
    - (i) the charge was discontinued, withdrawn or permanently stayed; or
    - (ii) the person was acquitted or found not guilty (including because of mental impairment) of the charge; or
    - (iii) the charge was dismissed; or
    - (iv) the person charged was released on an undertaking under section 75 of the Sentencing Act 1991; or
  - (b) was not the subject of a criminal proceeding.

Note

Sections 77 and 78 of the Confiscation Act 1997 apply to the disposal of an intimate image if a person is convicted of an offence set out in Schedule 1 to that Act.

- (2) The court to which an application under subsection (1) is to be made is—
  - (a) the court in which the proceeding was at the time the event referred to in subsection (1)(a)(i) to (iv) occurred; or
  - (b) the Magistrates' Court.

S. 53Y
inserted by
No. 38/2022
s. 22.

53Y Notice of application for intimate image disposal order and entitlement to appear

- (1) The applicant must give written notice of an application under section 53X to every person whom the applicant has reason to believe has an interest—
  - (a) in the seized thing; or
  - (b) in the electronic material contained in the seized thing.
- (2) A notice under subsection (1) must be given by ordinary service at least 14 days before the return date.
- (3) The court may waive the requirement under subsection (2) to give notice if satisfied—
  - (a) that all persons who have an interest referred to in that subsection have appeared before the court; or
  - (b) that it is fair to waive the requirement despite a person who has an interest referred to in that subsection not having appeared before the court.
- (4) At any time before the final determination of the application, the court may require the applicant to give notice of the application to any person, in any manner and within any period that the court thinks fit.

- (5) In this section, ordinary service and return date have the same meanings as in the Criminal Procedure Act 2009.

53Z Intimate image disposal order

S. 53Z
inserted by
No. 38/2022
s. 22.

- (1) On an application under section 53X, the court may order that the seized thing, or the electronic material contained in the seized thing, to which the application relates—
- (a) be forfeited to the State; and
  - (b) be destroyed or disposed of in a manner—
    - (i) determined by the court; and
    - (ii) specified in the order.

Note

An intimate image disposal order that relates to a seized thing that is an intimate image results in forfeiture of the seized thing. An intimate image disposal order that relates to electronic material that is contained in a seized thing results in forfeiture of the electronic material only.

- (2) The court may only make an intimate image disposal order—
- (a) if satisfied, on the balance of probabilities, that—
    - (i) the seized thing is, or the electronic material contained in the seized thing includes, an intimate image; and
    - (ii) the return to a person of the seized thing, or of the electronic material contained in the seized thing, may result in the commission of an intimate image offence; or

- (b) if satisfied, on the balance of probabilities, that—
  - (i) the seized thing contains encrypted or password protected electronic material; and
  - (ii) there are reasonable grounds to believe that the electronic material includes an intimate image.
- (3) The court may give any direction necessary to give effect to an intimate image disposal order made by it.
- (4) The following persons are entitled to appear and give evidence at the hearing of the application—
  - (a) any person notified under section 53Y(1) or (4);
  - (b) any other person who claims an interest in the seized thing or in electronic material contained in the seized thing.
- (5) The court is not prevented from making an intimate image disposal order because a person referred to in subsection (4) has not appeared before the court.

53ZA Appeal against intimate image disposal order

- (1) Without affecting any other right of appeal, a person who has an interest in a seized thing, or in electronic material contained in a seized thing, may appeal against an intimate image disposal order made in respect of it.
- (2) An appeal is to be made by a person in the same manner as if—
  - (a) the person had been convicted of an intimate image offence by the court that made the intimate image disposal order; and

- (b) the intimate image disposal order were, or were part of, the sentence imposed in respect of that offence.
- (3) On appeal—
  - (a) the intimate image disposal order may be—
    - (i) confirmed; or
    - (ii) discharged; or
    - (iii) varied; or
  - (b) the matter may be remitted for rehearing to the court that made the order with or without any direction in law.
- (4) An intimate image disposal order is stayed during the appeal period.
- (5) In this section—

appeal period means the period permitted under the Criminal Procedure Act 2009 for—

  - (a) commencing an appeal of the kind referred to in subsection (2); or
  - (b) if an appeal of the kind referred to in subsection (2) is commenced within the period permitted, the determination of the appeal.

53ZB Disposal of thing or material by consent

Nothing in section 53X, 53Y, 53Z or 53ZA prevents the destruction or disposal of a seized thing that is, or of electronic material contained in a seized thing that includes, an intimate image with the consent of all persons who have an interest in the thing or material.

vessel equipped for the purposes of piracy shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction upon indictment to level 6 imprisonment (5 years maximum).

- (2) It shall be a defence to a charge under subsection (1) if the person charged proves—
- (a) that he was not on board the vessel willingly;
or
  - (b) that he did not know that the vessel was equipped for the purposes of piracy.

Division 2—Theft and similar or associated offences

Pt 1 Div. 2
(Heading) substituted by
No. 8425
s. 2(1)(a).

71 Definitions

S. 71
amended by
No. 8280 s. 7,
substituted by
No. 8425
s. 2(1)(b).

- (1) In this Division—

gain and loss are to be construed as extending only to gain or loss in money or other property, but as extending to any such gain or loss whether temporary or permanent; and—

- (a) gain includes a gain by keeping what one has, as well as a gain by getting what one has not; and
- (b) loss includes a loss by not getting what one might get, as well as a loss by parting with what one has;

goods except in so far as the context otherwise requires, includes money and every other description of property except land and includes things severed from the land by stealing;

property includes money and all other property real or personal including things in action and other intangible property.

- (2) In this Division property shall be regarded as belonging to any person having possession or control of it, or having in it any proprietary right or interest (not being an equitable interest arising only from an agreement to transfer or grant an interest).

substituted by
No. 8425
s. 2(1)(b).

72 Basic definition of theft

- (1) A person steals if he dishonestly appropriates property belonging to another with the intention of permanently depriving the other of it.
- (2) A person who steals is guilty of theft; and "thief" shall be construed accordingly.

S. 73
substituted by
No. 8425
s. 2(1)(b).

73 Further explanation of theft

- (1) This section has effect as regards the interpretation and operation of section 72 and, except as otherwise provided in this Division, shall apply only for the purposes of that section and not otherwise.
- (2) A person's appropriation of property belonging to another is not to be regarded as dishonest—
- (a) if he appropriates the property in the belief that he has in law the right to deprive the other of it, on behalf of himself or of a third person; or
  - (b) if he appropriates the property in the belief that he would have the other's consent if the other knew of the appropriation and the circumstances of it; or
  - (c) (except where the property came to him as trustee or personal representative) if he appropriates the property in the belief that the person to whom the property belongs cannot be discovered by taking reasonable steps.

- (3) A person's appropriation of property belonging to another may be dishonest notwithstanding that he is willing to pay for the property.
- (4) Any assumption by a person of the rights of an owner amounts to an appropriation, and this includes, where he has come by the property (innocently or not) without stealing it, any later assumption of a right to it by keeping or dealing with it as owner.
- (5) Where property or a right or interest in property is or purports to be transferred for value to a person acting in good faith, no later assumption by him of rights which he believed himself to be acquiring shall, by reason of any defect in the transferor's title, amount to theft of the property.
- (6) A person cannot steal land, or things forming part of land and severed from it by him or by his directions, except in the following cases, that is to say—
  - (a) when he is a trustee or personal representative, or is authorized by power of attorney, or as liquidator of a company, or otherwise, to sell or dispose of land belonging to another, and he appropriates the land or anything forming part of it by dealing with it in breach of the confidence reposed in him; or
  - (b) when he is not in possession of the land and appropriates any thing forming part of the land by severing it or causing it to be severed, or after it has been severed; or

- (c) when, being in possession of the land under a tenancy, he appropriates the whole or part of any fixture or structure let to be used with the land.

For purposes of this subsection land does not include incorporeal hereditaments; tenancy means a tenancy for years or any less period and includes an agreement for such a tenancy, but a person who after the end of a tenancy remains in possession as statutory tenant or otherwise is to be treated as having possession under the tenancy, and "let" shall be construed accordingly.

- (7) Wild creatures, tamed or untamed, shall be regarded as property; but a person cannot steal a wild creature not tamed nor ordinarily kept in captivity, or the carcase of any such creature, unless either it has been reduced into possession by or on behalf of another person and possession of it has not since been lost or abandoned, or another person is in course of reducing it into possession.
- (8) Where property is subject to a trust, the persons to whom it belongs shall be regarded as including any person having a right to enforce the trust, and an intention to defeat the trust shall be regarded accordingly as an intention to deprive of the property any person having that right.
- (9) Where a person receives property from or on account of another, and is under an obligation to the other to retain and deal with that property or its proceeds in a particular way, the property or proceeds shall be regarded (as against him) as belonging to the other.

- (10) Where a person gets property by another's mistake, and is under an obligation to make restoration (in whole or in part) of the property or its proceeds or of the value thereof, then to the extent of that obligation the property or proceeds shall be regarded (as against him) as belonging to the person entitled to restoration, and an intention not to make restoration shall be regarded accordingly as an intention to deprive that person of the property or proceeds.
- (11) Property of a corporation sole shall be regarded as belonging to the corporation notwithstanding a vacancy in the corporation.
- (12) A person appropriating property belonging to another without meaning the other permanently to lose the thing itself is nevertheless to be regarded as having the intention of permanently depriving the other of it if his intention is to treat the thing as his own to dispose of regardless of the other's rights; and a borrowing or lending of it may amount to so treating it if, but only if, the borrowing or lending is for a period and in circumstances making it equivalent to an outright taking or disposal.
- (13) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (12) where a person, having possession or control (lawfully or not) of property belonging to another, parts with the property under a condition as to its return which he may not be able to perform, this (if done for purposes of his own and without the other's authority) amounts to treating the property as his own to dispose of regardless of the other's rights.

(14) Notwithstanding anything contained in subsection (12) in any proceedings—

S. 73(14)(a)
amended by
No. 127/1986
s. 102(Sch. 4
item 5.2).

(a) for stealing a motor vehicle or an aircraft proof that the person charged took or in any manner used the motor vehicle or aircraft without the consent of the owner or person in lawful possession thereof shall be conclusive evidence that the person charged intended to permanently deprive the owner of it; and

S. 73(14)(b)
amended by
No. 127/1986
s. 102(Sch. 4
item 5.2).

(b) for attempting to steal a motor vehicle or an aircraft proof that the person charged attempted to take or in any manner use the motor vehicle or aircraft without the consent of the owner or person in lawful possession thereof shall be conclusive evidence that the person charged intended to permanently deprive the owner of it.

S. 73(15)
inserted by
No. 20/2015
s. 22.

(15) In this section—

motor vehicle includes vessel, whether or not the vessel is powered by a motor;

vessel has the same meaning as in the Marine Safety Act 2010.

- (1) A person commits a home invasion if—
- (a) the person enters a home as a trespasser with intent—
    - (i) to steal anything in the home; or
    - (ii) to commit an offence, punishable by imprisonment for a term of 5 years or more—
      - (A) involving an assault to a person in the home; or
      - (B) involving any damage to the home or to property in the home; and
  - (b) the person enters the home in company with one or more other persons; and
  - (c) either—
    - (i) at the time the person enters the home, the person has with them a firearm, an imitation firearm, an offensive weapon, an explosive or an imitation explosive; or
    - (ii) at any time while the person is present in the home, another person (other than a person referred to in paragraph (b)) is present in the home.

- (2) For the purpose of subsection (1)(c)(ii), it is immaterial whether or not the person knew that there was, or would be, another person present in the home.
- (3) A person who commits a home invasion commits an offence and is liable to level 2 imprisonment (25 years maximum).
- (4) A person may be found guilty of an offence against this section whether or not any other person is prosecuted for or found guilty of the offence.

- (5) In this section—

explosive, firearm, imitation explosive, imitation firearm, and offensive weapon have the same meanings as in section 77;

home means any building, part of a building or other structure intended for occupation as a dwelling and includes the following—

- (a) any part of commercial or industrial premises that is used as residential premises;
- (b) a motel room or hotel room or other temporary accommodation provided on a commercial basis;
- (c) a rooming house within the meaning of the Residential Tenancies Act 1997;
- (d) a room provided to a person as accommodation in a residential care service, hospital or any other premises involved in the provision of health services to the person;
- (e) a caravan within the meaning of the Residential Tenancies Act 1997 or any vehicle or vessel used as a residence.

- (a) the person enters a home as a trespasser with intent—
    - (i) to steal anything in the home; or
    - (ii) to commit an offence, punishable by imprisonment for a term of 5 years or more—
      - (A) involving an assault to a person in the home; or
      - (B) involving any damage to the home or to property in the home; and
  - (b) the person enters the home in company with 2 or more other persons; and
  - (c) at the time the person enters the home—
    - (i) the person has with them a firearm, an imitation firearm, an offensive weapon, an explosive or an imitation explosive; and
    - (ii) the person knows or is reckless as to whether there is or will be another person (other than a person referred to in paragraph (b)) present in the home while the person is present in the home; and

(d) at any time while the person is present in the home, another person (other than a person referred to in paragraph (b)) is present in the home.

(2) A person who commits an aggravated home invasion commits an offence and is liable to level 1 imprisonment (life).

78 Removal of articles from places open to the public

- (1) Subject to subsections (2) and (3), where the public have access to a building in order to view the building or part of it, or a collection or part of a collection housed in it, any person who without lawful authority removes from the building or its grounds the whole or part of any article displayed or kept for display to the public in the building or that part of it or in its grounds shall be guilty of an offence.

For this purpose collection includes a collection got together for a temporary purpose, but references in this section to a collection do not apply to a collection made or exhibited for the purpose of effecting sales or other commercial dealings.

- (2) It is immaterial for purposes of subsection (1) that the public's access to a building is limited to a particular period or particular occasion; but where anything removed from a building or its grounds is there otherwise than as forming part of, or being on loan for exhibition with, a collection intended for permanent exhibition to the public, the person removing it does not thereby commit an offence under this section unless he removes it on a day when the public have access to the building as mentioned in subsection (1).

- (3) A person does not commit an offence under this section if he believes that he has lawful authority for the removal of the thing in question or that he would have it if the person entitled to give it knew of the removal and the circumstances of it.
- (4) A person guilty of an offence under this section is guilty of an indictable offence and liable to level 6 imprisonment (5 years maximum).

  - (f) to have been altered in any respect on the authority of a person who did not in fact authorise the alteration in that respect; or
  - (g) to have been made or altered on a date on which, or at a place at which, or otherwise in circumstances in which, it was not in fact made or altered; or
  - (h) to have been made or altered by an existing person who did not in fact exist.
- (7) For the purposes of this section, a person is to be treated as making a false document if the person alters a document so as to make it false in any respect (whether or not it is false in some other respect apart from that alteration).
- (8) For the purposes of this section, an act or omission is to a person's prejudice if, and only if, it is one that, if it occurs—
- (a) will result—
    - (i) in the person's temporary or permanent loss of property; or

- (ii) in the person's being deprived of an opportunity to earn remuneration or greater remuneration; or
    - (iii) in the person's being deprived of an opportunity to obtain a financial advantage otherwise than by way of remuneration; or
  - (b) will result in any person being given an opportunity—
    - (i) to earn remuneration or greater remuneration from the first-mentioned person; or
    - (ii) to obtain a financial advantage from the first-mentioned person otherwise than by way of remuneration; or
  - (c) will be the result of the person's having accepted a false document as genuine, or a copy of a false document as a copy of a genuine one, in connection with the person's performance of a duty.
- (9) In this section—
- (a) a reference to inducing a person to accept a false document as genuine, or a copy of a false document as a copy of a genuine document, shall be read as including a reference to causing a machine to respond to the document or copy as if it were a genuine document or a copy of a genuine document, as the case may be; and
  - (b) if—
    - (i) a machine so responds to a document or copy; and
    - (ii) the act or omission intended to be caused by the machine's so responding is an act or omission that, if it were an act or omission of a person, would be to a person's prejudice within the meaning of subsection (1)— the act or omission intended to be caused by the machine's so responding shall be deemed to be an act or omission to a person's prejudice.

- (10) In proceedings for an offence against this section, if it is necessary to allege an intent to induce a person to accept a false document as genuine, or a copy of a false document as a copy of a genuine one, it is not necessary to allege that the accused intended so to induce a particular person.

- (1) A person who uses or threatens unlawful violence and whose conduct would cause a person of reasonable firmness present at the scene to be terrified commits an offence and is liable to—
- (a) level 6 imprisonment (5 years maximum); or
  - (b) imprisonment for 7 years if, at the time of committing the offence, the person is wearing a face covering used primarily—
    - (i) to conceal the person's identity; or
    - (ii) to protect the person from the effects of a crowd-controlling substance.

Example of unlawful violence

Engaging in unlawful fighting with another person.

- (2) A person is guilty of an offence under subsection (1) only if the person intends to use or threaten violence or is reckless as to whether the person's conduct involves the use of violence or threatens violence.
- (3) For the purposes of subsection (1), a threat of unlawful violence must involve more than words alone.

- (4) An offence under subsection (1) may be committed—
  - (a) in private as well as public places; and
  - (b) whether or not a person of reasonable firmness is present at the scene.
- (5) For the purpose of subsection (1), if 2 or more persons use or threaten unlawful violence—
  - (a) it is the conduct of them taken together that must be considered; and
  - (b) it is immaterial whether or not those persons use or threaten unlawful violence simultaneously.

195I Violent disorder

- (1) Violent disorder occurs where 6 or more persons (the participants) who are present together use or threaten unlawful violence with a common goal or intention and the conduct of them, taken together, causes injury to another person or causes damage to property.
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1)—
  - (a) violent disorder may occur in private as well as public places; and
  - (b) it is immaterial whether or not the participants use or threaten unlawful violence simultaneously; and
  - (c) the common goal or intention may be inferred from the conduct of the participants.
- (3) A participant in violent disorder commits an offence and is liable to—
  - (a) level 5 imprisonment (10 years maximum);
or

- (b) level 4 imprisonment (15 years maximum) if, at the time of committing the offence, the participant is wearing a face covering used primarily—
  - (i) to conceal the participant's identity; or
  - (ii) to protect the participant from the effects of a crowd-controlling substance.
- (4) A person is guilty of an offence under subsection (3) only if the person intends to use or threaten violence or is reckless as to whether the person's conduct involves the use of violence or threatens violence.
- (5) Subsection (4) does not affect the determination for the purposes of subsection (1) of the number of persons who are engaging in the conduct referred to in subsection (1).

- (c) the offender knows that, or is reckless as to whether—
    - (i) the place at which the conduct is engaged in is a public place; or
    - (ii) the conduct is likely to be seen or heard by a person in a public place; and
  - (d) the offender knows, or a reasonable person would know, that the conduct would likely grossly offend community standards of acceptable conduct.
- (2) A person who commits an offence against subsection (1) is liable to level 6 imprisonment (5 years maximum).
  - (3) A reference in subsection (1) to conduct being seen or heard does not include seeing or hearing it by using electronic communication.
  - (4) A person's conduct does not grossly offend community standards of acceptable conduct just because—
    - (a) the person uses language that is profane, indecent or obscene; or
    - (b) the person is intoxicated.
  - (5) It is a defence to a charge for an offence against subsection (1) if the accused engaged in the conduct reasonably and in good faith—
    - (a) in the performance, exhibition or distribution of an artistic work; or
    - (b) in the course of any statement or publication made, or discussion or debate held, or any other conduct engaged in, for—
      - (i) a genuine political, academic, educational, artistic, religious, cultural or scientific purpose; or

- (ii) a purpose that is in the public interest;
or
  - (c) in making or publishing a fair and accurate report of any event or matter of public interest.
- (6) In this section—
- public place* means—
- (a) a public place within the meaning of section 3 of the Summary Offences Act 1966; or
  - (b) a non-Government school within the meaning of section 1.1.3(1) of the Education and Training Reform Act 2006; or
  - (c) a post-secondary education institution within the meaning of section 1.1.3(1) of the Education and Training Reform Act 2006.

- (1) A person commits an offence if—
  - (a) the person engages in conduct that is likely to incite hatred against, serious contempt for, revulsion towards or severe ridicule of, another person or a group of persons; and
  - (b) the person engages in the conduct on the ground of a protected attribute of the other person or the group; and
  - (c) the person either—
    - (i) intends that conduct to incite hatred against, serious contempt for, revulsion towards or severe ridicule of, the other person or the group; or
    - (ii) believes that conduct will probably incite hatred against, serious contempt for, revulsion towards or severe ridicule of, the other person or the group.
- (2) A person who commits an offence against subsection (1) is liable to 3 years imprisonment.
- (3) For the purposes of subsection (1), the conduct may be constituted by a single occasion or by a number of occasions over a period of time.
- (5) If conduct engaged in from outside Victoria is alleged to constitute an offence against subsection (1), every person against whom the offence is alleged to have been committed must have been in Victoria when at least some of the conduct was engaged in for the conduct to constitute that offence.
- (6) Conduct that—
  - (a) is engaged in from outside Victoria; and

- (b) is against a group of persons that is defined solely by the possession of a protected attribute—does not constitute an offence against subsection (1).

Example

If a person in another State engages in conduct that is against all people of a certain race, whether or not those people are within Victoria, that conduct does not constitute an offence against subsection (1).

- (7) If any of the conduct alleged to constitute an offence against subsection (1) is engaged in from within Victoria, it does not matter whether a person against whom the offence is alleged to have been committed was outside Victoria at that time.

inserted by
No. 11/2025

195O Threaten physical harm or property damage on ground of protected attribute

- (1) A person commits an offence if—
  - (a) the person threatens—
    - (i) physical harm towards another person or a group of persons; or
    - (ii) to damage property of, or otherwise related to, another person or a group of persons; and
  - (b) the person threatens the physical harm or the property damage on the ground of a protected attribute of the other person or the group; and
  - (c) the person either—
    - (i) intends that the other person or a person of the group will believe the threat will be carried out; or

- (ii) believes that the other person or a person of the group will probably believe the threat will be carried out.
- (2) A person who commits an offence against subsection (1) is liable to level 6 imprisonment (5 years maximum).
- (3) If a threat made from outside Victoria is alleged to constitute an offence against subsection (1), the following persons or property must have been in Victoria when the threat was made for the threat to constitute that offence—
  - (a) in the case of a threat to physically harm a person or a group of persons, that person or group; or
  - (b) in the case of a threat to damage property, that property.
- (4) If a threat that is alleged to constitute an offence against subsection (1) is made from within Victoria, it does not matter whether the following persons or property were outside Victoria at that time—
  - (a) in the case of a threat to physically harm a person, that person; or
  - (b) in the case of a threat to physically harm a group of persons, any of those persons; or
  - (c) in the case of a threat to damage property, that property.

195P Irrelevant whether incorrect about protected attribute

S. 195P
inserted by
No. 11/2025
s. 4.

In determining whether a person has committed an offence against section 195N(1) or 195O(1), it is irrelevant that the person was incorrect about—

- (a) a protected attribute of the other person or group of persons; or

- (b) whether the other person or group of persons had a particular protected attribute.

195R Criminal liability of officers of bodies corporate—accessorial liability

- (1) If a body corporate commits an offence against a provision specified in subsection (2), an officer of the body corporate also commits an offence against the provision if the officer—
  - (a) authorised or permitted the commission of the offence by the body corporate; or
  - (b) was knowingly concerned in any way (whether by act or omission) in the commission of the offence by the body corporate.
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1), the following provisions are specified—
  - (a) section 195N(1);
  - (b) section 195O(1).
- (3) Without limiting any other defence available to the officer, an officer of a body corporate may rely on a defence that would be available to the body corporate if it were charged with the offence with which the officer is charged and, in doing so, the officer bears the same burden of proof that the body corporate would bear.

(4) An officer of a body corporate may commit an offence against a provision specified in subsection (2) whether or not the body corporate has been prosecuted for, or found guilty of, an offence against that provision.

(5) In this section—

body corporate has the same meaning as corporation has in section 57A of the Corporations Act;

officer, in relation to a body corporate, means—

- (a) a person who is an officer (as defined by section 9 of the Corporations Act) of the body corporate; or
  - (b) a person (other than a person referred to in paragraph (a)), by whatever name called, who is concerned in, or takes part in, the management of the body corporate.
- (6) This section does not affect the operation of Subdivision (1) of Division 1 of Part II of this Act.

198 Threats to destroy or damage property

A person who without lawful excuse makes to another a threat—

- (a) to destroy or damage any property belonging to that other or a third person or to himself and that other or a third person; or
- (b) to destroy or damage his own property in a way which he knows or believes is more likely than not to endanger the life of that other or a third person—shall, if he made the threat with the purpose of causing the other to fear that it would be carried out, be guilty of an indictable offence and liable to level 6 imprisonment (5 years maximum).

199 Possessing anything with intent to destroy or damage property

A person who has anything in his custody or under his control—

- (a) with the purpose of using it, or causing or permitting another to use it, without lawful excuse—
  - (i) to destroy or damage any property belonging to some other person or to himself, the user or both of them and some other person; or
  - (ii) to destroy or damage any property in a way which he knows or believes is more likely than not to endanger the life of some other person; or
- (b) with the purpose of using it, or causing or permitting another to use it, dishonestly and with a view to gain for himself or another, to destroy or damage property—shall be guilty of an indictable offence and liable to level 6 imprisonment (5 years maximum).

- (2) A person charged with an offence to which this section applies shall, whether or not he would be treated for the purposes of this subdivision as having a lawful excuse apart from this subsection, be treated for those purposes as having a lawful excuse—
- (a) if at the time of the conduct alleged to constitute the offence he believed—
    - (i) that the property in question belonged solely to himself;
    - (ii) that he held a right or interest in the property in question which authorized him to engage in the conduct; or
    - (iii) that the person or persons whom he believed to be entitled to consent to the destruction or damage in question had so consented or would have so consented if he or they had known the circumstances of the destruction or damage; or
  - (b) if he engaged in the conduct alleged to constitute the offence in order to protect property belonging to himself or another or a right or interest in property which was or which he believed to be vested in himself or another, and at the time of such conduct he believed—
    - (i) that the property, right or interest which he sought to protect was in immediate need of protection; and
    - (ii) that the means of protection adopted or proposed to be adopted were or would be reasonable having regard to all the circumstances.

- (3) For the purposes of this section it is immaterial whether a belief is justified or not if it is honestly held.
- (4) For the purposes of subsection (2) a right or interest in property includes any right or privilege in or over land, whether created by grant, licence or otherwise.
- (5) This section shall not be construed as taking away or otherwise affecting any other defence recognized by law as a defence to criminal charges.

201A Intentionally or recklessly causing a bushfire

- (1) A person who—
  - (a) intentionally or recklessly causes a fire; and
  - (b) is reckless as to the spread of the fire to vegetation on property belonging to another—is guilty of an offence and liable to level 4 imprisonment (15 years maximum).
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1)(b), circumstances in which a person is not to be taken to be reckless as to the spread of a fire include the following—
  - (a) the person caused the fire in the course of carrying out a fire prevention, fire suppression or other land management activity; and
  - (b) at the time the activity was carried out—
    - (i) there was in force a provision made by or under an Act or by a Code of Practice approved under an Act, that regulated or otherwise applied to the carrying out of the activity and the person in carrying out that activity acted in accordance with the provision;

and

- (ii) the person believed that his or her conduct in carrying out the activity was justified having regard to all of the circumstances.
- (3) For the purposes of subsection (2)(b)(ii) it is sufficient that a person honestly believed that the conduct was justified.
- (4) In this section—
  - (a) a reference to causing a fire includes—
    - (i) lighting a fire;
    - (ii) maintaining a fire;
    - (iii) failing to contain a fire, except where the fire was lit by another person or the fire is beyond the control of the person who lit the fire;
  - (b) spread of the fire means spread of the fire beyond the capacity of the person who caused the fire to extinguish it.

202 Jurisdiction of magistrates' courts

(6) *Computer offences

247A Interpretation

(1) In this Subdivision—

access, in relation to data held in a computer, means—

- (a) the display of the data by the computer or any other output of the data from the computer; or
- (b) the copying or moving of the data to any other place in the computer or to a data storage device; or
- (c) in the case of a program, the execution of the program;

data includes—

- (a) information in any form; and
- (b) any program or part of a program;

data held in a computer includes—

- (a) data entered or copied into the computer; and
- (b) data held in any removable data storage device for the time being in the computer; and
- (c) data held in a data storage device on a computer network of which the computer forms part;

data storage device means any thing (for example, a disk or file server) containing or designed to contain data for use by a computer;

electronic communication means a communication of information in any form by means of guided or unguided electromagnetic energy;

impairment, in relation to electronic communication to or from a computer, includes—

- (a) the prevention of any such communication; and
- (b) the impairment of any such communication on an electronic link or network used by the computer—but does not include a mere interception of any such communication; modification, in relation to data held in a computer, means—

- (a) the alteration or removal of the data; or
- (b) an addition to the data;

serious computer offence means—

- (a) an offence against section 247B, 247C or 247D; or
- (b) conduct in another jurisdiction that is an offence in that jurisdiction and that would constitute an offence against section 247B, 247C or 247D if the conduct occurred in Victoria;

unauthorised computer function means any of the following—

- (a) any unauthorised access to data held in a computer; or
- (b) any unauthorised modification of data held in a computer; or

- (c) any unauthorised impairment of electronic communication to or from a computer.
- (2) In this Subdivision, a reference to access to data, modification of data or impairment of electronic communication is limited to access, modification or impairment caused (whether directly or indirectly) by the execution of a function of a computer.
- (3) For the purposes of this Subdivision, access to data, modification of data or impairment of electronic communication by a person—
  - (a) is unauthorised if the person is not entitled to cause that access, modification or impairment;
  - (b) is not unauthorised merely because the person has an ulterior purpose for that action.
- (4) For the purposes of an offence against this Subdivision, a person causes an unauthorised computer function if the person's conduct substantially contributes to the unauthorised computer function.

inserted by
No. 10/2003
s. 5.

247B Unauthorised access, modification or impairment with intent to commit serious offence

- (1) A person who causes any unauthorised computer function—
  - (a) knowing it is unauthorised; and
  - (b) with the intention of committing a serious offence or facilitating the commission of a serious offence (whether by the person or by another person)— is guilty of an offence and liable to the same maximum penalty as applies to the commission of the serious offence in Victoria.

- (2) In this section serious offence means—
- (a) an offence in Victoria punishable on conviction for a first offence with imprisonment for a term of 5 years or more; or
  - (b) an offence in any other jurisdiction that would be punishable on conviction for a first offence with imprisonment for a term of 5 years or more if committed in Victoria.
- (3) A person may be found guilty of an offence against this section—
- (a) even if committing the serious offence is impossible; or
  - (b) whether the serious offence is to be committed at the time of the unauthorised conduct or at a later time.
- (4) It is not an offence to attempt to commit an offence against this section.

- (1) A person who—
  - (a) causes any unauthorised access to or modification of restricted data held in a computer; and
  - (b) knows that the access or modification is unauthorised; and
  - (c) intends to cause the access or modification—is guilty of an offence and liable to level 7 imprisonment (2 years maximum).
- (2) An offence against this section is a summary offence.
- (3) In this section restricted data means data held in a computer to which access is restricted by an access control system associated with a function of the computer.

S. 247H
inserted by
No. 10/2003
s. 5.

247H Unauthorised impairment of data held in computer disk, credit card or other device

- (1) A person who—
  - (a) causes any unauthorised impairment of the reliability, security or operation of data held on a computer disk, credit card or other device used to store data by electronic means; and
  - (b) knows that the impairment is unauthorised; and
  - (c) intends to cause the impairment—is guilty of an offence and liable to level 7 imprisonment (2 years maximum).
- (2) An offence against this section is a summary offence.

- (3) For the purposes of this section, impairment of reliability, security or operation of data is unauthorised if the person is not entitled to cause the impairment.

247I Extra-territorial operation of offences

inserted by
No. 10/2003
s. 5.

- (1) It is immaterial that some or all of the conduct constituting an offence against this Subdivision occurred outside Victoria, so long as the computer or device used to store data by electronic means affected by the conduct was in Victoria at the time at which the conduct occurred.
- (2) It is immaterial that the computer or device used to store data by electronic means affected by some or all of the conduct constituting an offence against this Subdivision was outside Victoria at the time the conduct occurred, so long as that conduct occurred in Victoria.

relevant intention means the intention of preventing a document or other thing of any kind from being used in evidence in a legal proceeding.

254 Destruction of evidence

New s. 254
inserted by
No. 6/2006
s. 3.

- (1) A person who—
- (a) knows that a document or other thing of any kind is, or is reasonably likely to be, required in evidence in a legal proceeding; and
  - (b) either—
    - (i) destroys or conceals it or renders it illegible, undecipherable or incapable of identification; or
    - (ii) expressly, tacitly or impliedly authorises or permits another person to destroy or conceal it or render it illegible, undecipherable or incapable of identification and that other person does so; and
  - (c) acts as described in paragraph (b) with the intention of preventing it from being used in evidence in a legal proceeding—is guilty of an indictable offence and liable to level 6 imprisonment (5 years maximum) or a level 6 fine or both.

255 Corporate criminal responsibility for offence against section 254

- (1) For the purposes of a proceeding against a body corporate for an offence against section 254—
  - (a) relevant conduct engaged in by an associate of the body corporate must also be attributed to the body corporate; and
  - (b) knowledge of an associate of the body corporate must also be attributed to the body corporate; and
  - (c) intention—
    - (i) of the body corporate's board of directors; or
    - (ii) of an officer of the body corporate; or
    - (iii) of any other associate of the body corporate if a corporate culture existed within the body corporate that directed, encouraged, tolerated or led to the formation of that intention—must also be attributed to the body corporate.
- (2) If an officer of a body corporate contravenes section 254, the body corporate must be taken to have also contravened that section and may be proceeded against and found guilty of an offence against that section whether or not the officer has been proceeded against or found guilty of that offence.
- (3) In a proceeding against a body corporate for an offence against section 254, brought in reliance on subsection (2), it is a defence to the charge for the body corporate to prove that it exercised due diligence to prevent the contravention of that section by the officer.

- (4) The means by which authorisation or permission as required by section 254(1)(b)(ii) may be established include—
  - (a) proving that an officer of the body corporate gave that authorisation or permission; or
  - (b) proving that the body corporate's board of directors gave that authorisation or permission; or
  - (c) proving that a corporate culture existed within the body corporate that directed, encouraged, tolerated or led to the relevant conduct being carried out.
- (5) Subsection (4)(a) does not apply if the body corporate proves that it exercised due diligence to prevent the authorisation or permission being given.
- (6) Factors relevant to the application of subsection (1)(c)(iii) or (4)(c) include—
  - (a) whether authority to commit an offence against section 254 or an offence of a similar character had been given by an officer of the body corporate; and
  - (b) whether the associate of the body corporate who carried out the relevant conduct or formed the relevant intention believed on reasonable grounds, or entertained a reasonable expectation, that an officer of the body corporate would have authorised or permitted the relevant conduct being carried out with the relevant intention.
- (7) Subject to subsection (8), it is not necessary that each element of an offence against section 254 that is attributed to a body corporate by force of subsection (1) be supplied by the same associate of the body corporate.

- (8) It is necessary that the elements referred to in section 254(1)(b)(i) and (c) be supplied by the same associate of the body corporate.

Division 5A—Intimidation and reprisals relating to witnesses, etc.

New s. 256
inserted by
No. 34/2016
s. 40.

256 Interpretation

- (1) For the purposes of this Division, a person is involved in a criminal investigation if the person is—
- (a) a witness of an alleged crime or crimes being investigated; or
  - (b) a victim of an alleged crime or crimes being investigated; or
  - (c) involved in the investigation in any other capacity.
- (2) For the purposes of this Division, a person is involved in a criminal proceeding if the person is—
- (a) a witness in that proceeding; or
  - (b) a juror in that proceeding; or
  - (c) involved in the proceeding in any other capacity.
- (3) In this Division—
- detriment, to a person, includes—
- (a) loss or damage to a person's property or business;

- (b) discrimination, disadvantage or adverse treatment in relation to a person's employment, career, business, trade, profession or enterprise.

257 Intimidation or reprisals relating to involvement in criminal investigation or criminal proceeding

New s. 257
inserted by
No. 34/2016
s. 40.

- (1) A person (the offender) must not—

- (a) use or procure the use of intimidation towards a person (the victim); or
- (b) cause or procure any physical harm or detriment of any kind to a person (the victim)—

because the offender knows or believes that the victim or another person is, was, may be or may become involved in a criminal investigation or a criminal proceeding.

Penalty: Level 5 imprisonment (10 years maximum).

- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1)(a), a person uses intimidation towards a victim if—

- (a) the person engages in conduct that could reasonably be expected to arouse apprehension or fear in the victim for the safety of the victim or another person or of detriment to the victim or another person; and
- (b) either—
  - (i) the person knows that engaging in that conduct would be likely to arouse that apprehension or fear; or

- (ii) in all the particular circumstances, the person ought to have known that engaging in that conduct would be likely to arouse that apprehension or fear.
- (3) Subsection (2) applies whether or not the conduct arouses apprehension or fear in the victim.
- (4) Subsection (1) does not apply to conduct engaged in by a person performing official duties for the purpose of—
  - (a) the enforcement of the criminal law; or
  - (b) the administration of any Act; or
  - (c) the enforcement of a law imposing a pecuniary penalty; or
  - (d) the execution of a warrant; or
  - (e) the protection of public revenue—that, but for this subsection, would constitute an offence against subsection (1).
- (5) In a proceeding for an offence against subsection (1) it is a defence to the charge for the accused to prove that the conduct was engaged in without malice—
  - (a) in the normal course of a lawful business, trade, profession or enterprise (including that of any body or person whose business, or whose principal business, is the publication, or arranging the publication, of news or current affairs material); or
  - (b) for the purpose of an industrial dispute; or
  - (c) for the purpose of engaging in political activities or discussion or communicating with respect to public affairs.

- (6) For the purposes of this section, it is immaterial that—
- (a) some or all of the conduct constituting an offence against subsection (1) occurred outside Victoria, so long as the victim was in Victoria at the time at which that conduct occurred; or
  - (b) the victim was outside Victoria at the time at which some or all of the conduct constituting an offence against subsection (1) occurred, so long as that conduct occurred in Victoria; or
  - (c) some or all of the conduct constituting an offence against subsection (1) occurred outside Victoria and the victim was outside Victoria at the relevant time or times, so long as the relevant criminal investigation or criminal proceeding is occurring, occurred, will occur or may occur in Victoria.

amended by
No. 37/2014
s. 10(Sch.
item 36.9).

Penalty: 3 years imprisonment.

- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1)—
- (a) a person drives a motor vehicle dangerously if he or she drives the vehicle at a speed or in a manner that is dangerous to the public having regard to all the circumstances of the case; and
- (b) a person drives a motor vehicle negligently if he or she fails unjustifiably and to a gross degree to observe the standard of care which a reasonable person would have observed in all the circumstances of the case; and

(c) a police officer may be pursuing a motor vehicle even if not travelling at the same speed as the vehicle; and

S. 319AA(2)(c)
amended by
No. 37/2014
s. 10(Sch.
item 36.9).

(d) it is irrelevant that the police pursuit is suspended or terminated before the motor vehicle being pursued stops.

(3) In this section—

direction to stop has the same meaning as it has in section 64A(5) of the Road Safety Act 1986;

motor vehicle does not include a vessel.

Note

The offence of kidnapping at common law is a category 2 offence under the Sentencing Act 1991. See subsection (2H) of section 5 of that Act for the requirement to impose a custodial order for this offence unless the circumstances set out in paragraphs (a) to (e) of that subsection exist.

S. 320A inserted by No. 3/2019 s. 4.

320A Maximum term of imprisonment for common assault in certain circumstances

- (1) Despite section 320, the maximum term of imprisonment for common assault is level 5 imprisonment (10 years maximum) if—
  - (a) at the time of the assault, the person who commits the assault (the offender) has an offensive weapon readily available; and
  - (b) the person assaulted (the victim) is a police officer on duty or a protective services officer on duty; and
  - (c) the offender knows or is reckless as to whether the victim is a police officer or a protective services officer; and

- (d) the offender—
  - (i) enables the victim to see the offensive weapon or the general shape of the offensive weapon; or
  - (ii) tells or suggests to the victim that the offender has an offensive weapon or a firearm readily available; and
- (e) the offender—
  - (i) knows that engaging in conduct referred to in subsection (1)(d) would be likely to arouse apprehension or fear; or
  - (ii) in all the particular circumstances, the person ought to have known that engaging in conduct referred to in subsection (1)(d) would be likely to arouse that apprehension or fear.

Notes

- 1 A common assault referred to in this subsection if committed in certain circumstances is a category 2 offence under the Sentencing Act 1991. See section 5(2H) of that Act for the requirement to impose a custodial order for this offence unless the circumstances set out in paragraphs (a) to (e) of that section exist.
- 2 Section 16(3E) of the Sentencing Act 1991 requires that every term of imprisonment imposed on a person for a common assault at common law if committed in certain circumstances must, unless otherwise directed by the court, be served cumulatively on any uncompleted sentence or sentences of imprisonment imposed on that offender, whether before or at the same time as that term.

- (2) Despite section 320, the maximum term of imprisonment for common assault is level 4 imprisonment (15 years maximum) if—
- (a) at the time of the assault, the person who commits the assault (the offender) has a firearm or an imitation firearm readily available; and
  - (b) the person assaulted (the victim) is a police officer on duty or a protective services officer on duty; and
  - (c) the offender knows or is reckless as to whether the victim is a police officer or a protective services officer; and
  - (d) the offender—
    - (i) enables the victim to see the firearm or the imitation firearm or the general shape of the firearm or the imitation firearm; or
    - (ii) tells or suggests to the victim that the offender has a firearm or an imitation firearm readily available; and
  - (e) the offender—
    - (i) knows that engaging in conduct referred to in subsection (2)(d) would be likely to arouse apprehension or fear; or
    - (ii) in all the particular circumstances, the person ought to have known that engaging in conduct referred to in subsection (2)(d) would be likely to arouse that apprehension or fear.

Notes

- 1 A common assault referred to in this subsection if committed in certain circumstances is a category 2 offence under the Sentencing Act 1991. See section 5(2H) of that Act for the requirement to impose a custodial order for this offence unless the circumstances set out in paragraphs (a) to (c) of that section exist.
  - 2 Section 16(3E) of the Sentencing Act 1991 requires that every term of imprisonment imposed on a person for a common assault at common law if committed in certain circumstances must, unless otherwise directed by the court, be served cumulatively on any uncompleted sentence or sentences of imprisonment imposed on that offender, whether before or at the same time as that term.
- (3) For the purposes of subsections (1) and (2), a person has an offensive weapon, a firearm or an imitation firearm readily available if the offensive weapon, the firearm or the imitation firearm is—
- (a) in the person's hand; or
  - (b) on the person's body; or
  - (c) within the person's reach.
- (4) In this section—
- firearm has the same meaning as it has in the Firearms Act 1996;
- imitation firearm has the same meaning as in section 77(1A);
- offensive weapon means any article (other than a firearm or an imitation firearm) made or adapted for use for causing injury to or incapacitating a person, or which at the time of an assault the person having it with them intends or threatens to use for such a purpose;

police officer on duty means a police officer who is performing any duty or exercising any power as such an officer;

protective services officer on duty means a protective services officer who is performing any duty or exercising any power as such an officer.

321 Conspiracy to commit an offence

S. 321(1)
amended by
No. 32/2024
s. 796.

(1) Subject to this Act, if a person agrees with any other person or persons that a course of conduct shall be pursued which will involve the commission of an offence by one or more of the parties to the agreement, the person is guilty of the indictable offence of conspiracy to commit that offence.

S. 321(2)
amended by
No. 32/2024
s. 796.

(2) For a person to be guilty under subsection (1) of conspiracy to commit a particular offence both the person and at least one other party to the agreement—

- (a) must intend that the offence the subject of the agreement be committed; and
- (b) must intend or believe that any fact or circumstance the existence of which is an element of the offence will exist at the time when the conduct constituting the offence is to take place.

- (3) A person may be guilty under subsection (1) of conspiracy to commit an offence notwithstanding the existence of facts of which the person is unaware which make commission of the offence by the agreed course of conduct impossible.
- (4) An indictment charging an offence against this section must not be filed without the approval of the Director of Public Prosecutions or of a person authorized by the Director of Public Prosecutions to give approval for the purposes of this subsection.

321AA Agreement with child who may not be criminally responsible

S. 321AA
inserted by
No. 32/2024
s. 797.

A person may be found guilty of an offence against section 321 even if—

- (a) the other party to the agreement referred to in that section is a child, or, if there is more than one other party to the agreement, all of the other parties to the agreement are children; and
- (b) under section 10 or 11 of the Youth Justice Act 2024, it is presumed that the child, or those children, cannot commit the offence that is the subject of the agreement.

Notes

- 1 It is conclusively presumed that a child who is under 12 years of age cannot commit an offence—see section 10 of the Youth Justice Act 2024.
- 2 It is presumed that a child who is 12 or 13 years of age cannot commit an offence—see section 11 of the Youth Justice Act 2024.

321A Agreements to commit offences outside Victoria

- (1) The expression the commission of an offence in section 321(1) extends to the commission of an offence against a law in force only in a place outside Victoria if, but only if—
  - (a) the necessary elements of that offence include elements which, if present or occurring in Victoria, would constitute an offence against a law in Victoria; and
  - (b) one or more of the persons referred to in section 321(1) is or are in Victoria when the agreement referred to in that subsection is made.
- (2) Where all parties to an agreement are outside Victoria when it is made, section 321 shall apply in relation to it if, but only if, that agreement is to pursue a course of conduct which, if the agreement is carried out in accordance with their intentions, will necessarily amount to or involve the commission of an offence against a law in force in Victoria.

321D Application of certain provisions

Sections 321(2) and (3) and 321B shall apply, so far as they are capable of doing so and with such changes as are necessary, for the purpose of determining whether a person is guilty of conspiracy under any enactment other than section 321 or of conspiracy to cheat and defraud or of conspiracy to defraud.

S. 321D inserted by No. 10079 s. 7(2).

321E Limitations on prosecution

- (1) Where any enactment prohibits the institution or continuance of proceedings for an offence otherwise than by or with the consent of any person, the prohibition shall apply in relation to proceedings under section 321 for conspiracy to commit that offence.
- (2) Where—
- (a) an indictable offence has been committed in pursuance of an agreement; and
  - (b) proceedings may not be instituted for that offence because a time limit applicable to the institution of such proceedings has expired—
- proceedings under section 321 for conspiracy to commit that offence shall not be instituted against any person on the basis of that agreement.
- (3) A person shall not be liable to be convicted in respect of the same agreement of both—
- (a) conspiracy under section 321; and

S. 321E inserted by No. 10079 s. 7(2).

- (b) conspiracy under any enactment other than section 321 or of conspiracy to cheat and defraud or of conspiracy to defraud.

Division 11—Incitement

S. 321G
inserted by
No. 10079
s. 7(2).

321G Incitement

- (1) Subject to this Act, where a person in Victoria or elsewhere incites any other person to pursue a course of conduct which will involve the commission of an offence by—

- (a) the person incited;
  - (b) the inciter; or
  - (c) both the inciter and the person incited—
if the inciting is acted on in accordance with the inciter's intention, the inciter is guilty of the indictable offence of incitement.
- (2) For a person to be guilty under subsection (1) of incitement the person—
- (a) must intend that the offence the subject of the incitement be committed; and
  - (b) must intend or believe that any fact or circumstance the existence of which is an element of the offence in question will exist at the time when the conduct constituting the offence is to take place.
- (3) A person may be guilty under subsection (1) of incitement notwithstanding the existence of facts of which the person is unaware which make commission of the offence in question by the course of conduct incited impossible.

321GA Incitement of child who may not be criminally responsible

S. 321GA
inserted by
No. 32/2024

(b) if the penalty for the relevant offence is not set out by reference to an expression specified in column 1 of the Table in paragraph (a), to a penalty not exceeding 60% of the maximum penalty fixed or prescribed by law for the relevant offence; or

(c) if the maximum penalty for the relevant offence is not fixed or prescribed by law, to level 6 imprisonment (5 years maximum).

S. 321P(1)(c)
amended by
No. 48/1997
s. 60(1)(Sch. 1
item 94(b)).

(1A) For the avoidance of doubt, it is declared that if a person is convicted of attempting to commit murder or treason, the person is liable to level 2 imprisonment (25 years maximum).

S. 321P(1A)
inserted by
No. 41/1993
s. 24,
amended by
No. 48/1997
s. 60(1)(Sch. 1
item 95(a)(b)).

(2) A person convicted under this Division of attempting to commit an offence for which, under another enactment, a penalty is provided that is lower than that provided under subsection (1), the person is liable only to that lower penalty.

(3) In this section, a reference to a maximum penalty includes, in relation to an offence against the law of a place outside Victoria, a reference to a maximum penalty (not exceeding life imprisonment) fixed or prescribed by a law of that place and, if a maximum penalty so fixed or prescribed exceeds life imprisonment, is a reference to life imprisonment.

321Q Limitations on prosecution

inserted by
No. 10233 s. 4.

(1) Any provision to which this section applies has the same effect with respect to an offence of attempting to commit an offence as it has with respect to the offence attempted.

- (2) This section applies to provisions of any of the following descriptions made by or under any enactment—
- (a) provisions concerning the power to institute proceedings;
  - (b) provisions conferring a power of search in respect of persons or property;
  - (c) provisions conferring a power of seizure or detention of property;
  - (d) provisions whereby a person may not be convicted or committed for trial on the uncorroborated evidence of one witness (including any provision requiring the evidence of not less than two credible witnesses);
  - (e) provisions conferring a power to fine or of forfeiture, including any power to deal with anything liable to be forfeited;
  - (f) provisions concerning the liability of a person for the commission of an offence by a body corporate.
- (3) A person is not liable to be convicted in respect of the same conduct of both—
- (a) an offence under section 321M; and
  - (b) an offence under any other enactment of attempting to commit an offence.

S. 321R
inserted by
No. 10233 s. 4.

321R Application of Division

- (1) This Division applies to and in respect of an offence under any other enactment of attempting to commit an offence.

(2) The preceding provisions of this Division do not apply to an attempt—

(a) to be involved in the commission of an indictable offence; or

S. 321R(2)(a)
substituted by
No. 63/2014
s. 7(6).

(b) to commit the offence of conspiracy whether that offence is a statutory offence or an offence at common law.

321S Abolition of attempt at common law

S. 321S
inserted by
No. 10233 s. 4.

The offence of attempt at common law is abolished.

Pt 1A (Heading and

No. 7884
s. 2(2).

Part IA—Abolition of obsolete offences

S. 322A
inserted by
s. 2(2).

322A Maintenance and certain other offences abolished

Any distinct offences under the common law of maintenance (including champerty but not embracery), or of being a common barrator, a common scold or a common night walker are hereby abolished.

Part IB—Abolition of historical classifications

(Heading and ss 322B– 322F)
inserted by
No. 9576 s. 2.

322B Abolition of distinctions between felony and misdemeanour

S. 322B
inserted by
No. 9576 s. 2.

- (1) All distinctions between felony and misdemeanour are hereby abolished.
- (2) Subject to section 322D, in all matters in which before the commencement of this Part a distinction has been made between felony and misdemeanour (including mode of trial), the law and practice in relation to all indictable offences cognizable under the law of Victoria (including piracy and offences deemed to be piracy) shall be the law and practice applicable immediately before the commencement of this Part in relation to misdemeanour.

322C Nomenclature

inserted by
No. 9576 s. 2.

- (1) Subject to any express amendment or repeal made by the Crimes (Classification of Offences) Act 1981, any enactment passed before the commencement of this Part and creating an offence by directing it to be a felony shall be read as directing it to be an indictable offence.
- (2) Nothing in this Part shall affect the operation of any reference to an indictable offence in the enactments specially relating to that offence by reason only of the reference being in terms no longer applicable after the commencement of this Part.

- (3) Any offence known to the common law as a felony or a misdemeanour shall on and from the commencement of this Part be known as an indictable offence.
- (4) Subject to subsection (1) and to any express amendment or repeal made by the Crimes (Classification of Offences) Act 1981, a reference in any instrument or document whatsoever (including Acts, rules, regulations and other instruments of a legislative character) to—
- (a) a class of felony; or
  - (b) felonies in general—
- shall be read and construed as a reference to that class of serious indictable offence or to serious indictable offences generally, as the case requires; and for the purposes of this subsection the expression serious indictable offence has the same meaning as it has in section 325.
- (5) Where in any Act, rule, regulation or other instrument of a legislative character a provision is expressed to apply to or in relation to indictable offences, the provision shall be read and construed as applying to offences which may be tried on indictment, including offences which may, or may in certain circumstances, also be heard and determined summarily.

amended by
No. 68/2009
s. 97(Sch.
item 40.19).

S. 322D
inserted by
No. 9576 s. 2.

322D Transitional provisions

- (1) This Part, insofar as it affects any matter of procedure or evidence or the jurisdiction or powers of any court in relation to indictable offences, shall have effect in relation to proceedings on indictment or presentment for an offence (except as provided by the following subsections of this section) if, but only if, the person charged with the offence is arraigned after the commencement of this Part.

- (2) Where a person is arraigned after the commencement of this Part on indictment or presentment for a felony committed before that commencement, the offence shall for the purposes of his trial on that indictment or presentment be deemed always to have been a misdemeanour and, notwithstanding that the indictment or presentment is framed for felony, shall be deemed to be charged as a misdemeanour.
- (3) On an indictment or presentment found or made before the commencement of this Part a person may notwithstanding subsection (2) be found guilty of any offence of which he could have been found guilty on the indictment or presentment if the Crimes (Classification of Offences) Act 1981 had not come into operation, but not of any other offence.

322E Treason and misprision of treason not affected

Nothing in this Part shall be taken to affect directly or indirectly any matter of law or practice applicable to treason or misprision of treason.

S. 322E
inserted by
No. 9576 s. 2.

322F Other enactments not affected

This Part shall not affect the operation of any enactment restricting the institution of proceedings for an offence.

Part IC—Self-defence, duress, sudden or extraordinary emergency and intoxication

Division 1—General

S. 322G
inserted by
No. 63/2014
s. 4.

322G Application of Part

This Part applies to any offence, whether against any enactment or at common law.

S. 322H
inserted by
No. 63/2014
s. 4.

322H Definitions

In this Part—

evidence of family violence has the meaning given in section 322J;

really serious injury includes serious sexual assault.

S. 322I
inserted by
No. 63/2014
s. 4.

322I Onus of proof

- (1) The accused has the evidential onus of raising self-defence, duress or sudden or extraordinary emergency by presenting or pointing to evidence that suggests a reasonable possibility of the existence of facts that, if they existed, would establish self-defence, duress or sudden or extraordinary emergency (as the case may be).
- (2) If the accused satisfies the evidential onus referred to in subsection (1), the prosecution has the legal onus of proving beyond reasonable doubt that the accused did not carry out the conduct in self-defence, under duress or in circumstances of sudden or extraordinary emergency (as the case may be).

S. 322J
inserted by
No. 63/2014
s. 4.

322J Evidence of family violence

- (1) Evidence of family violence, in relation to a person, includes evidence of any of the following—

- (a) the history of the relationship between the person and a family member, including violence by the family member towards the person or by the person towards the family member or by the family member or the person in relation to any other family member;
  - (b) the cumulative effect, including psychological effect, on the person or a family member of that violence;
  - (c) social, cultural or economic factors that impact on the person or a family member who has been affected by family violence;
  - (d) the general nature and dynamics of relationships affected by family violence, including the possible consequences of separation from the abuser;
  - (e) the psychological effect of violence on people who are or have been in a relationship affected by family violence;
  - (f) social or economic factors that impact on people who are or have been in a relationship affected by family violence.
- (2) In this section—

child means a person who is under the age of 18 years;

family member, in relation to a person, includes—

- (a) a person who is or has been married to the person; or
- (b) a person who has or has had an intimate personal relationship with the person; or

- (c) a person who is or has been the father, mother, step-father or step-mother of the person; or
- (d) a child who normally or regularly resides with the person; or
- (e) a guardian of the person; or
- (f) another person who is or has been ordinarily a member of the household of the person;

family violence, in relation to a person, means violence against that person by a family member;

violence means—

- (a) physical abuse; or
- (b) sexual abuse; or
- (c) psychological abuse (which need not involve actual or threatened physical or sexual abuse), including but not limited to the following—
  - (i) intimidation;
  - (ii) harassment;
  - (iii) damage to property;
  - (iv) threats of physical abuse, sexual abuse or psychological abuse;
  - (v) in relation to a child—
    - (A) causing or allowing the child to see or hear the physical, sexual or psychological abuse of a person by a family member; or

- (B) putting the child, or allowing the child to be put, at real risk of seeing or hearing that abuse occurring.
- (3) Without limiting the definition of violence in subsection (2)—
- (a) a single act may amount to abuse for the purposes of that definition; and
  - (b) a number of acts that form part of a pattern of behaviour may amount to abuse for that purpose, even though some or all of those acts, when viewed in isolation, may appear to be minor or trivial.

Division 2—Self-defence

322K Self-defence

S. 322K
inserted by
No. 63/2014
s. 4.

- (1) A person is not guilty of an offence if the person carries out the conduct constituting the offence in self-defence.
- (2) A person carries out conduct in self-defence if—
  - (a) the person believes that the conduct is necessary in self-defence; and
  - (b) the conduct is a reasonable response in the circumstances as the person perceives them.
- (3) This section only applies in the case of murder if the person believes that the conduct is necessary to defend the person or another person from the infliction of death or really serious injury.

Notes

- 1 See section 322M as to belief in circumstances where family violence is alleged.
- 2 The circumstances in which a person may carry out conduct in self-defence include—
  - the defence of the person or another person;

- the prevention or termination of the unlawful deprivation of the liberty of the person or another person;
- the protection of property.

S. 322L
inserted by
No. 63/2014
s. 4.

322L Self-defence does not apply to a response to lawful conduct

Section 322K does not apply if—

- (a) the person is responding to lawful conduct;
and
- (b) at the time of the person's response, the person knows that the conduct is lawful.

S. 322M
inserted by
No. 63/2014
s. 4.

322M Family violence and self-defence

- (1) Without limiting section 322K, for the purposes of an offence in circumstances where self-defence in the context of family violence is in issue, a person may believe that the person's conduct is necessary in self-defence, and the conduct may be a reasonable response in the circumstances as the person perceives them, even if—
  - (a) the person is responding to a harm that is not immediate; or
  - (b) the response involves the use of force in excess of the force involved in the harm or threatened harm.
- (2) Without limiting the evidence that may be adduced, in circumstances where self-defence in the context of family violence is in issue, evidence of family violence may be relevant in determining whether—
  - (a) a person has carried out conduct while believing it to be necessary in self-defence;
or
  - (b) the conduct is a reasonable response in the circumstances as a person perceives them.

322N Abolition of self-defence at common law

Self-defence at common law is abolished.

S. 322N
inserted by
No. 63/2014
s. 4.

Division 3—Duress

322O Duress

- (1) A person is not guilty of an offence in respect of conduct carried out by the person under duress.
- (2) A person carries out conduct under duress if—
  - (a) the person reasonably believes that—
    - (i) subject to subsection (3), a threat of harm has been made that will be carried out unless an offence is committed; and
    - (ii) carrying out the conduct is the only reasonable way that the threatened harm can be avoided; and
  - (b) the conduct is a reasonable response to the threat.
- (3) A person does not carry out conduct under duress if the threat is made by or on behalf of a person with whom the person is voluntarily associating for the purpose of carrying out violent conduct.
- (4) This section only applies in the case of murder if the person believes that the threat is to inflict death or really serious injury.

inserted by
No. 63/2014
s. 4.

322P Family violence and duress

Without limiting the evidence that may be adduced, in circumstances where duress in the context of family violence is in issue, evidence of family violence may be relevant in determining whether a person has carried out conduct under duress.

S. 322P
inserted by
No. 63/2014
s. 4.

S. 322Q
inserted by

322Q Abolition of duress at common law

The defence at common law of duress is abolished.

Division 4—Sudden or extraordinary emergency

S. 322R
inserted by
No. 63/2014
s. 4.

322R Sudden or extraordinary emergency

- (1) A person is not guilty of an offence in respect of conduct that is carried out in circumstances of sudden or extraordinary emergency.
- (2) This section applies if—
  - (a) the person reasonably believes that—
    - (i) circumstances of sudden or extraordinary emergency exist; and
    - (ii) the conduct is the only reasonable way to deal with the emergency; and
  - (b) the conduct is a reasonable response to the emergency.
- (3) This section only applies in the case of murder if the person believes that the emergency involves a risk of death or really serious injury.

S. 322S
inserted by
No. 63/2014

322S Abolition of necessity at common law

The defence at common law of necessity is abolished.

Division 5—Intoxication

S. 322T
inserted by
No. 63/2014
s. 4.

322T Intoxication

- (1) In this section—

defence includes self-defence, duress and sudden or extraordinary emergency;

intoxication means intoxication because of the influence of alcohol, a drug or any other substance.

- (2) If any part of a defence to an offence relies on reasonable belief, in determining whether that reasonable belief existed, regard must be had to the standard of a reasonable person who is not intoxicated.
- (3) If any part of a defence to an offence relies on reasonable response, in determining whether that response was reasonable, regard must be had to the standard of a reasonable person who is not intoxicated.
- (4) If a person's intoxication is not self-induced, in determining whether any part of a defence to an offence relying on reasonable belief or reasonable response exists, regard must be had to the standard of a reasonable person intoxicated to the same extent as the person concerned.
- (5) For the purposes of this section, intoxication is self-induced unless it came about—
- (a) involuntarily; or
  - (c) from the use of a drug for which a prescription is required and that was used in accordance with the directions of the person who prescribed it; or
  - *                      *                      *                      *                      *
  - (d) from the use of a drug for which no prescription is required and that was used for a purpose, and in accordance with the dosage level, recommended by the manufacturer.

s. 6.

323 Interpretation

S. 323
substituted by
No. 63/2014
s. 6.

- (1) For the purposes of this Subdivision, a person is involved in the commission of an offence if the person—
- (a) intentionally assists, encourages or directs the commission of the offence; or
  - (b) intentionally assists, encourages or directs the commission of another offence where the person was aware that it was probable that the offence charged would be committed in the course of carrying out the other offence; or
  - (c) enters into an agreement, arrangement or understanding with another person to commit the offence; or
  - (d) enters into an agreement, arrangement or understanding with another person to commit another offence where the person was aware that it was probable that the offence charged would be committed in the course of carrying out the other offence.

- (2) In determining whether a person has encouraged the commission of an offence, it is irrelevant whether or not the person who committed the offence in fact was encouraged to commit the offence.

Note

A person who committed an offence may include 2 or more persons who entered into an agreement, arrangement or understanding to commit the offence.

- (3) A person may be involved in the commission of an offence, by act or omission—
- (a) even if the person is not physically present when the offence, or an element of the offence, is committed; and
  - (b) whether or not the person realises that the facts constitute an offence.

New s. 324
inserted by
No. 63/2014
s. 6.

324 Person involved in commission of offence taken to have committed the offence

- (1) Subject to subsection (3), if an offence (whether indictable or summary) is committed, a person who is involved in the commission of the offence is taken to have committed the offence and is liable to the maximum penalty for that offence.
- (2) Despite subsection (1), a person is not taken to have committed an offence if the person withdraws from the offence.

Note

The common law recognises that in certain circumstances a person may withdraw from an offence in which the person would otherwise be complicit: for example, White v Ridley [1978] HCA 38; (1978) 140 CLR 342; R v Tietie, Tulele and Bolamatu (1988) 34 A Crim R 438; R v Jensen and Ward [1980] VicRp 24; [1980] VR 194.

- (3) Nothing in this section imposes liability on a person for an offence that, as a matter of policy, is intended to benefit or protect that person.

324A Other offenders need not be prosecuted or found guilty

S. 324A
inserted by
No. 63/2014
s. 6.

A person who is involved in the commission of an offence may be found guilty of the offence whether or not any other person is prosecuted for or found guilty of the offence.

324AB Complicity with child who may not be criminally responsible

S. 324AB
inserted by
No. 32/2024
s. 803.

- (1) A person who is involved in the commission of an offence in the circumstances described in section 323(1)(a) or (c) may be found guilty of the offence even if—
- (a) the conduct that constitutes the offence, or an element of the offence, was committed by a child; and
  - (b) under section 10 or 11 of the Youth Justice Act 2024, it is presumed that the child cannot commit that offence.
- (2) A person who is involved in the commission of an offence in the circumstances described in section 323(1)(b) or (d) may be found guilty of the offence even if—
- (a) the conduct that constitutes the other offence, or an element of the other offence, was committed by a child; and
  - (b) under section 10 or 11 of the Youth Justice Act 2024, it is presumed that the child cannot commit that other offence.

- (3) Nothing in this section affects the application of section 10 or 11 of the Youth Justice Act 2024 to a child who is involved in the commission of an offence.

Notes

- 1 It is conclusively presumed that a child who is under 12 years of age cannot commit an offence—see section 10 of the Youth Justice Act 2024.
- 2 It is presumed that a child who is 12 or 13 years of age cannot commit an offence—see section 11 of the Youth Justice Act 2024.

inserted by
No. 63/2014

324B Offender's role need not be determined

A person may be found guilty of an offence by virtue of section 324 if the trier of fact is satisfied that the person is guilty either as the person who committed the offence or as a person involved in the commission of the offence but is unable to determine which applies.

S. 324C
inserted by
No. 63/2014
s. 6.

324C Abolition of certain aspects of complicity at common law

- (1) The law of complicity at common law in relation to aiding, abetting, counselling or procuring the commission of an offence is abolished.
- (2) The doctrines at common law of acting in concert, joint criminal enterprise and common purpose (including extended common purpose) are abolished.

Note

The common law concerning the circumstances in which a person may withdraw from an offence in which the person would otherwise be complicit is not abolished by this section.

326 Concealing offences for benefit

S. 326
substituted by
No. 9576
s. 4(1).

- (1) Where a person has committed a serious indictable offence, any other person who, knowing or believing that the offence, or some other serious indictable offence, has been committed and that he has information which might be of material assistance in securing the prosecution or conviction of an offender for it, accepts any benefit for not disclosing that information shall be guilty of a summary offence and liable to level 8 imprisonment (1 year maximum).
- (2) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in subsection (1), it is no offence against this section to fail to disclose the commission of any offence against—
- (a) Division 2 of Part I; or
  - (b) subdivision (1), (2) or (3) of Division 3 of Part I—

S. 326(1)
amended by

abuse material of a kind described in paragraph (a)(i)(A) of the definition of child abuse material in section 51A(1), where the torture, cruelty or abuse is not sexual; or

Example

An offence committed under Subdivision (8D) of Division 1 of Part I that relates to child abuse material that depicts or describes a child as a victim of sexual abuse.

- (c) an offence committed before 1 July 2017 under Subdivision (8A), (8B), (8C), (8D), (8E) or (8EAA) as then in force; or
  - (d) an attempt to commit an offence referred to in paragraph (a), (b) or (c); or
  - (e) an assault with intent to commit an offence referred to in paragraph (a), (b) or (c).
- (2) Subject to subsections (5) and (7), a person of or over the age of 18 years (whether in Victoria or elsewhere) who has information that leads the person to form a reasonable belief that a sexual offence has been committed in Victoria against a child under the age of 16 years by another person of or over the age of 18 years must disclose that information to a police officer as soon as it is practicable to do so, unless the person has a reasonable excuse for not doing so.

amended by
No. 36/2014
s. 7(1)(a).

Penalty: 3 years imprisonment.

- (3) For the purposes of subsection (2) and without limiting that subsection, a person has a reasonable excuse for failing to comply with that subsection if—
- (a) the person fears on reasonable grounds for the safety of any person (other than the person reasonably believed to have committed, or to have been involved in, the sexual offence) were the person to disclose the information to police (irrespective of whether the fear arises because of the fact of disclosure or the information disclosed) and the failure to disclose the information to police is a reasonable response in the circumstances; or
  - (b) the person believes on reasonable grounds that the information has already been disclosed to police by another person and the firstmentioned person has no further information.

Example

A person may believe on reasonable grounds that the information has already been disclosed to police by another person if the person has made a report disclosing all of the information in his or her possession in compliance with mandatory reporting obligations under the Children, Youth and Families Act 2005.

- (4) For the purposes of subsection (2) and without limiting that subsection, a person does not have a reasonable excuse for failing to comply with that subsection only because the person is concerned for the perceived interests of—
- (a) the person reasonably believed to have committed, or to have been involved in, the sexual offence; or
  - (b) any organisation.

- (5) A person does not contravene subsection (2) if—
- (a) the information forming the basis of the person's belief that a sexual offence has been committed came from the victim of the alleged offence, whether directly or indirectly; and
  - (b) the victim was of or over the age of 16 years at the time of providing that information to any person; and
  - (c) the victim requested that the information not be disclosed.
- (6) Subsection (5) does not apply if—
- (a) at the time of providing the information, the victim of the alleged sexual offence—
    - (i) has an intellectual disability (within the meaning of the Disability Act 2006); and
    - (ii) does not have the capacity to make an informed decision about whether or not the information should be disclosed; and
  - (b) the person to whom the information is provided is aware, or ought reasonably to have been aware, of those facts.
- (7) A person does not contravene subsection (2) if—
- (a) the person comes into possession of the information referred to in subsection (2) when a child; or
  - (b) the information referred to in subsection (2) would be privileged under Part 3.10 (other than section 127) of Chapter 3 of the Evidence Act 2008; or

328 Protection of those who disclose under section 327

A disclosure made under section 327(2) in good faith—

- (a) does not for any purpose constitute unprofessional conduct or a breach of professional ethics on the part of the person by whom it is made; and

- (b) does not make the person by whom it is made subject to any liability in respect of it; and
- (c) without limiting paragraphs (a) and (b), does not constitute a contravention of—
  - (i) section 141 of the Health Services Act 1988; or
  - (ii) section 730 of the Mental Health and Wellbeing Act 2022.

inserted by
No. 36/2014
s. 4.

- (1) In any legal proceeding evidence may be given as to the information contained in a disclosure under section 327(2).
- (2) However in a legal proceeding evidence that a particular matter is contained in information disclosed under section 327(2) or evidence that identifies the person who made that disclosure, or is likely to lead to the identification of that person is only admissible in the proceeding if—
  - (a) the court or tribunal grants leave for the evidence to be given; or
  - (b) the person who made the disclosure consents in writing to the admission of that evidence.
- (3) A witness appearing in a legal proceeding must not be asked and, if asked, is entitled to refuse to answer—
  - (a) any question to which the answer would or might identify the person who made a disclosure under section 327(2) or would or might lead to the identification of that person; or

- (b) any question as to whether a particular matter is contained in information disclosed under section 327(2)— unless the court or tribunal grants leave for the question to be asked or the person who made the disclosure has consented in writing to the question being asked.

- (4) A court or tribunal may only grant leave under subsection (2) or (3) if it is satisfied that the interests of justice require that the evidence be given.

New s. 336
inserted by
No. 9073
s. 2(b).

336 Marital coercion

S. 336(2)
amended by
No. 77/2005
s. 9.

- (1) Any presumption that an offence committed by a wife in the presence of her husband is committed under his coercion is hereby abolished.
- (2) Where a woman is charged with an offence other than treason or murder, that woman shall have a complete defence to such charge if her action or inaction (as the case may be) was due to coercion by a man to whom she was then married.
- (3) For the purposes of this section coercion means pressure, whether in the form of threats or in any other form, sufficient to cause a woman of ordinary good character and normal firmness of mind, placed in the circumstances in which the woman was placed, to conduct herself in the manner charged.
- (4) Without limiting the generality of the expression "the circumstances in which the woman was placed" in subsection (3), such circumstances shall include the degree of dependence, whether economic or otherwise, of the woman on her husband.

- (5) The accused shall bear the burden of adducing evidence that she conducted herself in the manner charged because she was coerced by her husband, but if such evidence has been adduced, the prosecution shall bear the burden of proving that the action or inaction charged was not due to coercion by the husband.
- (6) This section shall operate in substitution for the common law as to any presumption or defence of marital coercion.
- (7) This section shall not affect the law relating to the defence of duress.

337 Misprision

A married person shall not become guilty of misprision by concealing or failing to disclose the commission of an indictable offence by his or her spouse, or by the spouse and another party or parties, nor by concealing or failing to disclose facts which might lead to the apprehension of the spouse, or the spouse and such other or others, in respect of the offence.

New s. 337
inserted by
No. 9073
s. 2(b).

338 Accessory after the fact

A married person shall not become an accessory to any indictable offence by receiving, relieving, comforting or assisting his or her spouse, or the spouse and another person or persons, though with knowledge that the spouse, whether alone or with the other person or persons, has committed an offence and though the purpose of what is done is to enable the spouse, or the spouse and the other person or persons, to escape being apprehended, tried or punished.

inserted by
No. 70/1987
s. 4.

(1) The Minister may enter into arrangements with a Minister to whom the administration of a corresponding law is committed under which—

(a) objects seized under this Part that may be relevant to the investigation of an offence against the law of the State, or Territory in which the corresponding law is in force—

- (i) are to be transmitted to the appropriate authority in that State or Territory for the purposes of investigation of, or proceedings in respect of, that offence; and
  - (ii) when no longer required for the purpose of any such investigation or proceedings, are (unless disposed of by order or direction of a court) to be returned to the Chief Commissioner of Police for Victoria; and
- (b) objects seized under the corresponding law that may be relevant to the investigation of an offence against the law of Victoria—
  - (i) are to be transmitted to the Chief Commissioner of Police of Victoria; and
  - (ii) when no longer required for the purposes of investigation of an offence, or proceedings in respect of an offence, are (unless disposed of by order or direction of a court) to be returned to the appropriate authority in the State or Territory in which they were seized.
- (2) The owner of an object returned to the Chief Commissioner of Police in pursuance of arrangements under subsection (1) is entitled to the return of the objects.
- (3) The right referred to in subsection (2) is enforceable by action in detinue in a court of competent jurisdiction.

462 Definition of *finds committing

S. 462
substituted by
No. 8247 s. 2.

In this Act the expression finds committing and any derivative thereof extends to the case of a person found doing any act or so behaving or conducting himself or in such circumstances that the person finding him believes on reasonable grounds that the person so found is guilty of an offence.

462A Use of force to prevent the commission of an indictable offence

inserted by
No. 9576
s. 7(b).

A person may use such force not disproportionate to the objective as he believes on reasonable grounds to be necessary to prevent the commission, continuance or completion of an indictable offence or to effect or assist in effecting the lawful arrest of a person committing or suspected of committing any offence.

Example

Example to
s. 462A
inserted by
No. 32/2018
s. 131.

A police officer or protective services officer uses lethal force on a person to prevent that person from committing an indictable offence that involves causing really serious injury or death because the officer believes on reasonable grounds that it is necessary to use that force for that purpose. The police officer or protective services officer may do so before that offence is committed.

(2) If a person suspected of having committed an offence is in custody for that offence, an investigating official may, within the reasonable time referred to in subsection (1)—

(a) inform the person of the circumstances of that offence; and

(b) question the person or carry out investigations in which the person participates in order to determine the involvement (if any) of the person in that offence.

(3) Before any questioning (other than a request for the person's name and address) or investigation under subsection (2) commences, an investigating official must inform the person in custody that he or she does not have to say or do anything but that anything the person does say or do may be given in evidence.

S. 464A(4)(a)
amended by
No. 57/1989
s. 5(1)(a)(ii).

- (b) the number and complexity of offences to be investigated;
- (c) any need of the investigating official to read and collate relevant material or to take any other steps that are reasonably necessary by way of preparation for the questioning or investigation;
- (d) any need to transport the person from the place of apprehension to a place where facilities are available to conduct an interview or investigation;
- (e) the number of other people who need to be questioned during the period of custody in respect of the offence for which the person is in custody;
- (f) any need to visit the place where the offence is believed to have been committed or any other place reasonably connected with the investigation of the offence;
- (g) any time taken to communicate with a legal practitioner, friend, relative, parent, guardian or independent person;
- (h) any time taken by a legal practitioner, interpreter, parent, guardian or independent person to arrive at the place where questioning or investigation is to take place;
- (i) any time during which the questioning or investigation of the person is suspended or delayed to allow the person to receive medical attention;
- (j) any time during which the questioning or investigation of the person is suspended or delayed to allow the person to rest;

- (k) the total period of time during which the person has been in the company of an investigating official before and after the commencement of custody;
- (l) any other matters reasonably connected with the investigation of the offence.

(5A) In determining what constitutes a reasonable period for the purposes of an order under subsection (5), the Magistrates' Court or the Children's Court (as the case may be) must have regard to—

- (a) the matters specified in section 464A(4), with any necessary modifications; and
- (b) if the person is a child, his or her age.

- (a) must include in that order a condition that—
    - (i) subject to subsection (5F), an independent person is to be present while any questioning or investigation takes place in accordance with the order; and
    - (ii) before the commencement of any questioning or investigation, the investigating official must allow the person to communicate with the independent person in circumstances in which as far as practicable the communication will not be overheard; and
  - (b) may include in that order any other condition that it thinks fit in the interests of the well-being of the person during any questioning or investigation.

- (5G) On making an order under subsection (5), the Magistrates' Court or the Children's Court (as the case may be) must inform the person who is the subject of the order—
- (a) that he or she does not have to say or do anything but that anything he or she does say or do may be given in evidence; and
- (b) that the investigating official must give him or her the information required to be given by subsection (6) and section 464C(1); and
- (c) if the person was held in a prison or police gaol at the time of the application, that the making of the order does not prevent a senior police officer from authorising the conduct of a non-intimate compulsory procedure on the person under section 464SA.
- (5H) An audiovisual recording must be made of the following—
- (a) the giving of any information required to be given by subsection (6) and section 464C(1);
- (b) any response of the person in custody to the giving of that information;
- (c) any questioning that takes place in accordance with an order made under subsection (5) and anything said by the person questioned.
- (6) If an order is made under subsection (5), before any questioning or investigation commences, an investigating official must inform the person who is the subject of the order that he or she does not have to say or do anything but that anything the person does say or do may be given in evidence.

(a) the matters specified in section 464A(4), with any necessary modifications; and

(b) if the person is a child, his or her age.

(9) At—

(a) the end of the period, or any extended period, specified in an order under subsection (5); or

(b) the cessation of questioning or investigation—

whichever is the earlier, the investigating official must deliver the person who is the subject of the order to the place of detention at which the person was held or detained at the time of the application for the order.

(16) An investigating official may remove a person being held in a police gaol for the purpose of questioning under subsection (11) if—

(a) the police gaol is located in the same building as a police station; and

(b) the person is to be removed to a room in the police station; and

(c) the person is not to be taken outside the building; and

(d) the person consents to being removed to a room in the police station; and

- (e) the officer in charge of the police gaol gives approval under subsection (17).
- (17) An officer in charge of a police gaol may approve the removal of a person to a room in a police station under subsection (16) if satisfied that the use of the room—
- (a) is in the best interests of the person to be questioned, having regard to privacy and confidentiality; or
- (b) enables an audiovisual recording required by subsection (15) to be made; or
- (c) for any other reason is preferable to conducting the questioning in the police gaol.
- (18) A person removed under subsection (16) from a police gaol to a room in a police station is in the custody of the investigating official.
- (19) The removal of a person from a police gaol to another part of the same building under subsection (16) has effect as a suspension of a direction in a warrant of commitment to deliver the person to the place of detention specified in the warrant or to hold the person in that place.
- (20) At the cessation of questioning, the investigating official must deliver the person to the police gaol from which the person was removed.

and, unless the investigating official believes on reasonable grounds that—

- (c) the communication would result in the escape of an accomplice or the fabrication or destruction of evidence; or
- (d) the questioning or investigation is so urgent, having regard to the safety of other people, that it should not be delayed—the investigating official must defer the questioning and investigation for a time that is reasonable in the circumstances to enable the person to make, or attempt to make, the communication.

- (2) Subject to subsection (1), if a person wishes to communicate with a friend, relative or legal practitioner, the investigating official in whose custody the person then is—
- (a) must afford the person reasonable facilities as soon as practicable to enable the person to do so; and

- (b) must allow the person's legal practitioner or a clerk of the legal practitioner to communicate with the person in custody in circumstances in which as far as practicable the communication will not be overheard.
- (3) This section also applies to any questioning or investigation in accordance with an order made under section 464B(5) or any questioning conducted by consent under section 464B(11), unless Part IC of the Crimes Act 1914 of the Commonwealth applies.

464E Persons under 18 years

- (1) If a person in custody is under the age of 18 years, an investigating official must not, subject to subsection (2), question or carry out an investigation under section 464A(2) unless—
  - (a) a parent or guardian of the person in custody or, if a parent or guardian is not available, an independent person is present; and
  - (b) before the commencement of any questioning or investigation, the investigating official has allowed the person in custody to communicate with his or her parent or guardian or the independent person in circumstances in which as far as practicable the communication will not be overheard.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply if the investigating official believes on reasonable grounds that—
  - (a) the communication necessary to give effect to subsection (1)(a) would result in the escape of an accomplice or the fabrication or destruction of evidence; or
  - (b) the questioning or investigation is so urgent, having regard to the safety of other people, that it should not be delayed.
- (3) This section also applies to any questioning or investigation in accordance with an order made under section 464B(5).

- (1) If a person in custody is not a citizen or permanent resident of Australia, the investigating official in whose custody the person then is must, before any questioning or investigation under section 464A(2) commences, inform the person in custody that he or she may communicate with or attempt to communicate with the consular office of the country of which the person is a citizen and, unless the investigating official believes on reasonable grounds that—

- (a) the communication would result in the escape of an accomplice or the fabrication or destruction of evidence; or the investigating official must defer the questioning or investigation for a time that is reasonable in the circumstances to enable the person to make, or attempt to make, the communication.
- (b) the questioning or investigation is so urgent, having regard to the safety of other people, that it should not be delayed—

- (2) Subject to subsection (1), if a person referred to in that subsection wishes to communicate with the consular office of the country of which he or she is a citizen, the investigating official in whose custody the person then is must afford the person reasonable facilities as soon as practicable to enable the person to do so.

464K Fingerprinting of adults and children aged 15 or above

amended by
No. 37/2014
s. 10(Sch.
item 36.22(a)).

- (1) A police officer may take, or cause to be taken by an authorised person, the fingerprints of a person of or above the age of 15 years who—
- (a) is believed on reasonable grounds to have committed; or
  - (b) has been charged with; or
  - (c) has been summonsed to answer to a charge for—an indictable offence or a summary offence referred to in Schedule 7.

- (2) A police officer intending to fingerprint a person under this section must inform the person in language likely to be understood by him or her—
- (a) of the purpose for which the fingerprints are required; and
  - (b) of the offence which the person is believed to have committed or with which the person has been charged or for which the person has been summonsed to answer to a charge; and
  - (c) that the fingerprints may be used in evidence in court; and
  - (d) that if the person refuses to give his or her fingerprints voluntarily, a police officer may use reasonable force to obtain them; and
  - (e) that if the person is not charged with a relevant offence within 6 months or is so charged but the charge is not proceeded with or the person is not found guilty of the offence or any other relevant offence before the end of that period, the fingerprints will be destroyed; and
  - (f) that if the person is or has been fingerprinted under this Subdivision on another occasion, section 464O(3A) may apply to the collective destruction of the person's fingerprints; and
  - (g) that the fingerprints may not be destroyed if the person dies before the fingerprints are required to be destroyed; and
  - (h) that the fingerprints may be used for the purposes specified in section 464NB.
- S. 464K(2) amended by No. 37/2014 s. 10(Sch. item 36.22(a)).
- S. 464K(2)(d) amended by No. 37/2014 s. 10(Sch. item 36.22(a)).

amended by
No. 37/2014
s. 10(Sch.
item 36.22(a)).

- (3) Subject to subsection (4), the police officer who informs a person of the matters in subsection (2) must—

S. 464K(3)(a)
substituted by
No. 27/2006
s. 17(9).

- (a) record (whether by audio recording or audiovisual recording); or
(b) record in writing signed by the person—the giving of that information and the person's responses, if any.

S. 464K(4)
amended by
No. 27/2006
s. 17(10).

- (4) If a person is in custody within the meaning of this Subdivision in relation to an indictable offence, the giving of the information under subsection (2) and the person's responses, if any, must be recorded by audio recording or audiovisual recording.

S. 464K(5)
amended by Nos 27/2006
s. 17(11)(a), 37/2014
s. 10(Sch.
item 36.22(a)).

- (5) If information and a person's responses are recorded by audio recording or audiovisual recording in accordance with this section, the police officer giving the information must give or send by post to the person or his or her legal practitioner without charge—

S. 464K(5)(a)
amended by
No. 27/2006
s. 17(11)(b).

- (a) the recording (whether audio recording or audiovisual recording) or a copy of it within 7 days; and

S. 464K(5)(b)
amended by
No. 27/2006
s. 17(11)(c).

- (b) if a transcript of the recording is prepared, a copy of the transcript as soon as practicable.

S. 464K(6)
amended by
No. 37/2014
s. 10(Sch.
item 36.22(b)).

- (6) If information and a person's responses are recorded in writing in accordance with this section, the police officer requesting the person's fingerprints must give to the person, or cause the person to be given, a copy of the signed record forthwith.

- (7) A police officer may use reasonable force to take the fingerprints of a person referred to in subsection (1) who refuses to give them voluntarily if the use of reasonable force is authorised by a police officer in charge of a police station at the time of the request or a police officer of or above the rank of sergeant. S. 464K(7) amended by No. 37/2014 s. 10(Sch. item 36.22(c)).
- (8) If the person from whom fingerprints are required is a child aged 15, 16 or 17 years— S. 464K(8) amended by No. 72/2004 s. 28.
- (a) a parent or guardian of the child or, if a parent or guardian cannot be located, an independent person must be present during the request for the fingerprints, the giving of the information referred to in subsection (2) and the taking of the fingerprints; and
- (b) if the use of reasonable force has been authorised in accordance with subsection (7), the taking of the fingerprints must be recorded by audiovisual recording, if practicable, or by audio recording. S. 464K(8)(b) amended by No. 27/2006 s. 17(12).

464L Fingerprinting of children aged 14 or under

S. 464L inserted by No. 38/1988 s. 4, amended by No. 23/1991 s. 5(a)(b), substituted by No. 129/1993 s. 7.

- (1) A police officer must not do any of the following in respect of a child who was under 12 years of age at the time that the child is alleged to have done any act or made any omission which would constitute an offence if the child had been of the age of criminal responsibility— S. 464L(1) substituted by No. 32/2024 s. 805(1).
- (a) request the child to give the child's fingerprints;
- (b) take fingerprints from the child;

- (c) cause any other person to take fingerprints from the child.

Note

It is conclusively presumed that a child who is under 12 years of age cannot commit an offence—see section 10 of the Youth Justice Act 2024.

- (a) be requested to give his or her fingerprints;
or
- (b) have his or her fingerprints taken.

amended by
Nos 37/2014
s. 10(Sch.
item 36.23(a)), 32/2024
s. 805(2).

- (2) A police officer may take, or cause to be taken by an authorised person, the fingerprints of a child who is 12 years of age or over but under 15 years of age and who—

- (a) is believed on reasonable grounds to have committed; or
- (b) has been charged with; or
- (c) has been summonsed to answer to a charge for—an indictable offence or a summary offence referred to in Schedule 7 if—

- (d) both the child and a parent or guardian of the child consent; or
- (e) where consent is refused or the parent or guardian cannot be located, the Children's Court makes an order under section 464M(5).

amended by
No. 37/2014
s. 10(Sch.
item 36.23(a)).

- (3) A police officer wishing to fingerprint a child referred to in subsection (2) must inform the child and the parent or guardian of the child in language likely to be understood by each of them—

- (a) of the purpose for which the fingerprints are required; and

- (b) of the offence which the child is believed to have committed or with which the child has been charged or for which the child has been summonsed to answer to a charge; and
- (c) that the fingerprints may be used in evidence in court; and
- (d) that the child, or the child's parent or guardian, may refuse consent to the child's fingerprints being taken; and S. 464L(3)(d) amended by No. 44/2022 s. 81(1).
- (e) that if consent is refused, an application may be made to the Children's Court for an order directing the child to give the child's fingerprints; and S. 464L(3)(e) amended by No. 32/2024 s. 805(3).
- (f) that if the child is not charged with a relevant offence within 6 months or is so charged but the charge is not proceeded with or the child is not found guilty of the offence or any other relevant offence before the end of that period, the fingerprints will be destroyed; and S. 464L(3)(f) amended by No. 44/2022 s. 81(2).
- (g) that if the child is or has been fingerprinted under this Subdivision on another occasion, section 464O(3A) may apply to the collective destruction of the child's fingerprints; and S. 464L(3)(g) inserted by No. 44/2022 s. 81(3).
- (h) that the fingerprints may not be destroyed if the child dies before the fingerprints are required to be destroyed; and S. 464L(3)(h) inserted by No. 44/2022 s. 81(3).
- (i) that the fingerprints may be used for the purposes specified in section 464NB. S. 464L(3)(i) inserted by No. 44/2022 s. 81(3).

S. 464L(5)
amended by
No. 37/2014
s. 10(Sch.
item 36.23(a)).

(4) A parent or guardian of a child must be present during the request for the fingerprints under this section, the giving of the information referred to in subsection (3) and the taking of the fingerprints with consent.

(5) Subject to subsection (6), the police officer who informs a child of the matters in subsection (3) must—

S. 464L(5)(a)
substituted by
No. 27/2006
s. 17(13).

(a) record by audio recording or audiovisual recording; or

(b) record in writing signed by the child and the parent or guardian present—the giving of that information and the responses, if any, of the child and the parent or guardian.

S. 464L(6)
amended by
No. 27/2006
s. 17(14).

(6) If a child is in custody within the meaning of this Subdivision in relation to an indictable offence, the giving of the information under subsection (3) and the responses, if any, of the child and the parent or guardian must be recorded by audio recording or audiovisual recording.

S. 464L(7)
amended by Nos 27/2006

item 36.23(a)), 32/2024
s. 805(3).

(7) If information and the responses of the child and parent or guardian are recorded by audio recording or audiovisual recording, the police officer giving the information must give or send by post to the child or the child's legal practitioner without charge—

S. 464L(7)(a)
amended by
No. 27/2006
s. 17(15)(b).

(a) the recording (whether audio recording or audiovisual recording) or a copy of it within 7 days; and

S. 464L(7)(b)
amended by
No. 27/2006
s. 17(15)(c).

(b) if a transcript of the recording is prepared, a copy of the transcript as soon as practicable.

- (8) If information and the responses of the child and parent or guardian are recorded in writing, the police officer requesting the child's fingerprints must give to the child, or cause the child to be given, a copy of the signed record forthwith.

s. 6(1),
substituted by
No. 129/1993
s. 7.

- (1) If a child referred to in section 464L(2) or the child's parent or guardian refuses to consent to the taking of the child's fingerprints or the parent or guardian cannot be located, a police officer may apply to the Children's Court for an order under subsection (5).

S. 464M(1)
amended by Nos 37/2014
s. 10(Sch.
item 36.24), 32/2024
s. 806(1).

- (2) An application under subsection (1)—

- (a) must be in writing supported by evidence on oath or by affirmation or by affidavit; and

S. 464M(2)(a)
amended by
No. 6/2018
s. 68(Sch. 2
item 35.3).

- (b) if the child is held in a police gaol or is detained in a youth residential centre, must state that fact.

- (3) Notice of an application under subsection (1) must be served on—

- (a) a parent or guardian of the child; and
(b) if the child is not in custody within the meaning of this Subdivision, the child.

S. 464M(5)
amended by
No. 32/2024
s. 806(2).

- (4) The court may dispense with the requirement of subsection (3)(a) if satisfied that it is impracticable for the applicant to comply.
- (5) The Children's Court may make an order directing a child who is 12 years of age or over but under 15 years of age to give the child's fingerprints if satisfied on the balance of probabilities that—
  - (a) there are reasonable grounds to believe that the child has committed an indictable offence or a summary offence referred to in Schedule 7; and
  - (b) in all the circumstances the making of the order is justified.
- (6) In considering whether the making of the order is justified, the court must take into account amongst other things—
  - (a) the seriousness of the circumstances surrounding the commission of the offence; and
  - (b) the alleged degree of participation by the child in the commission of the offence; and
  - (c) the age of the child.
- (7) A child in respect of whom an application under subsection (1) is made—
  - (a) is not a party to the application; and
  - (b) may not call or cross-examine any witnesses; and
  - (c) may not address the court, other than in respect of any matter referred to in subsection (5)(a) or (b) or subsection (6).
- (8) In exercising the right of address under subsection (7)(c), a child may be represented by a legal practitioner or, with the leave of the court, a parent or guardian of the child.

S. 464M(8)
amended by
No. 35/1996
s. 453(Sch. 1
item 16.17).

- (9) If the court makes an order under subsection (5)—
- (a) a parent or guardian of the child or, if a parent or guardian cannot be located, an independent person must be present during the taking of the child's fingerprints; and
  - (b) a police officer may use reasonable force to take the fingerprints; and S. 464M(9)(b) amended by No. 37/2014 s. 10(Sch. item 36.24).
  - (c) the taking of the fingerprints must be recorded by audiovisual recording, if practicable, or otherwise by audio recording. S. 464M(9)(c) amended by No. 27/2006 s. 17(16).
- (10) After an order under subsection (5) is executed—
- (a) the independent person, if any, who witnessed the taking of the fingerprints must endorse on the order the independent person's name and sign the endorsement; and S. 464M(10)(a) amended by No. 32/2024 s. 806(3).
  - (b) the person who took the fingerprints must endorse on the order the name of the person, if any, who made the audiovisual recording of the taking of the fingerprints; and S. 464M(10)(b) amended by No. 27/2006 s. 17(17).
  - (c) the person who took the fingerprints must give a copy of the order so endorsed to the child.
- (11) The endorsements required by subsection (10) to be made on an order under subsection (5) may be made on a copy of the order transmitted by facsimile machine.
- (12) If the Children's Court makes an order under subsection (5), it may issue a warrant authorising the person to whom it is directed—
- (a) to break, enter and search, if necessary, any place where the child named or described in the warrant is suspected to be; and

- (b) to arrest the child named or described in the warrant; and
  - (c) to take the child without delay to the nearest accessible police station for fingerprinting.
- (13) If the Children's Court makes an order under subsection (5) or issues a warrant under subsection (12), it must—
  - (a) give reasons for its decision; and
  - (b) cause a note of the reasons to be entered in the records of the court.
- (14) The failure of the court to comply with subsection (13) does not invalidate any order made by it but constitutes non-compliance for the purposes of section 464Q(1)(a).
- (15) If a child is apprehended under a warrant issued under subsection (12), the warrant ceases to have effect immediately after the child's fingerprints have been taken.
- (16) If the Children's Court makes an order under subsection (5) in respect of a child who is held in a prison, police gaol, youth justice centre or youth residential centre, the court must also order that the officer in charge of the place at which the child is held must take the fingerprints of the child or cause them to be taken and must deliver the fingerprints to the applicant within a period of time specified in the order.

464O Destruction of records

(1) In this section—

S. 464O(1)
def. of
destroy
inserted by
No. 35/2002
s. 4.

destroy, in relation to a fingerscan, means permanently de-identify information—

- (a) which identifies the person from whom the fingerscan was taken; or
- (b) from which the person's identity may be ascertained;

S. 464O(1)
def. of fingerprints
inserted by
No. 35/2002
s. 4,
amended by
No. 41/2004
s. 6.

fingerprints includes fingerscan taken under section 464NA or any other provision of this Subdivision;

relevant offence means—

- (a) the offence in respect of which the fingerprints were taken; or
- (b) any other offence arising out of the same circumstances; or
- (c) any other offence in respect of which the fingerprints have probative value.

(2) If a person has been fingerprinted in accordance with this Subdivision and—

S. 464O(2)
amended by
No. 44/2022
s. 83(1).

- (a) the person has not been charged with a relevant offence at the end of the period of 6 months after the taking of the fingerprints; or
- (b) the person has been so charged but the charge is not proceeded with or the person is not found guilty of the offence or any other relevant offence, whether on appeal or otherwise, before the end of that period—

the Chief Commissioner of Police must, subject to subsections (4) and (5A), destroy the fingerprints and any record, copy or photograph of them, or cause them to be destroyed at the time specified in subsection (3).

(3) For the purposes of subsection (2), fingerprints taken in accordance with this Subdivision and any record, copy or photograph of them must be destroyed—

- (a) where the person has not been so charged or the charge is not proceeded with, within one month after the period referred to in subsection (2)(a); or
- (b) where the person is not found guilty, within one month after the conclusion of the proceedings and the end of any appeal period.

S. 464O(3)(b)
amended by
s. 70(1).

(3A) Despite subsection (3), if a person has been fingerprinted in accordance with this Subdivision on more than one occasion, those fingerprints and each record, copy or photograph of the fingerprints must be collectively destroyed within one month of the date on which the person satisfies the criteria under subsection (2) in relation to all of those fingerprints.

S. 464O(4)
amended by
No. 37/2014
item 36.26).

(4) A police officer may, within the period referred to in subsection (3)(a) or (b) and on one occasion only, apply without notice to any other person to the Magistrates' Court or the Children's Court (as the case requires) for an order extending the period by not more than 6 months within which the fingerprints and any record, copy or photograph of them must be destroyed.

(5) If a court makes an order under subsection (4), it must cause a copy of the order to be served on the person from whom the fingerprints were taken.

S. 464O(5A)
inserted by
No. 44/2022
s. 83(4).

(5A) The Chief Commissioner of Police is not required to destroy or cause to be destroyed a person's fingerprints taken in accordance with this Subdivision or any record, copy or photograph of the fingerprints if—

(a) the person has had their fingerprints taken in accordance with this Subdivision on another occasion and those other fingerprints are not required to be destroyed under this section;
or

(b) the person to whom the fingerprints belong has died.

(6) If fingerprints or any record, copy or photograph of them are destroyed in accordance with this section, the Chief Commissioner of Police must give notice within 14 days of the destruction to the person from whom the fingerprints were taken.

(7) A person who—

(a) fails to destroy; or

(b) uses or makes, or causes or permits to be used or made—any record, copy or photograph of fingerprints required by this section to be destroyed is guilty of a summary offence punishable on conviction by a level 10 fine (10 penalty units maximum).

(1) Subject to subsection (2), if—

(a) a person is fingerprinted as a child in accordance with this Subdivision, whether before or after the commencement of section 7 of the Crimes (Amendment) Act 1993; and

(b) the fingerprints are not required to be destroyed under this Subdivision; and

(c) the person is not found guilty of any further offence before attaining the age of 26 years; and

- (d) in the case of fingerprints taken before the commencement of section 7 of that Act, a request has been made to the Chief Commissioner of Police for their destruction—

the Chief Commissioner must without delay destroy the fingerprints and any record, copy or photograph of them, or cause them to be destroyed.

464Q Evidence of fingerprints

- (1) Evidence in respect of fingerprints taken from a person is inadmissible as part of the prosecution case in proceedings against that person for an offence if—
- (a) the requirements of sections 464K to 464N have not been complied with; or
- (b) the fingerprints or any record, copy or photograph of them should have been but have not been destroyed as required by section 464O or 464P.

- (2) A court may admit evidence in respect of fingerprints otherwise inadmissible by reason of subsection (1)(a) if—
- (a) the prosecution satisfies the court on the balance of probabilities that the circumstances are exceptional and justify the reception of the evidence; or
  - (b) the accused consents to the reception of the evidence.
- (3) For the purposes of subsection (2)(a), the probative value of the fingerprints is not to be regarded as an exceptional circumstance.

    - (ii) a prisoner in a prison or a person detained in a police gaol who is transferred from the prison or police gaol to a facility or an institution referred to in section 56AB(1) of the Corrections Act 1986; and

- (b) within 24 hours after the giving of the information referred to in subsection (1) the person refuses or fails to consent to the request to undergo a forensic procedure.

464SA Senior police officer may authorise non-intimate compulsory procedure for certain adults

S. 464SA
inserted by
No. 41/2004
s. 12.

- (1) In this section and section 464SB, non-intimate compulsory procedure means the taking of a non-intimate sample or the conduct of a physical examination of a non-intimate part of the body.
- (2) A senior police officer who is not involved in investigating the offence for which the compulsory procedure is required may authorise the conduct of a non-intimate compulsory procedure on a person if the senior police officer is satisfied that—
- (a) the person is a relevant suspect who is—
- (i) under lawful arrest by warrant; or
- (ii) under lawful arrest under section 458 or 459 or a provision of any other Act; or
- (iii) in the custody of an investigating official in accordance with an order of the Magistrates' Court under section 464B(5) and, at the time of the application for that order, the person was held in a prison or police gaol; and
- (b) the person is not under the age of 18 years; and
- (c) the person is not incapable of giving informed consent by reason of mental impairment; and

S. 464SA(2)(b)
amended by
No. 72/2004
s. 29.

- (d) the person has refused to give consent to a request under section 464R(1); and
  - (e) there are reasonable grounds to believe that the person has committed the offence in respect of which the authorisation is sought; and
  - (f) the requirements of section 464T(3)(c), (d), (e) and (f) are met; and
  - (g) in all the circumstances, the giving of the authorisation is justified.
- (3) A senior police officer must not give an authorisation for a compulsory procedure on a person if—
- (a) an application to a court for an order under this Subdivision in respect of that person has been made in relation to the same matter and on the same grounds but has been refused; or
  - (b) a previous application for an authorisation under this section in respect of that person has been considered in relation to the same matter and on the same grounds but has not been given.
- (4) An authorisation given in contravention of subsection (3) is void.
- (5) Nothing in subsection (3) prevents a later application for an order under this Subdivision or an authorisation under this section on different or further grounds.
- (6) An authorisation under this section may only be given to a police officer.

amended by
No. 37/2014
s. 10(Sch.
item 36.26).

464SB Making or refusing authorisation

- (1) Before a senior police officer gives or refuses to give an authorisation under section 464SA, the senior police officer must allow the suspect or the suspect's legal practitioner, if any, a reasonable opportunity, if practicable in person, to inform the senior police officer whether there is any reason why the non-intimate compulsory procedure should not be conducted.
- (2) An authorisation under section 464SA must be made in writing signed by the senior police officer giving it and include—
  - (a) the date and time when the authorisation is given; and
  - (b) the grounds for giving the authorisation; and
  - (c) the type of sample or examination authorised.
- (3) The senior police officer must give, or cause another police officer to give, to the suspect a copy of the authorisation as soon as practicable after the authorisation is made and, in any event, before the conduct of the compulsory procedure.
- (4) Before the compulsory procedure is conducted, a police officer must inform the suspect orally and in person of the following—
  - (a) that an authorisation under section 464SA has been given; and
  - (b) the matters referred to in subsection (2)(a), (b) and (c); and
  - (c) that a police officer may use reasonable force to enable the compulsory procedure to be conducted; and

- (1) A police officer may request a DNA person who is an adult to give a DNA profile sample only if the police officer is satisfied that the taking of the sample is justified in all of the circumstances, and the DNA person—
  - (a) is suspected on reasonable grounds of having committed the indictable offence; or
  - (b) has been charged with the indictable offence; or
  - (c) has been summonsed to answer to a charge for the indictable offence.
- (2) A police officer may request a DNA person who is a child to give a DNA profile sample only if the police officer is satisfied that the taking of the sample is justified in all of the circumstances, and the DNA person—
  - (a) is believed on reasonable grounds of having committed the DNA sample offence; or
  - (b) has been charged with the DNA sample offence; or
  - (c) has been summonsed to answer to a charge for the DNA sample offence.
- (3) A DNA profile sample may be taken from—
  - (a) a DNA person who is an adult if—
    - (i) the adult gives informed consent; or
    - (ii) a senior police officer gives an authorisation under section 464SE; or
  - (b) a DNA person who is a child if—
    - (i) the child and a parent or guardian of the child give informed consent; or

- (ii) a senior police officer gives an authorisation under section 464SE.

464SD Informed consent—DNA person and their parent or guardian

- (1) In this section—

parent or guardian means a parent or guardian of a DNA person who is a child.

- (2) A DNA person or a parent or guardian gives informed consent to a request for the DNA person to give a DNA profile sample if the DNA person or the parent or guardian consents to the request after a police officer informs the DNA person or the parent or guardian in language likely to be understood by the DNA person or the parent or guardian—

- (a) of the purpose for which the sample is required; and
- (b) of the nature of the procedure sought to be conducted to take the sample; and
- (c) for a DNA person who is an adult, of the indictable offence which the person is suspected of having committed or with which the person has been charged or for which the person has been summonsed to answer to a charge; and
- (d) for a DNA person who is a child, of the DNA sample offence which the child is believed on reasonable grounds of having committed or with which the child has been charged or for which the child has been summonsed to answer to a charge; and
- (e) for a DNA person who is a child, that for the child to give informed consent both the child and the child's parent or guardian must consent to the taking of the sample; and

- (f) that the taking of the sample could produce evidence to be used in a court; and
- (g) that information obtained from analysis of forensic material obtained by the taking of the sample will be placed on a DNA database and may be used for the purpose of a criminal investigation or any other purpose for which the DNA database may be used under this Subdivision or under a corresponding law of a participating jurisdiction; and
- (h) that if a sample is taken from the DNA person and—
  - (i) the person has not been charged with an indictable offence or a DNA sample offence (as the case requires) at the end of 12 months after the taking of the sample; or
  - (ii) the person has been so charged but the charge is not proceeded with or the DNA person is not found guilty of the offence whether on appeal or otherwise before the end of that period—the sample taken will be destroyed; and
- (i) that the DNA person or the parent or guardian may refuse to consent to the taking of the sample; and
- (j) that if the DNA person or the parent or guardian refuses to consent to the taking of the sample, that a senior police officer may authorise the taking of the sample.

- (3) A police officer who informs a DNA person or a parent or guardian of the matters in subsection (2)—
- (a) must record the giving of the information and the person's responses, if any, by audio recording or audiovisual recording or in writing signed by the person; and
  - (b) must give or send by registered post to the person or the person's legal practitioner or the parent or guardian of the child if the child's legal practitioner is not known, without charge—
    - (i) if the giving of the information and the responses are recorded by audio recording or audiovisual recording, a copy of the recording as soon as practicable, but not more than 7 days after the information is given, and, if a transcript of the recording is prepared, a copy of the transcript as soon as practicable; and
    - (ii) if the giving of the information and the responses are recorded in writing signed by the person, a copy of the record as soon as practicable.
- (4) A DNA person is taken as having refused consent if—
- (a) the DNA person is—
    - (i) held in a prison, police gaol or youth justice centre; or
    - (ii) a prisoner in a prison or a person detained in a police gaol who is transferred from the prison or police gaol to a facility or an institution referred to in section 56AB(1) of the Corrections Act 1986; and

(b) within 24 hours after the giving of the information referred to in subsection (2) the DNA person fails to consent to the request to take the sample.

(5) A parent or guardian is taken as having refused consent if the parent or guardian is not capable of giving informed consent by reason of mental impairment.

464SE Senior police officer may authorise the taking of a DNA profile sample from DNA person

S. 464SE
inserted by
No. 3/2019
s. 55.

(1) A senior police officer who is not involved in investigating the offence for which the taking of a sample is required may authorise the taking of a DNA profile sample from a DNA person if the senior police officer is satisfied that—

- (a) the person is a DNA person who is—
  - (i) under lawful arrest by warrant; or
  - (ii) under lawful arrest under section 458 or 459 or a provision of any other Act; or
  - (iii) in the custody of an investigating official in accordance with an order of the Magistrates' Court or the Children's Court (as the case requires) under section 464B(5) and, at the time of the application for that order, the person was held in a prison or police gaol; and
- (b) the person is not incapable of giving informed consent by reason of mental impairment; and
- (c) for a DNA person who is an adult, the person has refused to give consent to a request under section 464SC(1); and

- (d) for a DNA person who is a child, both the child and the child's parent or guardian have refused to give consent to a request under section 464SC(2); and
  - (e) for a DNA person who is an adult, there are reasonable grounds to believe the person has committed the indictable offence in respect of which the authorisation is sought; and
  - (f) for a DNA person who is a child, the person is believed on reasonable grounds of having committed the DNA sample offence in respect of which the authorisation is sought; and
  - (g) the taking of the sample without the consent of the person is justified in all of the circumstances.
- (2) A senior police officer must not give an authorisation for the taking of a DNA profile sample from a DNA person if—
- (a) an application to a court for an order under section 464T, 464U or 464V in respect of that person has been made in relation to the same matter and on the same grounds but has been refused; or
  - (b) a previous application for an authorisation under this section in respect of that person has been considered in relation to the same matter and on the same grounds but has not been given.
- (3) An authorisation given in contravention of subsection (2) is void.
- (4) Nothing in subsection (2) prevents a later application for an order under section 464T, 464U or 464V or an authorisation under this section on different or further grounds.

- (5) An authorisation under this section must be given to a police officer.

464SF Making or refusing authorisation—DNA profile sample

S. 464SF
inserted by
No. 3/2019
s. 55.

- (1) Before a senior police officer gives or refuses to give an authorisation under section 464SE, the senior police officer must allow a reasonable opportunity, if practicable in person, for the following persons to inform the senior police officer whether there is any reason why the DNA profile sample should not be taken—
- (a) the DNA person;
  - (b) the parent or guardian of the DNA person if the DNA person is a child;
  - (c) the DNA person's legal practitioner, if any.
- (2) An authorisation under section 464SE must be given in writing, be signed by the senior police officer giving it and include—
- (a) the date and time when the authorisation is given; and
  - (b) the grounds for giving the authorisation.

Note

The Electronic Transactions (Victoria) Act 2000 applies to enable an authorisation to be given electronically, including facsimile transmission and email, in accordance with that Act.

- (3) The senior police officer must give, or cause another police officer to give, to the DNA person a copy of the authorisation as soon as practicable after the authorisation is made and, in any event, before the taking of the DNA profile sample.

- (4) Before the DNA profile sample is taken, a police officer must inform the DNA person orally and in person of the following—
  - (a) that an authorisation under section 464SE has been given;
  - (b) the matters referred to in subsection (2)(a) and (b);
  - (c) that a police officer may use reasonable force to enable the DNA profile sample to be taken.
- (5) The person who gives the information required to be given by subsection (4) must—
  - (a) record, or cause to be recorded, the giving of that information by audio recording or audiovisual recording; and
  - (b) give or send by registered post, or cause to be given or sent by registered post without charge, a copy of the recording as soon as practicable, but not more than 7 days after the taking of the DNA profile sample to—
    - (i) the DNA person or their legal practitioner; or
    - (ii) the parent or guardian of a DNA person who is a child if the child's legal practitioner is not known.
- (6) If a senior police officer refuses to give an authorisation under section 464SE in respect of a DNA person, the senior police officer must—
  - (a) inform, or cause another police officer to inform, the DNA person orally of the decision as soon as practicable after the refusal; and

- (b) give written notice of the decision to the DNA person within 7 days after the refusal and to the parent or guardian of a DNA person who is a child.
- (7) A failure of the senior police officer or a police officer to comply with this section does not invalidate any authorisation made by the senior police officer but constitutes non-compliance for the purposes of section 464ZE(1)(a).

  - (b) if the person is a detained or protected person, must state that fact and identify the place where the person is held or resides; and
  - (c) must specify the type of compulsory procedure sought to be conducted.
- (3) The Court may make an order directing a person to undergo a compulsory procedure if the Court is satisfied on the balance of probabilities that—
  - (a) the person is a relevant suspect; and
  - (b) there are reasonable grounds to believe that the person has committed the offence in respect of which the application is made; and
  - (c) in the case of an application for a sample other than one referred to in paragraph (d), any of the following applies—
    - (i) material reasonably believed to be from the body of a person who committed the offence has been found—
      - (A) at the scene of the offence; or
      - (B) on the victim of the offence or on anything reasonably believed to have been worn or carried by the victim when the offence was committed; or

  - (g) in all the circumstances, the making of the order is justified.
- (8) In considering whether the making of the order is justified, the court must take into account amongst other things—
- (a) the seriousness of the circumstances surrounding the commission of the offence; and
  - (b) the alleged degree of participation by the child in the commission of the offence; and
  - (c) the age of the child.
- (9) If the Children's Court makes an order under subsection (7), it must—

(11) Except as provided for by section 464V(5A), the Children's Court must not make an order under subsection (7) unless—

- (a) the child is present in court; or
- (b) the court directs that the child is permitted to appear by audio visual link and the child does so appear.

(12) A child in respect of whom an application is made—

- (a) is not a party to the application; and
- (b) may not call or cross-examine any witnesses; and
- (c) may not address the court, other than in respect of any matter referred to in subsection (7)(a) to (g) or subsection (8).

amended by
No. 35/1996
s. 453(Sch. 1
item 16.17).

(13) In exercising the right of address under subsection (12)(c), a child may be represented by a legal practitioner or, with the leave of the court, a parent or guardian of the child.

S. 46U(14)
amended by
No. 55/2025
s. 13(2).

(14) The provisions of section 464T(9), (10), (11) and (12) apply as if—

- (a) a reference to an application to the Magistrates' Court under subsection (1) of that section were a reference to an application to the Children's Court under subsection (3) of this section; and
- (b) a reference to the person were a reference to the child; and
- (c) a reference to the Magistrates' Court were a reference to the Children's Court.

464V Interim orders

- (1) This section does not apply to an application in respect of a blood sample.
- (2) A police officer may apply, with or without notice to any other person, for an interim order directing a person to undergo a compulsory procedure if the police officer believes on reasonable grounds that the sample or evidence sought to be obtained by the compulsory procedure is likely to be lost if the procedure is delayed until the final determination of the application.
- (3) Section 464T(1), (2), (5), (6), (7) and (8) or section 464U(3), (4), (9), (10), (12) and (13) as the case requires apply to applications for interim orders.
- (4) If a police officer believes on reasonable grounds that—
- (a) it is necessary to obtain an interim order; and
  - (b) the sample or evidence sought to be obtained by the compulsory procedure is likely to be lost if the making of an application for an interim order is delayed until the time when the application could be made in person—
- the police officer may apply for an interim order by audio link or audio visual link in accordance with the procedure in section 464W.

s. 39B(1)).

- (1) If material reasonably believed to be from the body of a person who committed an indictable offence has been found—
- (a) at the scene of the offence; or
  - (b) on the victim of the offence or on anything reasonably believed to have been worn or carried by the victim when the offence was committed; or
  - (c) on an object or person reasonably believed to have been associated with the commission of the offence—

and there is sufficient material to be analysed both in the investigation of the offence and on behalf of a person from whom a sample has been taken in relation to that offence, a part of the material sufficient for analysis must, on request, be delivered to that person.

- (2) If material, reasonably believed to be from the body of a victim of an indictable offence which has not been found, has been found on a person reasonably believed to have been associated with the commission of the offence, and there is sufficient material to be analysed both in the investigation of the offence and on behalf of a person from whom a sample has been taken in relation to that offence, a part of the material sufficient for analysis must, on request, be delivered to that person.

(3) If—

- (a) a sample has been taken from a child in connection with an investigation into an offence against a provision of Subdivision (8A), (8B) or (8C) of Division 1 of Part I; and

- (b) that child was conceived allegedly as a result of that offence—

a person suspected of having committed that offence and from whom a sample has been taken in relation to that offence may request a part of the child's sample.

- (4) A part of that child's sample requested by a person under subsection (3) must be delivered to that person provided that there is sufficient material to be analysed both in the investigation of the offence and on behalf of the person suspected of having committed the offence.

(b) the reasons given for the failure to comply with a provision referred to in subsection (1)(a) or (1)(ab);

(c) the gravity of that failure and whether it deprived the person of a significant protection under this Subdivision;

(d) whether that failure was intentional or reckless;

(e) the nature of the requirement that was not complied with;

- (f) the nature of the offence alleged against the person and the subject-matter of the proceedings;
  - (g) whether the reception of the evidence would seriously undermine the protection given to persons under this Subdivision;
  - (h) any other matters the court considers relevant.
- (3) The probative value of the evidence does not by itself justify the reception of the evidence. S. 464ZE(3) substituted by No. 81/1997 s. 24(3).
- (4) If the taking of a DNA profile sample or the conduct of a forensic procedure is recorded by audiovisual recording, the recording is inadmissible as evidence except— S. 464ZE(4) amended by Nos 27/2006 s. 17(29), 3/2019 s. 60(2)(f).
- (a) to establish or rebut an allegation that unreasonable force was used to enable the sample to be taken or the procedure to be conducted; or S. 464ZE(4)(a) amended by No. 3/2019 s. 60(2)(g).
  - (b) to determine the admissibility of a confession or admission or other evidence adverse to the accused where the accused alleges that the evidence was induced or obtained by the use of unreasonable force.
- (5) If evidence obtained as a result of a DNA profile sample taken from a person or a forensic procedure conducted on a person would be admissible in proceedings against that person for an offence, that evidence is admissible in proceedings against that person for a relevant offence within the meaning of section 464ZG. S. 464ZE(5) amended by No. 3/2019 s. 60(2)(h).

- (6) Evidence obtained as a result of a physical examination conducted in good faith on a person for the purposes of medical or dental treatment is admissible in proceedings against that person for an offence.

amended by
No. 37/2014
s. 10(Sch.
item 36.35(a)).

- (1) If a senior police officer is satisfied that—
- (a) an order under section 464ZF(2) in respect of a person was made—
    - (i) before the commencement of section 11 of the Crimes (DNA Database) Act 2002; or
    - (ii) when the person was a detained or protected person and within the period of 6 months immediately preceding the serving of the notice the person ceased to be a detained or protected person; and
  - (b) the order has not been executed; and

- (c) the period referred to in section 464ZF(6) during which the order must not be executed has expired—the senior police officer may serve on the person a notice in accordance with subsections (2) and (3).

- (2) A notice must direct the person to attend at a police station specified in the notice within 28 days after service of the notice to undergo the forensic procedure ordered by the court and must state—
  - (a) the date on which the order under section 464ZF(2) was made;
  - (b) the court which made the order;
  - (c) that the person has not undergone the forensic procedure;
  - (d) that if the person fails to comply with the notice, application for a warrant to arrest the person may be made without further notice to the person;
  - (e) that the person may wish to seek legal advice as to the effect of the notice;
  - (f) the name, rank and telephone number of the senior police officer serving the notice.
- (3) A copy of the order under section 464ZF(2) must be attached to and served with the notice.
- (4) A notice may be served on a person by—
  - (a) delivering a true copy of the notice to the person personally; or
  - (b) leaving a true copy of the notice for the person at the person's last or most usual place of residence or business with a person

(2)(f)
amended by
No. 37/2014

item 36.35(b)).

who apparently resides or works there and who is apparently not less than 16 years of age; or

(c) posting the notice to the person at their last known place of residence or business.

(5) If a notice is served by post in accordance with subsection (4)(c), evidence of service must state the manner of ascertainment of the address to which the notice was posted and the time and place of posting.

amended by
No. 37/2014
s. 10(Sch.
item 36.35(c)).

(6) If a person does not comply with a notice served under this section, a police officer may apply to a magistrate or a registrar of the Magistrates' Court for a warrant under subsection (7).

S. 464ZFAA(7)
amended by
No. 6/2018
s. 68(Sch. 2
item 35.10).

(7) If a magistrate or a registrar to whom such an application is made is satisfied by evidence on oath or by affirmation or affidavit that—

(a) a notice was served on a person in accordance with this section; and

(b) the person has not undergone the forensic procedure—

the magistrate or registrar may issue a warrant authorising the person to whom it is directed, if necessary—

(c) to break, enter and search by day or by night any place where the person named in the warrant is suspected to be; and

(d) to arrest the person; and

(e) to detain the person for as long as reasonably permits the conduct of the forensic procedure.

(8) Section 464ZFA(2), (3), (4), (5), (6) and (7) apply to a warrant issued under subsection (7) as if it were a warrant issued under section 464ZFA(1B).

464ZFAC Senior police officer authorisation—to take DNA profile sample from certain adults

(1) In this section—

DNA offence means—

(a) an indictable offence or an offence specified in Schedule 8; or

(b) any offence of conspiracy to commit, incitement to commit or attempting to commit an indictable offence or an offence specified in Schedule 8.

- (2) A senior police officer may authorise the taking of a DNA profile sample from a person if—
- (a) the person—
    - (i) is found guilty of a DNA offence; or
    - (ii) is found not guilty of a DNA offence, other than an offence heard and determined summarily, because of mental impairment under the Crimes (Mental Impairment and Unfitness to be Tried) Act 1997; and
  - (b) it is not more than 6 months after—
    - (i) the final determination of an appeal against the conviction or the verdict of not guilty because of mental impairment (as the case requires); or
    - (ii) the expiration of any appeal period; and
  - (c) the person is not under the age of 18 years at the time—
    - (i) the finding of guilt for the DNA offence is made; or
    - (ii) the finding of not guilty for the DNA offence because of mental impairment is made; and
  - (d) the Chief Commissioner of Police does not have a sample from the person that may be retained indefinitely.
- (3) An authorisation given for a sample to be taken from a person referred to in subsection (2)(a)(i) before the appeal period in relation to a conviction for the DNA offence has expired or an appeal against the conviction (if any) has been finally determined (whichever is the later), must not be carried out unless—
- (a) the appeal period expires; or

- (b) an appeal against conviction (if any) is finally determined and the conviction for the DNA offence is upheld.
- (4) An authorisation given for a sample to be taken from a person referred to in subsection (2)(a)(ii) before the appeal period in relation to the verdict of not guilty because of mental impairment has expired or an appeal against the verdict (if any) has been finally determined (whichever is the later), must not be carried out unless—
  - (a) the appeal period expires; or
  - (b) an appeal against the verdict is dismissed.
- (5) If leave to appeal against a verdict of not guilty because of mental impairment in respect of a DNA offence is sought after the expiry of the appeal period in relation to the verdict, an authorisation for a sample to be taken from a person referred to in subsection (2)(a)(ii) before leave to appeal is sought, if not carried out before that leave is sought, must not be carried out unless—
  - (a) leave to appeal against the verdict is refused; or
  - (b) leave to appeal against the verdict is granted but the appeal is dismissed.
- (6) If leave to appeal against a conviction for a DNA offence is sought after the expiry of the appeal period in relation to the conviction, an authorisation for a sample to be taken from a person referred to in subsection (2)(a)(i) before leave to appeal is sought, if not carried out before that leave is sought, must not be carried out unless—
  - (a) leave to appeal against the conviction is refused; or

- (b) leave to appeal against the conviction is granted and the appeal is finally determined and the conviction for the DNA offence is upheld.
- (7) If an authorisation for a sample to be taken from a person referred to in subsection (2)(a) has been carried out after the expiry of the appeal period in relation to the conviction for the DNA offence or the verdict of not guilty for the DNA offence because of mental impairment and leave to appeal against the conviction or the verdict (as the case requires) is granted after the expiry of that period—
  - (a) any sample and any related material and information taken may be retained by a police officer but must not be used for any purpose pending the final determination of the appeal against the conviction or the verdict; and
  - (b) if, on appeal, the conviction or the verdict is set aside, the Chief Commissioner of Police must, without delay, destroy or cause to be destroyed any sample taken and any related material and information.
- (8) If on appeal a conviction for the DNA offence or the verdict of not guilty for the DNA offence because of mental impairment (as the case requires) is set aside, an authorisation for a sample to be taken from a person in respect of the DNA offence ceases to have effect.
- (9) An authorisation given under this section must be in writing signed by the senior police officer giving it.

464ZFAD Notice to attend—to take DNA profile sample from certain adults

(1) In this section—

relevant person means a person other than a person who is a detained or protected person.

(2) If a senior police officer authorisation for a DNA profile sample to be taken from a relevant person is given, a notice to attend must be attached to the authorisation and served on the person, that requires the person to attend a police station specified in the notice to have the DNA profile sample taken, within 28 days after the expiry of the period referred to in section 464ZFAC(3) or (4) (as the case requires) or the date of service of the notice (whichever is the later).

(3) A notice under subsection (2) must state—

- (a) the date on which the senior police officer authorisation was given; and
- (b) the kind of DNA profile sample that is to be taken from the person; and
- (c) the name, rank and telephone number of the senior police officer who gave the senior police officer authorisation; and
- (d) the Chief Commissioner of Police does not have a sample from the person that may be retained indefinitely; and
- (e) that if the person fails to comply with the notice, an application for a warrant to arrest the person may be made without further notice to the person; and
- (f) that the person may wish to seek legal advice as to the effect of the notice; and

- (g) the name, rank and telephone number of the police officer serving the notice or causing the notice to be served; and
  - (h) that a police officer may use reasonable force to enable the sample to be taken.
- (4) A notice under subsection (2) must be served in accordance with section 464ZFAA(4) and (5).
- (5) Section 464ZFAA(6), (7) and (8) apply to a notice served under subsection (2) as if it were a notice served under that section.
- (6) If a notice under subsection (2) is not served within the period referred to in section 464ZFAC(2)(b), a police officer may, within 28 days of the expiry of that period, apply to a magistrate or registrar of the Magistrates' Court for a warrant under subsection (7).
- (7) On an application referred to in subsection (6) being made a magistrate or a registrar may, if satisfied by evidence on oath or by affidavit that the notice was not served on the relevant person, issue a warrant authorising the person to whom it is directed, if necessary—
  - (a) to break, enter and search by day or by night any place where the relevant person named in the warrant is suspected to be; and
  - (b) to arrest the relevant person; and
  - (c) to detain the relevant person for as long as reasonably permits for the DNA profile sample to be taken.
- (8) A magistrate or a registrar must not issue a warrant under subsection (7) unless satisfied by evidence on oath or by affidavit that—
  - (a) reasonable attempts have been made to serve the notice on the relevant person; and

(b) the DNA profile sample has not been taken from the relevant person.

(9) Section 464ZFA(2), (3), (4), (5), (6) and (7) apply to a warrant issued under subsection (7) as if it were a warrant issued under section 464ZFA(1B).

464ZFAE Senior police officer may authorise taking a DNA profile sample from certain adults and children who have previously provided a sample

(1) A senior police officer, on request from a police officer, may authorise the taking of a DNA profile sample from a person if the senior police officer is satisfied that—

(a) a sample for the purpose of deriving a DNA profile was previously taken from the person—

(i) in accordance with an order made by a court under section 464T, 464U, 464V, 464ZF or 464ZFAAA; or

(ii) in accordance with section 464SC, an authorisation given under section 464SE, a direction given under section 464ZFAB or a senior police officer authorisation; and

(b) a forensic scientist has not derived a DNA profile from the sample taken from the person.

(2) A senior police officer may serve, or may cause to be served, a notice on a person referred to in subsection (1) directing the person to attend at a police station specified in the notice within 28 days after service of the notice to take a DNA profile sample.

(3) A notice under subsection (2) must state—

(a) the date on which the senior police officer authorisation was given; and

- (b) the kind of DNA profile sample that is to be taken from the person; and
  - (c) the name, rank and telephone number of the senior police officer who gave the authorisation; and
  - (d) that the Chief Commissioner of Police does not have a DNA profile of the person; and
  - (e) that a DNA profile was not able to be derived by a forensic scientist from the sample given by the person—
    - (i) in accordance with an order made by a court under section 464T, 464U, 464V, 464ZF or 464ZFAAA; or
    - (ii) in accordance with section 464SC, an authorisation given under section 464SE, a direction given under section 464ZFAB or a senior police officer authorisation; and
  - (f) that if the person fails to comply with the notice, application for a warrant to arrest the person may be made without further notice to the person; and
  - (g) that the person may wish to seek legal advice as to the effect of the notice; and
  - (h) the name, rank and telephone number of the police officer serving the notice or causing the notice to be served; and
  - (i) that a police officer may use reasonable force to enable the DNA profile sample to be taken.
- (4) A notice under subsection (2) must be served by delivering a true copy of the notice to the person personally.

- (5) Section 464ZFAA(6), (7) and (8) apply to a notice served under subsection (2) as if it were a notice served under that section.

s. 27(1).

(3) Subject to section 464ZFD(2), if a DNA profile sample has been taken or a forensic procedure has been conducted on a person and—

S. 464ZG(3)
amended by Nos 81/1997
s. 27(2)(a)(c), 3/2019
s. 66(c).

(a) the person has not been charged with a relevant offence at the end of the period of 12 months after the taking of the sample or the conduct of the procedure; or

S. 464ZG(3)(a)
amended by
Nos 81/1997
s. 27(2)(b), 3/2019
s. 66(d).

S. 464ZG(3)(b)
amended by
No. 27/2006
s. 14.

- (b) the person has been so charged but the charge is not proceeded with or the person is not found guilty (except because of mental impairment) of the offence or any other relevant offence, whether on appeal or otherwise, before the end of that period—

the Chief Commissioner of Police, subject to subsection (5), must destroy, or cause to be destroyed, at the time specified in subsection (4) any sample taken and any related material and information.

amended by
No. 81/1997
s. 27(3)(a).

- (4) A sample and any related material and information referred to in subsection (3) must be destroyed—

S. 464ZG(4)(a)
amended by
No. 81/1997
s. 27(3)(b).

- (a) in a case to which subsection (3)(a) applies, immediately after that period of 12 months; or

- (b) in a case to which subsection (3)(b) applies—

S. 464ZG
(4)(b)(i)
amended by
No. 1/2026
s. 70(3).

- (i) within one month after the conclusion of the proceedings and the end of any appeal period; or

S. 464ZG
(4)(b)(ii)
amended by
No. 1/2026
s. 70(3).

- (ii) if the proceedings have been adjourned under section 75 of the Sentencing Act 1991, within one month of dismissal under that section.

S. 464ZG(5)
amended by
No. 37/2014
s. 10(Sch.
item 36.37).

- (5) A police officer may, before the end of a period referred to in subsection (4), apply, without notice to any other person, to the Magistrates' Court or the Children's Court (as the case requires) for an order extending that period and, if the court makes such an order, the reference to the period in subsection (4) is a reference to that period as so extended.

- (6) If the Magistrates' Court or the Children's Court makes an order under subsection (5), it must give reasons for its decision and cause a copy of the order to be served on the person from whom the DNA profile sample was taken or on whom the forensic procedure was conducted. S. 464ZG(6) amended by No. 3/2019 s. 66(e).
- (7) If a sample or related material and information is required to be destroyed in accordance with this section, the Chief Commissioner of Police must, if the person on whom the procedure was conducted so requests, within 14 days after receiving the request, notify in writing that person of whether the destruction has occurred. S. 464ZG(7) substituted by No. 81/1997 s. 27(4).
- (8) A person who knowingly—
- (a) fails to destroy; or
- (b) uses, or causes or permits to be used—
- a sample or related material and information required by this section to be destroyed is guilty of a summary offence punishable on conviction by level 8 imprisonment (1 year maximum) or a level 8 fine (120 penalty units maximum).
- S. 464ZG(8) amended by Nos 69/1997 s. 22(15), 81/1997 s. 27(5)(a)(c).
S. 464ZG(8)(b) amended by No. 81/1997 s. 27(5)(b).
- (9) A person who at any time uses, or causes or permits to be used, or otherwise disseminates information derived from, any sample or related material and information required by this section to be destroyed except in good faith for the purposes of a relevant offence or for the purposes of section 464ZFD(2) is guilty of a summary offence punishable on conviction by level 8 imprisonment (1 year maximum) or a level 8 fine (120 penalty units maximum). S. 464ZG(9) amended by Nos 69/1997 s. 22(15), 81/1997 s. 27(6)(a)–(c).

(1) Subject to section 464ZFD(2), if—

464ZGA(1)(a)
amended by
No. 3/2019
s. 67(1).

- (a) a person has a DNA profile sample taken or undergoes a forensic procedure as a child in accordance with this Subdivision, whether before or after the commencement of section 28 of the Crimes (Amendment) Act 1997; and
- (b) any sample taken is not required to be destroyed under this Subdivision, other than under this subsection; and
- (c) the person is not found guilty of any further offence before attaining the age of 26 years—the Chief Commissioner of Police must without delay destroy, or cause to be destroyed, any sample taken and any related material and information.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply if—

- (a) the person from whom the sample was taken is found guilty of—

S. 464ZGA
(2)(a)(i)
amended by
No. 3/2019
s. 67(2)(a).

- (i) the offence in relation to which the DNA profile sample was taken or the forensic procedure was conducted; or

- (ii) an offence arising out of the same circumstances as the offence referred to in subparagraph (i); or
  - (iii) an offence in respect of which evidence obtained as a result of the DNA profile sample or the forensic procedure had probative value; and
- (b) the offence of which the person is found guilty is—
- (i) an offence against this Act; or
  - (ii) an offence at common law the maximum penalty for which is specified by this Act; and
- (c) the offence of which the person is found guilty is punishable by level 4 imprisonment (15 years maximum) or more (however the penalty is described); and
- (d) the sample—
- (i) was taken in accordance with an order under section 464ZF(2); or
  - (ii) is the subject of an order under section 464ZFB(1).

S. 464ZGE
inserted by
No. 81/1997
s. 28.

- (1) If a person has given his or her consent in accordance with section 464ZGB, and a sample has been taken, that person may at any time after the sample has been taken, by notice in writing to the Chief Commissioner of Police, withdraw his or her consent to the retention of that sample.
- (2) Subject to subsection (5) and section 464ZFD(2), if a person has voluntarily given a sample in accordance with sections 464ZGB to 464ZGD and either—
  - (a) that person in accordance with subsection (1) has withdrawn his or her consent to the retention of that sample; or
  - (b) a court has made an order under section 464ZGF for the retention of that sample and any related material and information, and—
    - (i) the person has not been charged with an indictable offence at the end of the period of 12 months after the order of the court; or
    - (ii) the person has been so charged but the charge is not proceeded with, or the person is not found guilty of the indictable offence or any other indictable offence for which the sample and any related material and information had probative value, whether on appeal or otherwise, before the end of that period—

the Chief Commissioner of Police, at the time specified in subsection (3), must destroy, or cause to be destroyed, any sample given and any related material and information.

(3) A sample and any related material and information referred to in subsection (2) must be destroyed—

(a) within 28 days after the receipt of the person's notice of withdrawal of consent under subsection (1); or

(b) in a case to which subsection (2)(b)(i) applies, immediately after that period of 12 months; or

(c) in a case to which subsection (2)(b)(ii) applies—

(i) within one month after the conclusion of the proceedings and the end of any appeal period; or

(ii) if the proceedings have been adjourned under section 75 of the Sentencing Act 1991, within one month after dismissal under that section.

(4) The Chief Commissioner of Police is not required to comply with the requirements in subsections (2) and (3) to destroy or cause to be destroyed a sample and any related material and information by reason of the person's withdrawal of consent if the Magistrates' Court makes an order under

- (5) If the Magistrates' Court refuses to make an order under section 464ZGF for the retention of a sample and any related material and information, and a person in accordance with subsection (1) has withdrawn his or her consent to the retention of that sample, the Chief Commissioner of Police must immediately destroy, or cause to be immediately destroyed, the sample given and any related material and information.
- (6) A police officer may, before the end of a period referred to in subsection (3)(b) or (3)(c), apply, without notice to any other person, to the Magistrates' Court for an order extending that period and, if the court makes such an order, the reference to the period in subsection (3)(b) or (3)(c) is a reference to that period as so extended.
- (7) If the Magistrates' Court makes an order under subsection (6), it must give reasons for its decision and cause a copy of the order to be served on the person who voluntarily gave the sample.
- (8) If a sample or related material and information is destroyed in accordance with this section, the Chief Commissioner of Police must, within 14 days, give notice of the destruction to the person who voluntarily gave the sample.
- (9) A person who knowingly—
  - (a) fails to destroy; or
  - (b) uses, or causes or permits to be used—a sample or related material and information required by this section to be destroyed is guilty of a summary offence punishable on conviction by level 8 imprisonment (1 year maximum) or a level 8 fine (120 penalty units maximum).

(a) either—

- (i) material reasonably believed to be from the body of a person who committed the indictable offence has been found—

(A) at the scene of the offence; or

(B) on the victim of the offence or on anything reasonably believed to have been worn or carried by the victim when the offence was committed; or

(C) on an object or person reasonably believed to have been associated with the commission of the offence; or

- (ii) if the offence is an offence against a provision of Subdivision (8A), (8B) or (8C) of Division 1 of Part I, and a police officer reasonably believes that a child has been conceived as a result of the commission of the offence and a sample has been taken from that child; and

- (b) a police officer reasonably believes that information obtained from the analysis of the sample voluntarily given by the person, and from any related material and information, has probative value in relation to the indictable offence being investigated; and
  - (c) the person who voluntarily gave that sample has withdrawn his or her consent to the retention of that sample; and
  - (d) the information obtained from the analysis of the voluntary sample, and from any related material and information, has not been destroyed in accordance with section 464ZGE(2)(a) and (3)(a).
- (2) A court hearing an application under subsection (1) must—
- (a) be satisfied on the balance of probabilities that there are reasonable grounds to believe that the person has committed the offence in respect of which the application is made; and
  - (b) be satisfied that, in all the circumstances, the making of the order is justified.
- (3) If the court makes an order under subsection (1), it must give reasons for its decision and cause a copy of the order and reasons to be served on the person who voluntarily gave the sample.
- (4) A failure of a court to comply with subsection (3) does not invalidate any order made by it but constitutes non-compliance for the purposes of section 464ZE(1)(a).

S. 464ZGFA(1)
def. of Institute
amended by
No. 34/2024
s. 50(1).

relevant agency means—

- (a) Victoria Police; or
  - (b) the Institute.
- (2) Any of the following persons may volunteer to give to a relevant agency a sample of material from which a DNA profile may be derived—

(a) a member of Victoria Police personnel;

S. 464ZGFA
(2)(a)
substituted by
No. 37/2014
s. 10(Sch.
item 36.38(a)).

(b) the Chief Executive Officer of the Institute or a person employed under section 30 or 31 of the Victorian Institute of Forensic Medicine Act 2024;

S. 464ZGFA
(2)(b)
substituted by
No. 34/2024
s. 50(2).

(c) a visitor to—

- (i) any premises at which the Victoria Police Forensic Services Department performs functions; or
- (ii) any premises at which the Institute performs any of its functions.

- (3) A sample may only be given under this section if the relevant agency has provided to the person volunteering to give the sample—
- (a) a written statement that the sample is to be provided for the purpose of comparing a DNA profile obtained from the sample against any other DNA profile held by the relevant agency to eliminate the person as a possible source of DNA in—
    - (i) the investigation of a crime; or
    - (ii) the investigation of a reportable death within the meaning of the Coroners Act 2008; or
    - (iii) in the case of the Institute, testing conducted by the Institute in the performance of its objects and functions; and
  - (b) a written statement of the requirements of section 464ZGFB(3) and (5).
- (4) A sample given under this section may be used only for the purpose referred to in subsection (3)(a).
- (5) Evidence of a sample given by a person under this section and any DNA profile obtained from the sample is inadmissible as evidence against the person, unless the person consents to the admission of the evidence, in—
- (a) any proceeding, whether civil or criminal; or
  - (b) a proceeding arising out of, or connected with, an investigation under Division 6 of Part 4, Part 5, Part 7, Part 9 or Part 10 of the Victoria Police Act 2013 in respect of the person; or

S. 464ZGFA
(5)(b)
amended by
No. 37/2014
s. 10(Sch.
item
36.38(b)(i)).

(c) a proceeding arising out of, or connected with, a critical incident (within the meaning of section 82 of the Victoria Police Act 2013).

S. 464ZGFA
(5)(c)
amended by
No. 37/2014
s. 10(Sch.
item
36.38(b)(ii)).

- (6) In subsection (5) a proceeding includes a coronial inquest or inquiry.
- (7) A sample given under this section and any DNA profile obtained from the sample may not be released to any person outside the relevant agency unless the person who gave the sample consents to the release.
- (8) A person must not knowingly use, or cause or permit to be used, or otherwise disseminate information derived from, a sample given under this section, any DNA profile obtained from the sample or any related information, other than in accordance with this section.
- Penalty: level 8 imprisonment (1 year maximum).
- (9) An offence against subsection (8) is a summary offence.
- (10) This section does not affect any other power to require a person referred to in subsection (2) to provide a sample or to undergo a forensic procedure.

(4)(a)
amended by
No. 37/2014
s. 10(Sch.
item 36.39(a)).

- (a) in the case of a sample given by the Chief Commissioner of Police, the Chief Commissioner requests the destruction of the sample by notice in writing to the Minister administering the Victoria Police Act 2013; or

S. 464ZGFB
(4)(b)
amended by
No. 37/2014
s. 10(Sch.
item 36.39(b)).

- (b) in the case of a sample given by any other member of Victoria Police personnel or a visitor to any premises at which the Victoria Police Forensic Services Department performs functions, the member or visitor requests the destruction of the sample by notice in writing to the Chief Commissioner of Police; or

- (c) in the case of a sample given by the Chief Executive Officer of the Institute, the Chief Executive Officer requests the destruction of the sample by notice in writing to the Attorney-General; or S. 464ZGFB (4)(c) amended by No. 34/2024 s. 51(2)(a).
- (d) in the case of a sample given by an employee of the Institute or a visitor to any premises at which the Institute performs any of its functions, the employee or visitor requests the destruction of the sample by notice in writing to the Chief Executive Officer of the Institute; or S. 464ZGFB (4)(d) amended by No. 34/2024 s. 51(2)(b).
- (e) 12 months have elapsed since the person who gave the sample ceased to be a member of Victoria Police personnel, the Chief Executive Officer of the Institute or an employee of the Institute, as the case may be. S. 464ZGFB (4)(e) amended by Nos 37/2014 s. 10(Sch. item 36.39(b)), 34/2024 s. 51(2)(b).
- (5) Without affecting any other arrangements for destruction of samples, this section also applies, on and from its commencement, to a sample given voluntarily by a person referred to in section 464ZGFA(2) before the commencement of this section.
- (6) A person must not knowingly—
- (a) fail to destroy; or
  - (b) use, or cause or permit to be used, or otherwise disseminate information derived from—
- a sample, or a DNA profile derived from a sample, that is required by this section to be destroyed.
- Penalty: level 8 imprisonment (1 year maximum).

- (7) An offence against subsection (6) is a summary offence.

464ZGN Arrangements for transmission of information on DNA database

- (1) The Minister may enter into an arrangement with the responsible Minister for a participating jurisdiction, under which—
  - (a) information from the Victorian DNA database is to be transmitted to the responsible person for the DNA database of the participating jurisdiction for the purposes of—
    - (i) the investigation of, or the conduct of proceedings for, an offence against the law of this State or the law of the participating jurisdiction; or
    - (ii) the identification of missing or deceased persons; and
  - (b) information from the DNA database of the participating jurisdiction is to be transmitted to the Chief Commissioner of Police for the purposes of—
    - (i) the investigation of, or the conduct of proceedings for, an offence against the law of this State or the law of the participating jurisdiction; or
    - (ii) the identification of missing or deceased persons.
- (2) The Minister may enter into an arrangement with the Australian Crime Commission, under which—
  - (a) information from the Victorian DNA database is to be transmitted to the Australian Crime Commission for comparison with information on the NCIDD for the purposes of—

s. 29(1)(a).

S. 464ZGN
(2)(a)
amended by
No. 54/2016
s. 29(1)(b).

- (i) the investigation of, or the conduct of proceedings for, an offence against the law of this State or the law of a participating jurisdiction; or
  - (ii) the identification of missing or deceased persons; and
- (b) information from the Australian Crime Commission obtained as a result of a comparison with the NCIDD is to be transmitted to the Chief Commissioner of Police for the purposes of—
  - (i) the investigation of, or the conduct of proceedings for, an offence against the law of this State or the law of a participating jurisdiction; or
  - (ii) the identification of missing or deceased persons.
- (3) Without limiting subsection (2), an arrangement made under that subsection may provide for the Australian Crime Commission—
  - (a) to compare information from the Victorian DNA database with information supplied to it from the DNA database of another participating jurisdiction; and
  - (b) to identify to the Chief Commissioner of Police and the responsible person for the DNA database of the participating jurisdiction any matches that are found as a result of the comparison.
- (4) An arrangement entered into under this section may not authorise the comparison of information so as to match DNA profiles in a way that would contravene section 464ZGI were the information contained wholly within the Victorian DNA database.

464ZGO Taking, retention and use of forensic material authorised by laws of other jurisdictions

- (1) Subject to section 464ZGM and this section, nothing in this Subdivision affects the taking, retention or use of forensic material, or information obtained from forensic material, if the taking, retention or use of the material is authorised by or under a corresponding law of the Commonwealth, another State or a Territory.
- (2) Forensic material taken, or information obtained from it, in accordance with a corresponding law of the Commonwealth, another State or a Territory may be retained or used for investigative, evidentiary or statistical purposes even if its retention or use would, but for this subsection, constitute a contravention of a provision of this Subdivision relating to the carrying out of forensic procedures.
- (3) Forensic material taken, or information obtained from it, in accordance with a law of the Commonwealth, another State or a Territory as in force immediately before the commencement of section 16 of the Crimes (DNA Database) Act 2002, may be retained or used for investigative, evidentiary or statistical purposes even if its retention or use would, but for this subsection, constitute a contravention of a provision of this Subdivision relating to the carrying out of forensic procedures.

464ZI Supreme Court—limitation of jurisdiction

- (1) It is the intention of this section to alter or vary section 85 of the Constitution Act 1975 to the extent necessary—
- (a) to prevent the bringing before the Supreme Court of an action seeking to permit an application under section 464M(1), 464T(1), 464U(3) or 464V(2) being conducted otherwise than in accordance with the procedure expressed to be required by this Act; and

(b) to prevent the bringing before the Supreme Court of an action of a kind referred to in section 464ZH.

(2) It is the intention of section 464ZH as amended by section 19 of the Crimes (Amendment) Act 2004 to alter or vary section 85 of the Constitution Act 1975.

No. 129/1993
s. 7.

(1) The Governor in Council may make regulations for or with respect to—

- (a) accreditation of experts giving forensic evidence in a court; and
- (b) testing of the proficiency of experts in conducting procedures about which an expert gives forensic evidence; and
- (c) the application and use of statistical analysis to data the subject of forensic evidence; and
- (d) standards for taking DNA profile samples or conducting forensic procedures in accordance with this Subdivision and the analysis of any samples taken; and
- (e) generally prescribing any other matter or thing required or permitted by this Subdivision to be prescribed or necessary to be prescribed to give effect to this Subdivision.

S. 464ZJ(1)(d)
amended by
No. 3/2019
s. 74.

(2) The regulations—

- (a) may be of general or limited application; and
- (b) may differ according to differences in time, place or circumstance; and
- (c) may confer a discretionary authority or impose a duty on a specified person or class of persons.

- (1) As soon as practicable after 1 January but not later than 1 March in each year, the Chief Commissioner of Police must provide a written report to the IBAC for the previous 12 months in relation—
  - (a) to any DNA profile sample taken or senior police officer authorisation or authorisation given and applied for; and
  - (b) to the destruction of any DNA profile sample taken or given in accordance with a senior police officer authorisation or authorisation; and
  - (c) to any matter on which the Chief Commissioner is required to report on under section 464ZFE.

(2) The report must include—

- (a) a list that identifies by a unique identifying number every DNA profile sample taken or given in accordance with a senior police officer authorisation or authorisation under this Subdivision within the period to which the report relates; and
- (b) information on whether any of the DNA profile samples listed in the report were taken from a child; and
- (c) the date on which every DNA profile sample listed in the report was taken; and
- (d) information on whether any of the DNA profile samples listed in the report or in any previous report submitted under this section have been destroyed within the period to which the report relates and the reason for the destruction of the sample; and
- (e) if a DNA profile sample has been destroyed the date that the requirement to destroy it arose under section 464ZFC, the date of destruction and the name of the person who destroyed it; and
- (f) the number of senior police officer authorisations and authorisations under section 464SE or 464ZF AE given within the period to which the report relates; and
- (g) the number of DNA profile samples taken by consent in accordance with section 464SC within the period to which the report relates; and
- (h) the number of authorisations under section 464SE, senior police officer authorisations and authorisations under section 464ZF AE refused within the period to which the report relates; and

- (i) information on any DNA profile sample that has been retained for 12 months or more including the status of any investigation of the DNA person from whom the sample was taken within the period to which the report relates.

465AAAA Powers relating to receptacles

- (1) A police officer executing a warrant issued under section 465 in relation to warrant premises is authorised to break open or unlock any receptacle in or on the warrant premises as is reasonably necessary for conducting a search under the warrant.
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1), the police officer executing the warrant is authorised to take any action that is reasonably necessary—
  - (a) to determine whether the receptacle is, or contains, a thing that may be seized; or
  - (b) to determine whether the receptacle is, or contains, a thing that may pose a hazard to a person; or
  - (c) to assess or remove any thing in the receptacle that may pose a hazard to a person; or
  - (d) to deal with the receptacle or any thing in the receptacle to prevent any hazard or mitigate the risk of any hazard to a person.
- (3) A police officer executing a warrant issued under section 465 in relation to warrant premises is authorised to move a receptacle to another place, for up to 7 business days, for examination to determine whether the receptacle is, or contains, a thing that may be seized under the warrant, if—
  - (a) it is significantly more practicable to do so having regard to the following—
    - (i) the timeliness;
    - (ii) the cost of examining the receptacle at another place;
    - (iii) the availability of expert assistance;

- (iv) the safety of a person at the warrant premises during the execution of the warrant; and
  - (b) there are reasonable grounds to suspect the receptacle is, or contains, a thing that may be seized under the warrant.

  - (b) bring onto the warrant premises any equipment, vehicle, animal or material that the police officer reasonably requires for exercising a power authorised by the warrant.
- (2) The police officer may direct an assistant—
- (a) to take stated action at the premises; and
  - (b) to exercise stated powers that the police officer is authorised by the warrant to exercise.

- (3) For the purposes of subsection (2), the police officer—
  - (a) is only permitted to direct an assistant to take stated action or exercise stated powers that are consistent with the specialist skills or technical knowledge of the assistant; and
  - (b) cannot direct the assistant to arrest a person.
- (4) The police officer must inform the assistant of—
  - (a) the action that the assistant is directed to take; and
  - (b) the assistant's powers under this section.
- (5) The police officer may seek the assistance of as many assistants as are reasonably necessary to exercise the powers authorised by the warrant.

465AAAAC Police officer may arrange for expert to operate electronic equipment at premises being searched

- (1) This section applies to a police officer executing a warrant issued under section 465 in relation to warrant premises who believes on reasonable grounds that—
  - (a) evidentiary material may be accessible by operating electronic equipment found at the warrant premises; and
  - (b) expert assistance is required to operate the equipment; and
  - (c) if the police officer does not take action under this section, the material may be destroyed, altered or otherwise interfered with.

- (2) Subject to subsections (4), (5) and (6), the police officer may—
  - (a) do whatever is necessary to secure the electronic equipment at the warrant premises, including—
    - (i) locking the equipment in a secure room; and
    - (ii) guarding or placing a guard at the equipment; and
  - (b) arrange for an expert to attend and operate the equipment.
- (3) The police officer must notify the occupier of the warrant premises of—
  - (a) the police officer's intention to secure the electronic equipment; and
  - (b) the periods that electronic equipment may be secured under subsections (5) and (6).
- (4) In securing electronic equipment under subsection (2), a police officer must cause the least disruption and inconvenience to the occupier of the warrant premises as is reasonably practicable in the circumstances.
- (5) Subject to subsection (6), the electronic equipment may be secured for a period not exceeding 24 hours.
- (6) If an expert attends within the period referred to in subsection (5), the electronic equipment may be secured for—
  - (a) an additional period ending when the expert finishes operating the equipment or 24 hours after the expert arrives (whichever occurs first); or

- (b) if the Magistrates' Court extends the period under section 465AAAAE(1), the period as so extended.

    - (i) will not arrive within 24 hours of the equipment being secured; or
    - (ii) will not finish operating the equipment within 24 hours after arriving.
- (2) A police officer may apply to the Magistrates' Court for an extension of the period for which the electronic equipment may be secured under section 465AAAAC by not more than 7 days.
- (3) The occupier of the warrant premises is entitled to be heard in relation to an application made under subsection (2).
- (4) The police officer must notify the occupier of the warrant premises—
  - (a) that the police officer intends to apply for an extension of the period for which the electronic equipment is secured; and
  - (b) that the occupier is entitled to be heard in relation to the application.

- (1) On an application under section 465AAAAD, the Magistrates' Court may extend the period that the electronic equipment may be secured if the Magistrates' Court is satisfied that the extension is appropriate in the circumstances and the expert—
  - (a) will not arrive within 24 hours of the equipment being secured; or
  - (b) will not finish operating the equipment within 24 hours after arriving.
- (2) In determining whether the extension is appropriate in the circumstances, the Magistrates' Court may have regard to the following—
  - (a) the length of time that is likely required for an expert to attend the warrant premises and operate the equipment;
  - (b) the inconvenience that securing the equipment may cause to a person;
  - (c) the likelihood that operating the electronic equipment will enable evidentiary material to be accessed, copied or converted into documentary form in accordance with section 465AAAAD;
  - (d) any other matters the Magistrates' Court considers relevant.
- (3) The Magistrates' Court may direct that a police officer must not take a specified action in relation to the secured electronic equipment during the extended period if it appears to the Magistrates' Court that—
  - (a) the taking of that action would cause unreasonable disruption and inconvenience to an occupier of the warrant premises; and

- (b) it is appropriate in the circumstances to limit the exercise of the police officer's powers under the warrant.
- (4) A period extended under subsection (1) ends at the earlier of either—
  - (a) the end of the further period specified by the Magistrates' Court in the extension; or
  - (b) the time at which the expert finishes operating the equipment.
- (5) The further period specified by the Magistrates' Court must not exceed 7 days.
- (6) The Magistrates' Court may extend a period under subsection (1) in relation to particular equipment more than once.

  - (b) the person is informed by a police officer—
    - (i) of the authorisation to give the direction under subsection (2) and of its terms; and
    - (ii) that it is an offence to fail to comply with the direction; and
  - (c) the person fails to comply with the direction without reasonable excuse.
- (5) A person who commits an offence against subsection (4) is liable to level 7 imprisonment (2 years maximum).
- (6) An offence against subsection (4) is a summary offence.
- (7) A person is not excused from complying with a direction under subsection (2) on the ground that complying with it may result in information being provided that might incriminate the person.
- (8) In this section access, data, data held in a computer and data storage device have the meanings given by section 247A(1).

knowledge of a computer or computer network

S. 465AA(1)
amended by
No. 44/2022
s. 76.

- (1) This section applies if a magistrate has issued a warrant under section 465 in relation to warrant premises.
- (2) The Magistrates' Court may, on the application of a police officer of or above the rank of senior sergeant, make an order requiring a specified person to provide any information or assistance that is reasonable and necessary to allow a police officer to do one or more of the things specified in subsection (3).
- (3) The things are—
  - (a) access data held in, or accessible from, a computer or data storage device that—
    - (i) is on warrant premises; or
    - (ii) has been seized under the warrant and is at a place other than warrant premises;
  - (b) copy to another data storage device data held in, or accessible from, a computer, or data storage device, described in paragraph (a);
  - (c) convert into documentary form or another form intelligible to a police officer—
    - (i) data held in, or accessible from, a computer, or data storage device, described in paragraph (a); or
    - (ii) data held in a data storage device to which the data was copied as described in paragraph (b).

- (4) An application may be made under subsection (2) at the same time as an application is made for the warrant under section 465 or at any time after the issue of the warrant.
- (5) The Magistrates' Court may make the order if satisfied that—
  - (a) there are reasonable grounds for suspecting that data held in, or accessible from, a computer, or data storage device, described in subsection (3)(a) will afford evidence as to the commission of an indictable offence; and
  - (b) the specified person is—
    - (i) reasonably suspected of having committed an indictable offence in relation to which the warrant was issued; or
    - (ii) the owner or lessee of the computer or device; or
    - (iii) an employee of the owner or lessee of the computer or device; or
    - (iv) a person engaged under a contract for services by the owner or lessee of the computer or device; or
    - (v) a person who uses or has used the computer or device; or
    - (vi) a person who is or was a system administrator for the computer network of which the computer or device forms or formed a part; and
  - (c) the specified person has relevant knowledge of—
    - (i) the computer or device or a computer network of which the computer or device forms or formed a part; or

- (ii) measures applied to protect data held in, or accessible from, the computer or device.
- (6) A person is not excused from complying with an order on the ground that complying with it may result in information being provided that might incriminate the person.
- (7) If—
  - (a) the computer or data storage device that is the subject of the order is seized under the warrant; and
  - (b) the order was granted on the basis of an application made before the seizure—the order does not have effect on or after the completion of the execution of the warrant.

Note

An application for another order under this section relating to the computer or data storage device may be made after the completion of the execution of the warrant.

- (8) If the computer or data storage device is not on warrant premises, the order must—
  - (a) specify the period within which the person must provide the information or assistance; and
  - (b) specify the place at which the person must provide the information or assistance; and
  - (c) specify the conditions (if any) to which the requirement to provide the information or assistance is subject.

- (9) A person commits an offence if—
- (a) the person has relevant knowledge of—
    - (i) the computer or data storage device or a computer network of which the computer or data storage device forms or formed a part; or
    - (ii) measures applied to protect data held in, or accessible from, the computer or data storage device; and
  - (b) the person is informed by a police officer—
    - (i) of the order made under this section and of its terms; and
    - (ii) that it is an indictable offence punishable by imprisonment to fail to comply with the order; and
  - (c) the person fails to comply with the order without reasonable excuse.
- (10) A person who commits an offence against subsection (9) is liable to level 6 imprisonment (5 years maximum).
- (10A) This section applies in addition to section 465AAA, whether or not in relation to the same specified person. However, a person may be charged with an offence against either section 465AAA(4) or subsection (9) but not both.
- (11) In this section access, data, data held in a computer and data storage device have the meanings given by section 247A(1).

465AAC Report to the Magistrates' Court after executing search warrant

- (1) A police officer who is issued a warrant under section 465 in relation to warrant premises must make and sign a report on the execution or non-execution of the warrant.
- (2) The police officer must cause the report under subsection (1) to be lodged—
  - (a) with a registrar at the venue of the Magistrates' Court that is nearest to the warrant premises; and
  - (b) no later than 10 days after the execution or expiry of the warrant, whichever is earlier.

- (3) A report under subsection (1) made in relation to a warrant that was executed must—
- (a) contain particulars of—
    - (i) the name of the police officer in charge of the execution of the warrant; and
    - (ii) if the police officer who executed the warrant sought the assistance of a person under section 465AAAAB—
      - (A) the person's name; and
      - (B) the person's expertise or qualifications; and
    - (iii) the date on which the warrant was executed; and
    - (iv) the powers that were executed under the warrant; and
    - (v) if electronic equipment was secured and operated by an expert under section 465AAAAC—
      - (A) the electronic equipment secured and operated; and
      - (B) the name of the expert who operated the electronic equipment; and
    - (vi) if an application to extend the time for electronic equipment to be secured is made under section 465AAAAD, the outcome of that application; and
    - (vii) the result of the execution of the warrant, including—
      - (A) the name of any persons arrested; and
      - (B) a description of any thing seized; and

(C) a description of any searches undertaken; and

(D) a description of any thing that was broken open, unlocked, destroyed or disposed or moved to another place under section 465AAAA(3) during the execution of the warrant; and

(b) be in the prescribed form (if any).

(4) A report under subsection (1) made in relation to a warrant that was not executed must contain reasons why the warrant was not executed.

465AAE Application to inspect a report

(1) A person may apply to the Magistrates' Court at the venue where the report was filed or lodged under section 465AAC(2) for an order authorising the person to inspect the report.

- (2) The Magistrates' Court may, on an application made under subsection (1), make an order authorising the person to inspect the report or a part of the report that is relevant to the person, if satisfied that the person is—
- (a) a person who was arrested during the execution of the warrant; or
  - (b) the owner or occupier of the building, receptacle, place or vehicle that was subject to the execution of the warrant; or
  - (c) the owner of property that was seized during the execution of the warrant; or
  - (d) the owner of property that was broken open, unlocked, destroyed or disposed of during the execution of the warrant; or
  - (e) a person who has an interest in a thing that was seized, broken open, unlocked, destroyed or disposed of during the execution of the warrant; or
  - (f) if electronic equipment was secured for operation by an expert under section 465AAAAC, a person who has an interest in the equipment.

640 Transitional provision—Justice Legislation Amendment (Miscellaneous) Act 2025

- (1) Section 180 as substituted by Part 2 of the Justice Legislation Amendment (Miscellaneous) Act 2025 is taken to have been in force, instead of section 180 as in force before the commencement of that Part, during the period—
- (a) beginning on and including 1 April 1959;
and
  - (b) ending immediately before the commencement of that Part.
- (2) Without limiting subsection (1), that subsection applies for the purposes of any offence relating to section 180 during the period specified in that subsection, including the following offences—
- (a) an offence against section 181 in respect of—
    - (i) the doing of an act or thing in contravention of section 180; or
    - (ii) the doing of an act or thing outside Victoria or partially outside Victoria which, if done within Victoria, would contravene section 180;
  - (b) an offence against section 182 in respect of the doing or attempting of an act or thing without authority which, if authorised, would contravene section 180;
  - (c) an offence against section 321(1) in circumstances where the offence that is the subject of the agreement is an offence against section 180;
  - (d) an offence against section 321M that is constituted by an attempt to commit an offence against section 180.

- (3) Despite subsection (1), conduct that was engaged in before the commencement of Part 2 of the Justice Legislation Amendment (Miscellaneous) Act 2025 does not contravene section 180 as substituted by that Part if the conduct was given assent pursuant to section 180 as in force before the commencement of that Part.
- (4) Despite subsection (1), if a person was found guilty of an offence specified in subsection (5) before the commencement of Part 2 of the Justice Legislation Amendment (Miscellaneous) Act 2025, subsection (1) does not affect that finding of guilt or anything arising from that finding of guilt.
- (5) The offences specified for the purposes of subsection (4) are—
  - (a) an offence against section 180 as in force before the commencement of Part 2 of the Justice Legislation Amendment (Miscellaneous) Act 2025; and
  - (b) an offence that relates to an offence against section 180 as in force before the commencement of Part 2 of the Justice Legislation Amendment (Miscellaneous) Act 2025.

1 General information

See www.legislation.vic.gov.au for Victorian Bills, Acts and current authorised versions of legislation and up-to-date legislative information.

The Crimes Act 1958 was assented to on 30 September 1958 and came into operation on 1 April 1959: Government Gazette 18 March 1959 page 892.

INTERPRETATION OF LEGISLATION ACT 1984 (ILA)

Style changes

Section 54A of the ILA authorises the making of the style changes set out in Schedule 1 to that Act.

References to ILA s. 39B

Sidenotes which cite ILA s. 39B refer to section 39B of the ILA which provides that where an undivided section or clause of a Schedule is amended by the insertion of one or more subsections or subclauses, the original section or clause becomes subsection or subclause (1) and is amended by the insertion of the expression "(1)" at the beginning of the original section or clause.

Interpretation

As from 1 January 2001, amendments to section 36 of the ILA have the following effects:

- Headings

All headings included in an Act which is passed on or after 1 January 2001 form part of that Act. Any heading inserted in an Act which was passed before 1 January 2001, by an Act passed on or after 1 January 2001, forms part of that Act. This includes headings to Parts, Divisions or Subdivisions in a Schedule; sections; clauses; items; tables; columns; examples; diagrams; notes or forms. See section 36(1A)(2A).

- Examples, diagrams or notes

All examples, diagrams or notes included in an Act which is passed on or after 1 January 2001 form part of that Act. Any examples, diagrams or notes inserted in an Act which was passed before 1 January 2001, by an Act passed on or after 1 January 2001, form part of that Act. See section 36(3A).

- Punctuation

All punctuation included in an Act which is passed on or after 1 January 2001 forms part of that Act. Any punctuation inserted in an Act which was passed before 1 January 2001, by an Act passed on or after 1 January 2001, forms part of that Act. See section 36(3B).

- Provision numbers

All provision numbers included in an Act form part of that Act, whether inserted in the Act before, on or after 1 January 2001. Provision numbers include section numbers, subsection numbers, paragraphs and subparagraphs. See section 36(3C).

- Location of "legislative items"

A "legislative item" is a penalty, an example or a note. As from 13 October 2004, a legislative item relating to a provision of an Act is taken to be at the foot of that provision even if it is preceded or followed by another legislative item that relates to that provision. For example, if a penalty at the foot of a provision is followed by a note, both of these legislative items will be regarded as being at the foot of that provision. See section 36B.

- Other material

Any explanatory memorandum, table of provisions, endnotes, index and other material printed after the Endnotes does not form part of an Act. See section 36(3)(3D)(3E).

<sup>27</sup> S. 393 (repealed): Schedule 3 to the Crimes (Mental Impairment and Unfitness to be Tried) Act 1997, No. 65/1997 reads as follows:

Schedule 3—Savings and transitional provisions

Section 89

1 Definitions

In this Schedule—

commencement day means the day on which this Schedule comes into operation;

existing detainee means a person who, immediately before the commencement day, was subject to an order under section 393 or 420 of the Crimes Act 1958 (whether by the court or by the Governor).

2 Existing detainees

- (1) Each existing detainee is, on and after the commencement day, deemed to be subject to a custodial supervision order under this Act.

- (2) The nominal term of the custodial supervision order is to be determined in accordance with section 28 as if the maximum penalty for the offence which led to the person becoming an existing detainee were the maximum penalty attaching to that offence on the commencement day.
- (3) If the offence referred to in subsection (2) no longer exists—
  - (a) the Supreme Court, on application by the existing detainee or the Director of Public Prosecutions, must determine whether there is an existing offence, as at the commencement day, with which the existing detainee could have been charged had it existed at the time of the original charge; and
  - (b) if there is such an offence, the nominal term is to be determined by reference to the maximum penalty for that offence as at the commencement day.
- (4) The nominal term runs from the day on which the existing detainee was made subject to the order under section 393 or 420 of the Crimes Act 1958.

Sch. 3 cl. 2(5) amended by No. 43/1998 s. 40(b)(i).

- (5) If the nominal term has expired, a major review must be held within 6 months after the commencement day.

3 Leave

- (1) Subject to this clause, an existing detainee who, immediately before the commencement day, was on leave from the place of detention that corresponds to leave that may be granted under Part 7 is deemed to be on the corresponding leave as if granted under that Part, and any conditions to which the leave was subject immediately before the commencement day continue to apply.

Sch. 3 cl. 3(2) amended by No. 43/1998 s. 40(b)(ii).

- (2) Subclause (1) applies for the period of 12 months commencing on, and including, the commencement day.
- (3) For the purposes of this clause, leave granted before the commencement day corresponds to leave that may be granted under Part 7 if it is substantially similar to that leave.

Sch. 3 cl. 3(4) inserted by No. 7/2002 s. 33(1).

- (4) Sections 53 and 54, as in force immediately before the commencement of sections 24 and 25 of the Forensic Health Legislation (Amendment) Act 2002, continue to apply in relation to any limited off-ground leave granted before that commencement, until the expiry of that leave.

4 Revocation of supervision order

- (1) Despite anything to the contrary in Part 5, an existing detainee who has been, or is deemed to have been, on extended leave for a period of at least 12 months may apply to the court that made the original order under which he or she was detained for revocation of his or her supervision order.
- (2) On an application under subclause (1) the court may revoke the supervision order if satisfied on the evidence available that the safety of the existing detainee or members of the public will not be seriously endangered as a result of the revocation of the order.
- (3) In considering an application for revocation of a supervision order in respect of an existing detainee the court may take into account any reports on the existing detainee made by, or submitted to, the Adult Parole Board before the commencement day.

5 Persons released under section 498 of Crimes Act 1958

Despite the repeal of section 498 of the Crimes Act 1958, any conditions imposed on a person under that section that were in force immediately before the commencement day continue to apply on and after the commencement day.

6 Unfitness to stand trial

- (1) Part 2 applies with respect to an offence that is alleged to have been committed, whether before, on or after the commencement day.
- (2) If a person has been found unfit to stand trial but no order has been made in respect of the person before the commencement day, the court must proceed to hold a special hearing under Part 3 in respect of the person.

7 Mental impairment and insanity

- (1) Despite section 25, the defence of insanity continues to apply with respect to any offence alleged to have been committed before the commencement day.
- (2) If a jury returns a verdict of not guilty on account of insanity in relation to a person charged with an offence alleged to have been committed before the commencement day, that verdict is to be taken for all purposes to be a finding of not guilty because of mental impairment under Part 4.

Sch. 3 cl. 8 inserted by No. 7/2002 s. 33(2).

8 Periodic major reviews

Section 35, as amended by section 14 of the Forensic Health Legislation (Amendment) Act 2002, applies to a supervision order made before, on or after the commencement of that section 14.

Sch. 3 cl. 9 inserted by No. 7/2002 s. 33(2).

9 Notification requirements

Sections 38A, 38B, 38C and 38E, as inserted by section 17 of the Forensic Health Legislation (Amendment) Act 2002, apply to—

- (a) applications that are made after the commencement of that section 17; and
- (b) reviews that are listed by the court after the commencement of that section 17.

Sch. 3 cl. 10 inserted by No. 7/2002 s. 33(2).

10 Appeals

- (1) An order for unconditional release can be appealed under section 19A or 24A (as the case may be) whether the order was made before or after the commencement of that section, unless—
  - (a) the order had been appealed before that commencement; or
  - (b) any time limit for appealing the order had expired before that commencement.
- (2) A supervision order can be appealed under section 28A whether the order was made before or after the commencement of that section, unless—
  - (a) the order had been appealed before that commencement; or
  - (b) any time limit for appealing the order had expired before that commencement.
- (3) An order confirming, varying or revoking a supervision order can be appealed under section 34 (as substituted by section 13 of the Forensic Health Legislation (Amendment) Act 2002) or section 34A (as the case may be) whether the order was made before or after the commencement of that section, unless—

- (a) the order had been appealed before that commencement; or
- (b) any time limit for appealing the order had expired before that commencement.
- (4) A refusal to grant extended leave or a grant of extended leave can be appealed under section 57B whether the refusal or grant was made before or after the commencement of that section.
- (5) A revocation of extended leave or a refusal to revoke extended leave can be appealed under section 58A whether the revocation or refusal was made before or after the commencement of that section.
- (6) Any appeal referred to in subclause (1)(a), (2)(a) or (3)(a) that has not been determined before the commencement referred to in that subclause is to be determined in accordance with this Act as in force immediately before that commencement.

Sch. 3 cl. 11 inserted by No. 68/2009 s. 97(Sch. item 39.52).

11 Transitional provisions—Criminal Procedure Act 2009

- (1) Section 14A as inserted by section 423 of the Criminal Procedure Act 2009 applies to a finding on an investigation under Part 2 that an accused is unfit to stand trial made on or after the commencement of section 423 of that Act.
- (2) Section 24AA as inserted by section 424 of the Criminal Procedure Act 2009 applies to a verdict of not guilty because of mental impairment recorded on or after the commencement of section 424 of that Act.

Sch. 3 cl. 12 inserted by No. 68/2009 s. 97(Sch. item 39.52).

12 Transitional provisions—Criminal Procedure Amendment (Consequential and Transitional Provisions) Act 2009

- (1) Section 19A as amended by item 39.17 of the Schedule to the Criminal Procedure Amendment (Consequential and Transitional Provisions) Act 2009 applies to an appeal under that section where the order to which the appeal relates is made on or after the commencement of that item.
- (2) Section 24A as amended by item 39.24 of the Schedule to the Criminal Procedure Amendment (Consequential and Transitional Provisions) Act 2009 applies to an appeal under that section where the order to which the appeal relates is made on or after the commencement of that item.
- (3) Section 28A as amended by item 39.25 of the Schedule to the Criminal Procedure Amendment (Consequential and Transitional Provisions) Act 2009 applies to an appeal under that section where the order to which the appeal relates is made on or after the commencement of that item.
- (4) Section 34 as amended by item 39.28 of the Schedule to the Criminal Procedure Amendment (Consequential and Transitional Provisions) Act 2009 applies to an appeal under that section where the order to which the appeal relates is made on or after the commencement of that item.
- (5) Section 34A as amended by item 39.31 of the Schedule to the Criminal Procedure Amendment (Consequential and Transitional Provisions) Act 2009 applies to an appeal against the revocation of a non-custodial supervision order where the order revoking the supervision order is made on or after the commencement of that item.

- (6) Section 57B as amended by item 39.38 of the Schedule to the Criminal Procedure Amendment (Consequential and Transitional Provisions) Act 2009 applies to an appeal under that section where the application for extended leave is refused or granted, as the case may be, on or after the commencement of that item.
- (7) Section 58A as amended by item 39.40 of the Schedule to the Criminal Procedure Amendment (Consequential and Transitional Provisions) Act 2009 applies to an appeal under that section where the extended leave is revoked or the application for revocation of extended leave is refused, as the case may be, on or after the commencement of that item.
- (8) Section 73H as amended by item 39.44 of the Schedule to the Criminal Procedure Amendment (Consequential and Transitional Provisions) Act 2009 applies to an appeal under that section where the order to which the appeal relates is made on or after the commencement of that item.
- (9) Section 73N as amended by item 39.46 of the Schedule to the Criminal Procedure Amendment (Consequential and Transitional Provisions) Act 2009 applies to an appeal under that section where the order to which the appeal relates is made on or after the commencement of that item.

Sch. 3 cl. 13 (Heading) amended by No. 29/2011 s. 3(Sch. 1 item 23).

Sch. 3 cl. 13 inserted by No. 29/2010 s. 36.

13 Transitional provision—Health and Human Services Legislation Amendment Act 2010

Any act matter or thing of a continuing nature that was done by or in relation to, or any proceeding brought by or against, the Secretary to the Department of Human Services before the commencement of Division 1 of Part 5 of the Health and Human Services Legislation Amendment Act 2010 is to be taken to be done by or in relation to, and may be brought by or against, the Secretary to the Department of Health after that commencement if the act matter or thing or proceeding relates to—

- (a) a forensic patient; or
- (b) an approved mental health service.

Sch. 3 cl. 15 inserted by No. 55/2014 s. 131.

15 Transitional provision—Criminal Organisations Control and Other Acts Amendment Act 2014

This Act as amended by Division 1 of Part 5 of the Criminal Organisations Control and Other Acts Amendment Act 2014 applies to—

- (a) a proceeding for an offence that is commenced on or after the commencement of Division 1 of Part 5 of that Act; and
- (b) a proceeding for an offence that, on the commencement of Division 1 of Part 5 of that Act, is before the Children's Court, irrespective of when the proceeding was commenced.

Sch. 3 cl. 16 inserted by No. 6/2017 s. 12.

16 Transitional provision—Crimes Legislation Further Amendment Act 2017

This Act as amended by Part 3 of the Crimes Legislation Further Amendment Act 2017 applies to an investigation into the fitness of an accused to stand trial that commences on or after the day on which that Part comes into operation.

Sch. 3 cl. 16A inserted by No. 11/2020 s. 31.

16A Transitional provision—COVID-19 Omnibus (Emergency Measures) Act 2020—investigations into fitness to stand trial

- (1) Despite the repeal of Part 11, an investigation into the fitness of an accused—
  - (a) that, immediately before that repeal, was being conducted by the court, without a jury, in accordance with that Part; and
  - (b) in which the court had not yet made a finding—is to continue, after that repeal, to be conducted by the court, without a jury, in accordance with that Part.
- (2) For the purposes of an investigation that continues in accordance with subsection (1), Part 11 continues to have effect despite its repeal.
- (3) After the conclusion of an investigation that was continued in accordance with subsection (1), sections 95, 96, 97 and 98 continue to apply in relation to that investigation despite their repeal.
- (4) Subject to this section, on and after the repeal of Part 11, a finding of a court, on an investigation conducted in accordance with that Part, that an accused was or was not fit to stand trial has, for all purposes, the same effect as a finding of a jury.

Sch. 3 cl. 16B inserted by No. 11/2020 s. 31.

16B Transitional provision—COVID-19 Omnibus
(Emergency Measures) Act 2020—special hearings

- (1) Despite the repeal of Part 11, a special hearing by judge alone in which judgment was not delivered before that repeal may continue to be held by judge alone, without a jury, after that repeal.
- (2) For the purposes of a special hearing that continues in accordance with subsection (1), Part 11 continues to have effect despite its repeal.
- (3) On and after the repeal of section 103, a finding of a judge at a special hearing by judge alone has, for all purposes, the same effect as a finding of a jury.
- (4) Subsection (3) has effect despite the repeal of section 103.
- (5) In this section—
special hearing by judge alone means a special hearing held in accordance with an order under section 101 as in force immediately before its repeal.

Sch. 3 cl. 16C inserted by No. 11/2020 s. 31.

16C Transitional provision—COVID-19 Omnibus
(Emergency Measures) Act 2020—special hearings

On and after the repeal of section 121, that section continues to apply, despite its repeal, in relation to any issue, application or review that a court—

- (a) has determined to decide or determine entirely on the basis of written submissions and without the appearance of the parties;
and
- (b) has not yet so decided or determined.

Sch. 3 cl. 16D inserted by No. 11/2022 s. 7.

16D Transitional provision—Justice Legislation Amendment (Trial by Judge Alone and Other Matters) Act 2022

- (1) If an application for an order under section 94 is made before the repeal of Part 11, and is not determined before that repeal, then despite that repeal—
  - (a) the application may be heard and determined as if Part 11 had not been repealed; and
  - (b) for the purposes of the application, and any order made on the application, and any special hearing to which that order relates, Part 11 as in force immediately before its repeal continues to have effect.
- (2) If, immediately before the repeal of Part 11, there was in force an order under section 94 and judgment had not yet been delivered in the special hearing to which that order relates, then despite that repeal—
  - (a) the order continues to have effect as if Part 11 had not been repealed; and
  - (b) for the purposes of the order and the special hearing to which it relates, Part 11 as in force immediately before its repeal continues to have effect.
- (3) Subsection (2) applies in relation to an order whether or not the special hearing to which the order relates commenced before the repeal of Part 11.
- (4) On and after the repeal of section 96, a finding of a judge at a special hearing by judge alone has, for all purposes, the same effect as a finding of a jury.
- (5) Subsection (4) has effect despite the repeal of section 96.

(6) Nothing in this section limits section 14 of the Interpretation of Legislation Act 1984.

(7) In this section—

special hearing by judge alone means a special hearing held in accordance with an order under section 94 as in force before its repeal.
